The Little People.

A dreary place would be this earth Were there no little people in it; The song of life would lose its, mirth, Were there no children to begin it.

No little forms, like buds to grow, And make the admiring heart surrender; No little hands on breast and brow, To keep the thrilling love-cords tender.

No babe within our arms to leap, No little feet towards slumber tending No little knee in prayer to bend, Our lips the sweet world's lending.

What would the mothers do to work, Were there no pants or jackets tearing? No tiny dresses to embroider? No cradle for their watchful caring.

No rosy boys at wintry morn, With satchel to the school house hasting No merry shouts, as home they rush, No precious morsel for their tasting.

Tall, grave, grown people at the door, Tall, grave, grown people at the table : The men on business all intent,

The dames lugubrious as they're able

The sterner souls would get more stern, Unfeeling natures more in human, And man to stoic coldness turn, And woman would be less than woman.

For in that clime toward which we reach, Through Time's mysterious, dim unfolding The little ones with cherub smile, Are still our Father's face beholding.

So said His voice in whom we trust · When in Judea's realm a preacher, He made a child confront the proud, And he in simple guise their preacher.

Life's song, indeed, would lose its charm, Were there no babies to begin it; A doleful place this world would be. Were there no little people in it.

Afflicted Read.---

Hundreds afflicted with Consumption, Epilepsy, Pathitation of the Higart, Torpid Liver, Palsy, Irritability-of the Fystem General or Local Pains or Weakness, Night Sweats, Dinness of Sight, Fits of Despondency, Muscular Prostration, and all diseases of the prostration and the prostration are prostration and the prostration and the prostration are prostration are prostration and the prostration are prostration are prostration and the prostration are prostrati bility-of the Fystem General or Local Pains or Weakness, Night Sweats, Dimness of Sight, Fits of Despondency, Muscular Prostration and all dis-asses of the Nervous Centres, never dream of the CAUSE of their several afflictions. They treat results as it they were causes; and so no relief is found.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF THESE DISEASES very frequently? There is the secret—solitary self-abuse, practiced by thousands. Commenced when boys, at school or clsewhere, it is kept up even during young manhood, producing mental and physical prostration. If continued, these diseases, and even madness are the result. If the victim be conscious of the cause of his decay, and quit it, he suffers under those terrible nocturnal and involuntary emissions which weaken and shame him, till life becomes grievous.—Thus place: between certain docay and premature death and horrible suffering, the wretched victim rushes to SELF-DESTRUCTION, or sinks to an untimely grave. If he emancipates himself before the practice has done its worst and enters matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies.

SUFFERING YOUNG MEN,
Let no false modesty prevent you from explaining yeur case to one whose acknowledged position in the medical profession, and respectability in private life, point him as a private counsellor. Think not to cure yourself, and so tamper with a faculty, the destruction of which renders a mantruly miserable. Come to Dr. KINK ELIN, confide in him as thousands have done before you.
