Between the dark and the daylight, When night is beginning to lower, Comes a pause in the day's occupation, That is known as the Children's Hour.

I hear in the chamber above me The patter of little feet. The found of a door that is opened, And the voices soft and sweet.

From my study I see in the lamp light. Descending the broad hall stair, Grave Alice, and langhing Allegra, And Edith with golden hair.

A whisper, and then a silence; Yet I know by their merry eyes They are plotting and planning together To take me by surprise.

A sudden ush from the stairway, A sudden raid from the hall, By three doors left unguarded They enter my castle wall!

They climb up into my turret, O'er the arms and back of my chair; If I try to retreat, they surround me, They seem to be everywhere.

They almost devour me with kisses, Their arms about me entwine. Till I think of the Bishop of Bingen In the Mouse-Tower on the Rhine.

Do you think, O blue-eyed banditti. Because you have scaled the wall, Such an old mustache as I am langt a match for you all?

I have you fast in my fortress, And will not let you depart, But put you down into the dangeons In the round-tower of my heart.

And there will I keep you forever, Yes, forever and a day, Till the wall shall crumble to rain, And moulder in dust away!

English photograper, Mr. Warner, latelytook a photograph of the eye of an ox, a few hours after death, and on examining the impression through the microscope, distinctly perceived depicted on the retina, the exact delineation of the stones with which the slaughter house was paved, being the last object which affected the vision of the enimal on bending down its head to receive the fatal blow.

is stated that linens of a coarse kind cheer now manufactured in Ireland, that are not only relatively, but absolute-ly cheaper than cotton.

White hair is the chal with which Time keeps his score—two, three or fall and the scare may be on a man's head.

THIS Institution will commerce its next session of five month's duration, the first Wednesday of April, under the charge of A. J. BUFFINGTON, and J. C. GILCHRIST, as Principals, assisted by teachers of experience and skill.

Tuition—payable in advance, per session $10; Three months, $7; Two months, $5; Five weeks or less, $2. Boarding, $2,25 per week. Room rent for self-boarders $1,00 per month.

The School building is a neat and commodious edifice, located in Milisboro, a village pleasantly situated on the Monongahela, ten miles above Brownsville.

Valuable additions will be made to the school apparatus the coming session.

Valuable additions will be made to the school apparatus the coming session.
The school is under the supervision of the County Superintendant's of the Tenth Normal District; and every effort will be made to make it for South Western, what the State Normal School at Millersville is for South Eastern, Psnnsylvania.
School offices, patrons, and pupils demand a higher grade of qualification in teachers; not only in the branches required by law in every district, but in other branches, and in the science of teaching. As the express object of this school is to prepare teachers for all the duties of the school room, they should avail themselves of its advantages.

THALBERG, one of the most eminent planists in the, world, says: "I have great pleasure in certifying that I have tried your Pisnos, and find them equal, M not superior, to any in this country. Among their great qualities, which distinguish them, is the evenness of tone, the agreeable and easy touch, and volume of tone. Wishing you all the success you so highly deserve, I am, sir, yours ruly.

C. GROBE, the well known composer, Wilmington, Delaware, says that "they cannot be surpassed by any in the market." II. VIET XTEMPTS writes :- "I was delighted on hearing the clear and full tene of one of your first clear. Planos."
