

Local Department.

Soldiers from the Eighty-Fifth.

Lt. L. M. Rogers, of Co. F, 85th, Pa. Volunteers, reached this place on Friday last, with some 22 re-enlisted and furloughed members of the Company. Below are their names: Serg't. E. A. Russell, Serg't. R. B. Church, Serg't. Alonzo Lightner, Corp. Thomas J. White, Corp. J. N. Durbin, Corp. T. M. Sellers, Corp. J. D. Havelly, Privates, Wm. E. Leonard, Lisbon Scott, John Rizer, Isaac Gray, Geo. Pettit, J. Kimbal, James Huffman, Jacob Huffman, David Fry, Henry Fry, A. J. Morris, Alfred McDonald, John Bush, William Seabold, Thomas Rinehart, and also, Andrew J. Frakes, of Co. C, same Regiment. Benjamin F. Hagar, of Co. I, 85th Pa. Reserves, has also returned. These lads have served the country faithfully and gallantly, and met with a cordial welcome on their return. Among other acquaintances we were glad to meet our young friend, JOHN I. REED, one of the staunchest Democrats living, and an ardent friend of McCLELLAN. He looks well and hopes to live to cast a vote for "Little Mac."

Our Township Election.

The following is the vote polled at the election in Marion township on Friday last:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Vote. Includes Simon Rinehart (110), D. A. Worley (94), Joseph Taylor (136), R. A. McCConnell (116), J. J. Summersgill (72), Joseph Wylly (100), Wm. Campbell (60), C. A. Black (114), D. W. Braden (102), Geo. S. Jeffrey (89), Wm. McClelland (80), John Bradley (73), Simon Rinehart, Sr. (79).

A Row.

A row occurred in this place on the night of the election among several young men, in which one of them was severely cut and an "outsider," who had interfered in the difficulty, came near receiving a dangerous, if not fatal stab. The whole affair was most disgraceful to the parties concerned, and should admonish our borough authorities to suppress the disorderly demonstrations which have been so common on our streets for a year past, and which may yet result in most serious consequences.

Cheap and Fashionable Dry Goods.

It affords us pleasure to invite the special attention of such of our readers as visit Pittsburgh to lay in their semi-annual supplies of Dry Goods, to the advertisement of J. W. BARKER & CO., of No. 59 Market street. Their establishment is one of the largest in the country, and their stock embraces almost every known style of goods for wearing apparel and housekeeping purposes. One of the partners resides in New York, and devotes his whole time, taste and energy to the purchase of their varied and extensive assortment, keeping their shelves constantly replenished with fresh and fashionable goods, which is an advantage few houses enjoy. Their business is perfectly systematized, and under the direction of a gentleman of large mercantile experience, who has been most judicious in his selection of salesmen. Their prices, a most important matter, will always be found as low as the lowest in the city. Country Merchants are offered rare inducements by the Messrs. BARKER, and will find it to their advantage to inspect their assortment, before making their Spring purchases.

Beet, Shoe, Hat, Cap and Trimming Store.

Our young friend, Mr. James B. Lindsey, we are pleased to learn, is going into the above business the 1st of next month. Waynesburg has long stood in need of an establishment of this kind, and we have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Lindsey will have a first class establishment. He is now in the store in the room now occupied by N. Clark & Son, opposite the Court House.

The Draft Postponed.

Both Houses of Congress have passed the bill continuing the payment of Government bonds until the first of April next. The order for the draft on the 10th inst., has been withdrawn, and the draft thus postponed indefinitely. It is thought that by diligent effort the quota of our State may be filled by the 1st of April, and the draft avoided.

Spring Goods.

Our young friend, JOE PORTER, has just returned from the East with a superb assortment of Spring and Summer Goods, bought for cash, and consequently at low figures. Drop in and look at his selections. They cannot fail to please. The soldiers' relief bill has passed both Houses of the Legislature of Ohio. It authorizes a State levy of two mills, a discretionary county levy of one mill, and a similar city levy of half a mill—total, three and a half mills. This tax will, it is estimated, yield in the aggregate $3,000,000.

The sole great objects of this war are the restoration of the unity of the nation, and the supremacy of the laws of the country.—McClellan.

These are words fit to be inscribed on the conservative standard in the coming Presidential election, and he who holds aloft the standard bearing this inscription or an equivalent one, will lead the conservative to victory. Mark the prediction.—Louisville Journal.

