Present for Jeff. Davis Captured.

A letter from Key West gives the following in reference to the cargo of the steamer Cumberland, recently captured in the Gulf: "The cargo of the Cumberland is a well assorted one, and very valuable. Among other things found on board were one hundred barrels of gunpowder and a large number of English rifles. She has also in her hold a very large quantity of fine grey rebel uniform cloth and bates upon backs of superior navy blue, besides an immense number of ready-made rebel uniforms, boots and shoes--in short, everything necessary for the outfit of both sea and land forces. I have it on good authority that the cargo cost seventy thousand pounds in gold in England; that the ship was sold there for fifty thousand pounds, and that ten thousand pounds more were expended on her in Havana. Another pleasant little piece of intelligence is, that a most elegant and costly set of parlor furniture in papier mache, suitable to the illustrious and honored President, has been found on board the Cumberland. It was intended as a present to Jeff Davis from his admirers in England. Another set, intended for Ex-Senator Mallory, the rebel Secretary of War, was also found on board."

Tunnell Hill was earned this morning, after considerable skirmishing. Scouts who arrived at Gen. Grant's headquarters this morning, say that Gen. Sherman has struck the Mobile & Ohio Railroad. Gen. Cavalry Skirmish at Cumberland Gap.

A dispatch from Cumberland Gap of the 24th says: On the 22d inst. a battalion of the 11th Tennessee cavalry, stationed on the Virginia road, five miles east, were surprised at daylight and surrounded by a large force of rebel cavalry. Two companies of infantry of the 91st Indiana and 2d North Carolina, were with the command of Col. Davis. The company of the 91st Indiana, in charge of Lieut. Wise, cut their way through and escaped, with a loss of three killed. Two officers and about sixty of Col. Davis' men, succeeded in making their escape, but the rest of the command were probably captured. At the same time the rebels attacked our outposts at Powell's Bridge, on the Tazewell road, five miles south, consisting of fifty men, in charge of Capt. Pickering, 54th Kentucky infantry supported by a block house. The rebels were repulsed three times, when Capt. Pickering and his men were withdrawn to prevent their being cut off from the Gap. Col. Davis is said to be severely wounded.
