This class of Bitters has caused and will continue cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kapt continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is capated and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attended and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attended upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get one bettle of Hoofand's German Bitters and mix with three quarts of good Brandy or whinkey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical vibrates and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor blue in the market, and will cost much less. You will trave all the virtues of Hoofand's Birrans he consection with a good article of Liquor, at a much has price than these inferior preparations will cost you. DY virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued out or the Court of Common Pleas of Greene county, and to to me directed, there will be exposed to nable sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on Saturday the 20th day of February next, at 20'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of James Kincaid, of, in and 10 a certain lot of grouna situated in the village of Jefferson, fronting on Main street sixty feet and nunning back to Mulberry Ally, adjoining lot of Edward Parkinsen on the North, and Jacob French on the South, and has erected thereon a large Frame dwelling house, Frame stable, Well of water and some fruit trees. FEVER AM DAGUE. The chills will not return if these Bitters are used. No person in a Fever and Ague District should be without them.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Reiter of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient masses why a man may not testify to the beantle he believed himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the banch of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Heofand's I do this the more readily in regard to Heofand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of the city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they well chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Behave Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, which suffering from great and long continued chility. The use of three bottles of these Bittens, at the heatening of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and month which I had not falt for six months before, and almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
