An Affray.

We learn that, on Friday, the 12th inst, Samuel McCann, a returned soldier of the 7th Virginia Volunteers, and a citizen of this county, was mortally wounded at Mapletown. while attempting to arrest James Sangston and Otho Harrington, deserters from the same regiment. The aforesaid deserterters States. were residents of Fayette county prior to their enlistmeht.

They deserted about a year ago, and have and received bounties. This report is credited from the fact that they both have exhibited considerable sums of money.

McCann, we understand, is likely to recover from his injuries.

The Publishers or 'The Age' could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commencolumns with the unsought and most liberal commendations throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon the claims to public confidence, well known and established. They believe it has this reputation by the candor, fearlessness and independence with which it has been conducted, through times of extraordinary confusion of ideas on public subjects, and latterly of almost unexampled public trial. It is now, and will be, as heretafore, the supporter of truly national rinciples, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of good government, law and order. er.
