BT THOMAS HOOD.

Love thy tender mother, little que! Kiss and clasp her neck again-Hereafter she may have a son, Love thy mother, little one!

Gaze upon her loving eyes, And mirror back her love for thee-Hereafter thou may'st shudder sighs To meet them when they cannot see, Gaze men her living eyes!

Press her lips the while they glow With love that they have often told-Hereafter thou may'st press, in woe, And kiss them until thine own are cold, Press her lips the while they glow!

Pray for her at eve and more, That Heaven may long the stroke defer, For thou may'st love the hour forlorn, When thou wilt ask to die with her, Pray for her at eve and morn!

Children's Feet. A writer for Hall's Journal of Health, says that life-long discomfort, disease, and sudden death, often come to children through the inattention or carelessness of parents. A child should never be allowed to go to sleep with cold feet; the thing to be last attended to, in putting a child to bed, should be to see that the feet are dry and warm; neglect of this has often resulted in a dangerous attack of croup, diptheria, or fatal sere throat. Always, on coming from school, on entering the house from a visit or exand in rainy, muddy, or thawy weather, the child's shoes sh be removed, and the mother show hereof if the stockings are the damp, and if so, should require the. be taken off, the feet held before to are and rubbed with the hand until perfectly dry, and another pair of stockings be put on and another pair of shoes, while the other stockings and shoes should be placed where they can be well dried, so as to be ready for future use at a moment's notice. Tight shoes inevitably arrest the free circulation of the bleed and nervous influence through the feet, and directly tend to cause cold

"I'lle above Pianos from their Factory possess all the superior and latest improvements, including the AGRAFFE TREBLE.

Overstung, Improved Full Iron Frame, Felt Covers liammers, &c.

THALBERG, one of the most eminent planists in the world, says: "I have great pleasure in certifying the I have tried your Pianos, and find them equal, if not superior, to any in this country. Assong their great qualities, which distinguish them, is the evenness of tone, the agreeable and easy touch, and volume of tone. Wishing you all the success you so hably deserve, I am, sir, yours truly.

S. THALBERG."

C. Grong, the well known composer, Withmington, Delaware, says that "they cannot be surpassed by any in the market."

H. Vieuxresure, writes: "I was delighted as Beaf-In the market."

H. Vicentespre writes:—"I was delighted on Beasting the clear and full tene of one of your first class Pianos."
