If We Know. If we knew the cares and crosses Crowding around our neighbor s way; If we knew the little losses, Sorely grievous, day by day, Would we then so often chide him For his lack of thrift and gain-Leaving on his heart a shadow, Leaving on his life a stain?

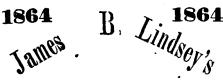

If we knew the clouds above us, Hold but gentle blessings there, Would we turn away all trembling, In our blind and weak despair? Would we shrink from little shadowa, Lying on the dewy grass, While 'tis only birds of Eden, Just in mercy flying past?

If we knew the silent story, Quivering through the heart of pain, Would our manhood dare to doom them, Back to haunts of guilt again? Life hath many a tangled crossing; Joy hath many a break of woe, And the cheeks tear-washed and whitest This the blessed angels know.

Let us reach into our bosoms For the key to other lives, And with love toward erring nature, Cherish good that still survives; So that when our disrobed spirits Soar to realms of light again, We may say, "Dear Father, judge us As we judge our fellow men."