News.

Interesting from Florida.

New York, March 7.—By the steamer Arago, from Hilton Head, we have interesting news from Florida. All was quiet at Jacksonville. Reinforcements were rapidly arriving, and Gen. Seymour's position was sufficiently formidable to repel any attack. Our troops are outside of the town; some of them at a distance of eight miles. The fortifications in front of Jacksonville are of an extensive character. Flags of truce had communicated with the rebels for the purpose of endeavoring to obtain our wounded who had fallen into our hands, but the request was refused. The main body of the enemy is encamped between Ten Mile Run and Baldwin—with a considerable force at the former place. The rebels admit their loss to be enormous, some even put it as high as two thousand. On the 27th a skirmish occurred between our cavalry and the rebels; near camp Finnegan. The rebels had 5 wounded. None of our men were hurt. Gen. Gilmore arrived at Jacksonville on the 25th.

Later from Chattanooga.

CINCINNATI, March 7.—Advices from Chattanooga to the 4th inst., indicate that the rebels are passing our lines, and Gen. Thomas has withdrawn his advance from Summit Hill to Ringgold, although still holding a position in advance of our old lines. We have closed Parker's and Hooker's Gaps, and the army is in splendid condition. Col. Harrison, who, from Baldface Ridge, had a full view of Dalton, states that the rebel force there on Friday was from 20,000 to 30,000 men, nearly all of whom came up from the rear on Thursday afternoon. Lieut. Col. Slocum, of the 82d Indiana, who was wounded in the late reconnaissance, is dead. The rebel furnaces at Atlanta, Georgia, have stopped running for want of coal.

The Rebel Currency and Rebel Prices.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 24th ult. says: "On the publication of the currency bill, passed by Congress, prices immediately leaped up. Everything has an upward tendency. Yesterday, whiskey, which had been selling ten days ago for ninety dollars per gallon, could not be bought at one hundred and twenty dollars. Brown sugar twelve dollars and a half per pound by the hoghead, and none offering. Some of the dealers have absolutely shut up and refused to do business at all, preferring to hold on to the goods rather than receive anything in the shape of money larger than a five dollar note."

The Death of Col. Dahlgren Confirmed.

The statement of the Richmond Sentinel that Col. Dahlgren was killed in a skirmish, at King and Queen Court House, is confirmed by dispatches from Gen. Butler. Gen. Kilpatrick telegraphs that the last positive information he had of Dahlgren's whereabouts was that he was seen on Thursday.—The skirmish took place the day after, in which the Colonel was killed. The sad intelligence was communicated to Admiral Dahlgren to-day, and he has left for Fortress Monroe, to take such steps as may be proper to recover the body of his son.

Gen. Sherman's Movements.

A dispatch from St. Louis of the 6th says:—The steamer Luminary, from the lower river, brings us intelligence that Sherman and his staff had left Vicksburg on the 28th ult., designing to have an interview with Gen. Banks or Admiral Porter in reference to future movements. The Richmond Sentinel of March 8th contains the following dispatches: Meridian, March 6.—Sherman was at Canton last Wednesday.—Our cavalry are fighting him on all sides. There was heavy cannonading at Canton all day on Wednesday.—Thomas had taken a large number of negroes. He leaves the country perfectly impoverished wherever he has been.

Sherman's Expedition.

The Gazette's Cairo dispatch says:—Passengers by the steamer Fulton report that Sherman's expedition concentrated thirty-five miles beyond Meridian, destroyed all railroads in that vicinity, thirty-two locomotives, and a large number of cars. There was no more fighting after leaving Canton, where Wirt Adam's rebel cavalry was encountered. Sherman's loss in killed, wounded and missing, was four hundred. A large number of plantations were destroyed. All quiet at Chattanooga and Knoxville.

Later From East Tennessee.

CINCINNATI, March 7.—Advices from Knoxville, dated the 5th, say that Longstreet is supposed to be at Greenville. His forces hold Bull's Gap, which they are fortifying. It was thought that only a small part of his army had gone away. Our advance is near Morristown. The rebels lately shot seven deserters, and are relentlessly hunting down conscripts. They have sent forty pieces of artillery to the great Virginia Salines, which place they will doubtless stubbornly hold, under Bjerkner and Breckinridge, and from it threaten Kentucky.

