From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice(by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued deblity. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident selfof, and restoration to a degree of bodity and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thath the Almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thath the Phila., June 23, '62.

Those suffering from MARASMUS, wasting away with scarcely any fiesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases, will have most surprising effect.

The chills will not return if these Bitters are used. No person in a Fever and Ague District should be without them.

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS We call the attention of all having friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cared by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the diseases organs are speedly removed. We have no Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the disgestive organs are speedly removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.
The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from autherers in the army and hospitals, who have heen restored to health by the use of these Bitters, seen to them by their filends.
