Journeyman Wanted.

We want a good, sober, and careful Journeyman, to whom a permanent situation and fair wages will be given.

Boy Wanted.

We want a large, stout boy, from 14 to 19 years of age, to learn the printing business.

We are pleased to announce the death of Captain John McCullough of the 140th Regiment of Pennsylvania Infantry, which took place on the 81st ult.

Capt. McCullough was the only son of E. McCullough, formerly of Morgan township, in this county.

June 4th, (Saturday) 6 a. m.—The enemy made a night attack on the Second Corps last night, which was repulsed with great loss.

Another Tribune correspondent says of Friday's fight: From the formidable character of the enemy's works, it was deemed imprudent to continue the assault, and at noon our men rested in their own positions.

We regret to announce the death of another one of our most promising young men—Lieut. SAMUEL GREENLEE of the 1st Pennsylvania Cavalry.

Lieut. Greenlee was also a graduate of Waynesburg College. After his graduation he studied law in the office of A. A. Purman Esq.

Young Greenlee had those fine qualities of head and heart which made him many warm friends among our citizens.

This is the second son our fellow citizen Jacob Greenlee, has lost, in the fierce struggle now going on.

Capt. Kingland of the 18th Cavalry, arrived at home a few days ago, having been wounded in one of the late battles in front of Richmond.

Valentine House.

Our friend Andrew Bruce, Esq., of Washington Pa., has taken charge of the "Valentine House" of that place.

MARRIED.

On the 4th of June, 1864, by the Rev. L. Hewitt, Mr. JOHN W. HAYS, of Co. L 8th Reg. Penna. Reserves, to Miss SARAH L. PHILLIPS, both of Waynesburg, Greene county, Pa.

Operations at the front says the Richmond Sentinel, of May 31st, have frequently confounded calculations, and turned speculation hither and thither with short turns and little ceremony.

Now Grant has been retreating on Fredericksburg, and anon he is at Spotylvania Court House. Now again he meets with a disaster that would have sent a reasonable man back to Lincoln, but quickly he is flank-marching for Richmond.

Now he crosses the North Anna and onrives Lee, apparently for battle; but night comes and he steals away, and starts for the Peninsula.

Now he crosses at Hanoverturn in his supposed flight to his new base; but last and latest we learn that his face is again turned toward Richmond, and that he confronts Lee on the Topopotomoc Creek, with prospect of immediate fight.

It is time for us all to cease speculation as to Grant's movements and attend to the facts. He has been offering fight when we thought he was retreating when we thought he was offering fight; he has been advancing when he was whipped, and heading up stream when he had every reason to hurry down.

He has gone by the way of military contrivances, and has always disappointed us whenever we supposed that he was acting sensibly or consistently with himself.

We suppose that he came to the final fight at last; though warned by experience, we express the opinion with becoming doubt.

Maj. Gen. Don Carlos Buell has received his commission in the volunteer army, and it has been accepted.

Friday's Battle—Our Lines Cannot be Broken.

New York, June 7.—A Times special dated Cold Harbor, June 3d, says of Friday's fighting: The general assault was made promptly at the hour ordered—4:30 A. M.—and was made by Hancock, Wright, and Smith.

The attack was brave and our loss severe, but the result was indecisive. Generally, the line was advanced materially. Gen. Smith carried and retains his distinct and well-entrenched position, and the other corps are in possession of detached works and various positions.

June 4th, (Saturday) 6 a. m.—The enemy made a night attack on the Second Corps last night, which was repulsed with great loss.

Another Tribune correspondent says of Friday's fight: From the formidable character of the enemy's works, it was deemed imprudent to continue the assault, and at noon our men rested in their own positions.

General Brooks and Minnie's brigade formed two lines, preceded by the 148th Pennsylvania. The skirmishers led a charge, charging the works at the point of bayonet, and driving the enemy from them in confusion.

In Barlow's charge 217 prisoners, one color and six pieces were taken, and Colonel Morris, of the Seventh New York heavy artillery, was about to turn them on the enemy, when he was charged upon by overpowering masses and compelled to retire.

Another correspondent says: Of one thing the enemy must now be thoroughly satisfied. He cannot break our lines through, nor drive our men from their established positions, though he pile every man of all his corps upon any point of our line.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The most remarkable case of gunshot wound we ever heard of, says the Marietta Rebel, is that of a soldier wounded at Resaca, brought to Marietta on Wednesday, and now in the hospital at that place.

Two bullets passed through his head, making four holes, at which the brains were oozing out, and, astonishing to tell, he was perfectly conscious, and conversed intelligently concerning his situation, and was anxious to know the doctor's opinion of his case.

Every effort is to be made to repeat the three hundred dollar clause of the conscription act, and pass a national bankruptcy law, and the adjournment of Congress.

I would respectfully inform my friends throughout the county, that I am at home in Waynesburg, and have arranged my views so as to spend from the first to the twentieth of every month at Waynesburg; this my customers may depend upon.

Very respectfully, S. S. PATTON, March 2, '64.