Arrival of Prisoners.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore American, of Sunday, from Annapolis, says:—The steamer City of New York arrived here this afternoon with 600 prisoners from Richmond, including 47 officers. Among them were a great many Marylanders. Sergeant Swenson of the 9th Maryland, has the colors of his regiment, which he kept concealed during three months' imprisonment.

The Alabama at Singapore.

The following extract from a letter, dated Singapore, December 25, and referring to the recent visit of the Alabama to that port, will be read with interest: "The Alabama is not large, barely 1,000 tons, but she has the air of a dandy craft that would hesitate but little to test her strength against a much stronger enemy. She is very low in the water, and extremely long, but the most remarkable feature of her build is her extreme narrowness; her beam at amidships we should set down at very little, if anything, over 27 feet. She has tremendous spars, and her greatest spread of canvas is in her fore and aft sails, which are of gigantic proportions. Under canvas alone she has gone as much as 134 knots. Her armament consists of 82 32-pounders, smooth-bore broadside guns, and two large pivot guns, one fore and the other aft, the former being rifled for 100-pound shot, and the latter a smooth bore for 65-pound shot. Everything on deck is in splendid order; and of the very best material. The engine-room is a picture of neatness, and the engines are double cylinders, of 300-horse power, (nominal) though capable of being worked to considerably above that power. Under steam alone she has gone 14 to 15 knots an hour. The impression which a thorough inspection of the vessel left on our minds is that she is essentially a handy craft, capable of the most rapid movements and effective to the extent of her strength. We had been accustomed to think that she was slightly built, but this is a mistake, for, though wooden built, she presents a side equal in strength to that of any modern vessel-of-war of her size. When talked to her about the hard push the Southerners were having for it, Capt. Semmes, pointing to the Confederate flag over his head, said:—'It is no matter, that flag never comes down—a bold and confident boast, which only time can test the truth of.'"

From Charleston.

CHARLESTON, March 6.—Two hundred and five shells have been fired at the city since the last report. There is nothing else new. Recent intelligence from Italy shows the success of Protestant Christianity in various parts of it. In Piedmont there is scarcely a town or village of any size in which there is not a little company of believers. Evangelical worship is held in Florence, Leghorn, Genoa and Milan. In the latter town alone there is already 1000 church members. About 700 belong to the Free Church, and 300 to the Waldensian and Wesleyan Missions. In this part of Italy the utmost liberty of conscience is enjoyed. The priests of Tuscan are doing their utmost to hinder the cause and embarrass the efforts of missionaries to evangelize the people. Professor Rausenbusch of the German department of the Rochester Theological Seminary gives special care to the education of such German Baptist young men as God may call to the ministry of the gospel. Fifteen of these young men have already gone to his moulding care to be the pastors of German Baptist churches, and thirteen others are preparing for the work. But these churches have grown from ten to sixty, with a membership of 3,800, in thirteen years. The Archbishop of Canterbury has invited all the prelates of England and Ireland to meet in Lambeth Place to confer on subjects important to the welfare of the Church, namely, Diocesan Synods, the Burial Service, Subscription to the Articles, and an American proposal to amend the English version of the Bible. Rev. J. D. Herr, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church in Allegheny, writes that the church is enjoying a glorious revival, which has been going on four weeks. Some seventy have united, making over one hundred since conference; and still the work goes on. At the close of a discourse on Sunday before last by Rev. Dr. Howe, Delegate of the Foreign Committee in (of which he is rector) St. Luke's Philadelphia, the sum of $2,150 was contributed for Foreign Missions. It is gratifying to note that the gracious work of revival in progress at the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, has resulted in the conversion of at least forty of the students. Mr. John P. Crozier, of Philadelphia, has donated the sum of $10,000 to the American Baptist Publication Society, to be used for the purpose of supplying the Baptist Sunday Schools with libraries. William Carter, once a master chimney-sweep, was converted in 1859. He now preaches on Sabbath evenings in the large Victoria Theater, London, to an immense congregation.

Mr. Spurgeon Coming.

