of union among Protestant Christians. Dr. Begg of the Scotch Free Church announces he will move the Presbytery to adopt means to put an end aracing the students to the reading of "paper" sermons.
There is a priest now in Turin, named Don Ambrogio who preaches in the public square to the people with great energy and boldness, against the expression Church of Rome, exhorting the people to read the Scriptures. He professes still to be a Roman Catholic. vicar of the Catholic Bishop of Charleston, S. C., is in Paris, asking aid for the suffering Catholics in Charlestopiale to rebuild certain charitable institutions destroyed in the conflagration last year.

The receipts of the American The Speciety for the year ending April 1, 1863, were $251,000, being nearly $50,000 in advance of the previous year.

During the eight months of the present year the advance has been still greater, eing almeady about $60,000.

The fruits of the first Jubilee mischary meeting of the Wesleyan Methdisa, held in England, amounted to £30,000, or $150,000. Several meetings held since at the great centres of Bratch Methodism, as at Liverpool, Manchester, and Birmingham, has raised the aggregate contributions to about £65,000, $625,000. And the end is not the it has been very properly suggested and worthy of the attention of congregations, that the most equitable method of increasing the pastor's salary now, would be to pay it to him in silver or gold, or its equivalent in currency. The annual collection for the Scottish Episcopal Church Society, in the Church of St. John, Ballieston, was simply one penny !

The Sixth anniversary of the Protestant Episcopal Society for the Promotion of Christianity among the Jews, was celebrated recently in this city. The most encouraging feature in the annual report is, there is an encouraging dispotion among the Jews to hear the claims of Jesus.
