ADVANCE OF THE POTOMAC ARMY, GEN. MEADE'S OPERATIONS!

The Fighting on Friday and Saturday. NEW YORK.—The Tribune has the following, dated "Army of the Potomac, Saturday night:"

"This morning, at 11 o'clock, our forces, were dashing forward in line of battle on the Orange and Fredericksburg pike, towards the first mentioned point, driving the enemy's skirmishers before them.

The Third Corps, which crossed the Rapidan at Jacobs' Mills, was engaged yesterday six miles from Locust Grove, on the road leading to Culpeper, deployed to the left of our lines.

The Sixth remained on the right and the First on the left of the Sixth. The Second retained its position, while the Fifth deployed from its first station on the left to Locust Grove, as the reserve of the army.

The Third Corps yesterday will be referred to before closing. A brisk skirmish commenced as our line reached a point a mile and a half to the west of Locust Point Grove.

Our forces pushed steadily onward, however, driving the enemy's skirmishers, and hastening their retreat by an occasional shell from our batteries, to which the guns of the enemy did not reply.

Gen. Meade and staff had come up at an early hour to Robertson's tavern.—The headquarters train was ordered back out of range. Long trains of ammunition wagons and ambulances were moving to the front and everything indicated a general engagement, should Lee fall into position, and should the weather be favorable.

The rain continued to fall at intervals, but still the troops pressed forward, and the skirmishing still went on as before, the rebel line gradually falling back, until it had reached the Western Bank of Mile Run, two and a half miles from the tavern, and a short distance from Old Vanderville.

Here evidences of the intention of the enemy to dispute the passage of the run had. Earthworks and abatis were visible on the clearing beyond, and Gen. Meade accordingly disposed his forces along a densely wooded crest of hills east of the run.

Owing to the difficulty in moving artillery, and even infantry, through the woods on either side of the road, sometime elapsed before the formation of our line. Night coming on the firing ceased, except an occasional shell from our lines.

Nothing of importance has transpired in the army of Gen. Meade, who occupies a section of what is termed the wilderness.

Many disapprove of the story that Lee will give battle this side of Orange Court House or Gordonsville.

The Tribune's correspondent furnishes the following account of Friday's battle: In obedience to orders, the 3d, followed by the 6th corps, on Thursday, P. M., crossed the Rapidan at Jacobs' Mills without opposition, except a shot or two from a few rebel videttes, who were stationed on the south side of the river, these corps pursued the road leading to Morton's Ford, a few miles above where they took a road to the left in order to strike the continuation of the road from Culpeper to Robertson's Tavern.

On Thursday night they rested near Jones' house, and yesterday morning continued their march to effect a junction with General Warren's corps.

Gen. Prince's division, of the 2d corps, was in the advance, and as the head of the column reached a small clearing, it was greeted with a volley from a line of rebel skirmishers. The 1st brigade of the 2d division was thrown forward into line, with the 1st Massachusetts deployed as skirmishers and supported by the 1st and 3d divisions of the corps.

The 1st Mass. advanced through a dense thicket, fighting and pushing the rebels back to the vicinity of Mill Run, when the enemy, strengthening his line, gradually forced back our line.

Skirmishing continued till 3:30 P. M., when the enemy, with shouts and yells, charged our first line, consisting of Prince's division, the right of which first fell back in some confusion, but soon rallied, and with the aid of one section of Randolph's 1st Rhode Island battery, and battery K, of the 4th United States, which poured volleys of grape and canister into the advancing columns of the enemy, consisting of Johnson's and a part of Rhodes' divisions of Ewell's corps, twice in succession, gallantly repulsed the enemy, who were in each advance driven back in a perfect rout.

The fight ceased at dark. The 3rd corps bivouacked on the field, at the junction of the two roads just mentioned, six miles from Locust Grove.

Our loss in killed and wounded probably amounts to not less than three hundred and fifty.

With such haste did the rebels retreat that they left behind all their dead, the ground being literally covered with them. Our proportion of killed in the fight is very small, and on inspection of the battle field, leads to the conclusion that their casualties far exceeded ours.

But one brigade of the 6th corps was engaged—that of Gen. Ruseel, famous for the brilliant charge at Rappahannock Station.

A Reported Battle on Monday. NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Herald's Potomac army letter says: This Monday morning at eight o'clock the battle opened along our entire front, the enemy replying only from a few places.

For an hour the artillery practice was incessant and heavy, then came a lull, which lasted until one o'clock, our infantry in the meantime preparing for a grand assault along the whole line. But now comes a report that Gen. Warren has found the enemy too strongly posted in his front and Gen. Meade has gone to the left.

Another Herald correspondent, who left the Army of the Potomac at 3 o'clock, P. M., on Monday says:—Just before leaving the Rapidan, every thing was in readiness for the assault.

Gen. Warren's Fight on Monday. NEW YORK, December 3.—A Tribune special says:—On Sunday morning Gen. Warren, of the Second Corps, with the Third Division of the Sixth Corps, moved down on Fredericksburg plank-road...

in readiness for the assault. I have but little doubt but that our forces occupy the enemy's works on Mine Run. My impression is, he had left the night before in the direction of Gordonsville, leaving only force enough to make a show in our front.

When I left an assault had been ordered to be made upon their works by infantry, with the bayonet, under cover of artillery fire. The cannoning commenced before I left, and continued some time, without any reply from the enemy, and, finally, ceased entirely before it reached Ely Ford.

Gen. Warren's Fight on Monday. NEW YORK, December 3.—A Tribune special says:—On Sunday morning Gen. Warren, of the Second Corps, with the Third Division of the Sixth Corps, moved down on Fredericksburg plank-road, which runs parallel with the Orange pike, and about three miles from it, and proceeded for a mile, when he encountered the enemy's skirmishers, who were driven forward a mile and a half to the West.

The enemy then opened with artillery on the 2d division of the 2d corps from some temporary works on a hill half a mile South of an unfinished railroad, but were soon driven out, and the corps rested for the night, with the intention of charging and flanking the rebels in the morning.

Early yesterday morning General Warren requested his commanders to inform their men of the nature of the task before them, and exhort them to make a gallant assault upon the enemy's works in their front, which had been thrown up during the night.

After an hour's cannonading, he was to make a grand charge, and the men were instructed to reserve their fire till they entered the rebel works. No charge was made on the left.

At 10:30 A. M., General Meade came down to the left and was for a long time engaged in earnest conversation with General Warren. General Meade seemed to be administering a rebuke to Warren.