It is said that notwithstanding the large contributions to the relief of soldiers, high taxes and increased expenses of living, the donations to the leading benevolent and religious organizations which hold their anniversaries every May in New York, have thus far been fully up to and in some cases actually in excess of last year. Mr. Spurgeon has announced his intention of being at the anniversary this year, and will sail from Liverpool about the 10th of April.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

At a meeting held in Philadelphia for the purpose of organizing a Lutheran City Missionary Society, the Rev. E. W. Hutter, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in that city, stated in an address that had the Lutherans increased in the same ratio with the Methodists, instead of 15 houses of worship there ought to be twenty-six; if with the Episcopalians, thirty-nine. He closed his address by saying, "without controversy they convict us Lutherans, resident in this city, of a manifest want of the spirit of progress; and, however uncomplimentary the exhibit, it would be folly not to look it squarely in the face, make confession of our sins, and endeavor, by God's help, to do better hereafter."

Thos. Parrott, Esq., a distinguished layman in the Methodist E. Church, father of Col. Edward A. Parrott, Provost Marshal of Ohio, and Hon. Marcus J. Parrott, of Kansas, died at his residence in Dayton, Ohio, on the 3d, aged 67 years. He bequeathed $20,000 to the Ohio Wesleyan University, $7,000 to the Wesley Chapel for a new church, and other bequests amounting to 4,200. His dying testimony was, "God has been very good to me. If I am to die now, I know I shall be saved; the evidence of my acceptance with God is so clear and strong, that I could not doubt it if I would try." Bishop Morris preached the funeral discourse.

NEWS ITEMS.

Mr. Colfax, speaker of the House, delivered an eloquent speech in the House of Representatives on Tuesday last, in which he stated that in the Peninsular War the annual loss of the British army was 165 in every 1000; in the Crimean War, during July, August and September, it was at the annual rate of 203 to 1,000; but during the following winter months it rose to 511 in 1,000; during the next three years the loss was at the fearful rate of 912 in 1,000. During the last year the loss in the American army was only 55 in every 1,000.

Great blessing, that are won with prayer, are worn with thankfulness; such man will not ask new, but he will withal give thanks for old. Thankfulness proceeds from pure grace. Prayer and thanks are like the double motion of the lungs; the air that is sucked in by prayer is breathed forth again by thanks.—Goodwin.

Dr. Hux, of Coshon, Connecticut, received a telegram recently saying that his son, of the Second Connecticut artillery, was "no more." He immediately left to procure his son's body, but found him alive and recovering, the despatch having been written "no worse." The excitement and reaction had such an effect upon the doctor that he fell sick and died four days thereafter.

There is no longer any doubt that Colonel Dahlgren is dead. He was killed in a skirmish near the Mattapony river on Thursday last. Eighty out of the hundred men he had with him, have been captured. The Confederates claim to have captured two hundred and four of Kilpatrick's men.

The Federal campaign in Texas is again given up. Matagorda bay has been abandoned, and the troops recalled. Brownsville is now the only place in Texas occupied in any force by the Federal troops. Strong reinforcements are being sent to the outposts in the Teche country, Louisiana, as a Confederate raid is feared.

The appeal for the Bishop of London's fund made in June last has produced $100,000, of which £28,900 has been actually paid. The Bishop states that he wants 100 additional clergymen and 100 additional Scripture-readers to work in the most destitute parts of London.

The naval force at Charleston harbor has been so much weakened that blockade running has begun. Two vessels a week run the gauntlet, and a regular line has been established between Charleston and Nassau. None have been captured lately.

The American tract Society have expended since the commencement of the war, nearly $100,000 in furnishing and distributing its publications for the army.

During the late advance of our forces towards Dalton, Georgia, Gen. Palmer, who superintended the movement, had his clothing pierced four times by bullets.

The Confederates recently made a raid from the mouth of the Rappahannock and captured three small steamers on Chesapeake bay.

James Shields, of the 48th Pennsylvania volunteers, and John Stinson, a citizen, were murdered at Silver Creek, Schuykill county, on Saturday night.

The President has signed a bill creating the rank of Lieutenant-General, and conferred it upon Gen. Grant.

The New York World announces, on what is deemed to be the best authority, that our relations with France are in a very critical condition.

Admiral Dahlgren has given up the command at Charleston. The iron-clad fleet has been given to Farragut, and will likely go to Mobile.

Idaho is an Indian word signifying "The Gem of the Mountains."

The picture drawn by Dickens of Mrs. Jollaby, who was so absorbed in cotton culture and negro development in Boario-galagh, that she let her own baby drop into the fire, is so true a likeness of the fanatic of to-day, who subordinates everything to the cause of emancipation, that if it were written now, the writer would at once be denounced as a disloyal caricaturist, and would most likely be consigned to some Federal bastille.
