The Ten Friends.

"I wish I had good friends to help me on in life," cried lazy Dennis with a yawn. "Good friends! why, you've ten," replied FIRST IN THE MARKET!

"I'm sure I've not half so many, and those that I have are too poor to help me." "Count your fingers, my boy," said the neighbor.

Dennis looked down on his big, strong hands.

"Count thumbs and all," added the neighbor.

"I have,—there are ten," said the lad. "Then never say you have not ten good friends, able to help you on in life. Try what those true triends can do, before you go grumbling and fretting because you do not get help from others."

The last exposed case of bounty jumping is that of a soldier who had tost one of his eyes in battle, and was discharged from the service. Shortly after he entered into partnership with a substitute broker in Boston, who furmished him with a very neat glass eye and enlisted him, and he was sent to the army. There he soon lost his eye again, or rather removed it and put it into his pocket and obtained his discharge. This process he several times repeated, and when unable to get his discharge, deserted. Unfortunately thirteen proved an unlucky number for him, and the trick being discovered, he was tried and sentenced to be shot

Afflicted Read.---

Afflicted Read.——
Hundreds afflicted with Consumption, Epilepsy, Patphiation of the Heart, Torpid Liver, Patsy, Irritations, Night Sweats, Dimness of Sight, Fits of Despondency, Muscular Prostration and all Jisoases of the Nervous Centres, never dream of the CAUSE of their several afflictions. They treat results as if they were cluses; and so no relief is found.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF THESE DISEASES very frequently? There is the secret—solitary selfabuse, practiced by thousands. Commenced when boys, at school or elsewhere, it is kept up even during young manhood, producing mental and physical prostration. If continued, these diseases, and even madness are the result. If the victim be conscious of the cause of his decay, and quit it, he suffers under those terrible nocturnal and involuntary emissions which weaken and shame him, till life becomes grievous.—Thus place? between certain decay and premature death and horrible suffering, the wretched victim rushes to SELF. DESTRUCTION, or sinks to an untimely grave. If he emancipates himself before the practice has done its worst and enters matrimony, his matriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies.

SUFFERING YOUNG MEN,
Let no false modesty prevent you from explaining your case to one whose acknowledged position in the medical profession, and respectability in private life, point him as a private counsellor. Think not to cure yourself, and so tamper with a faculty, the destruction of which renders a mantriby miserable. Come to Dr. KINKELIN, confide in him as thousands have done before you.

before you.

In short, to be cured radically of all forms of secret diseases, and ruthous effects of self-indulgence apply to the most successful and experienced Dr. KINKE LIN, German Physician, Northwest corner of Third and Union Streets, between Spruce and Pine, a square and a half from the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia

MARRIAGE!—Its loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys: MAN-HOOD, how lost, how RESTORED; the nature, reatment, and radical cure of spermatorrhoza or seminal weakness, involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D.—This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desire to limit the mumber of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease, and ache incidental to youth, maturity, and old age, is fully explained; overy particle of knowledge that should he known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents, in specie or postage stamps. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416, Spruce St., above Fourth Philadelphia.

IFFAFFILITED and UNFORTUNATE, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious Quacks—native or fored, who advertise in this or any otherpaper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book, and read itcare fully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr YOUNG can be consulted on any of the disease sedescribed in his publication, at his Office. Nog 416, Spruce St., above Fourth Philadelphia.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culver-J well's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorihoa, or seminal Weakness Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepey, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practic, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the Enife-pointing out a mode of a cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
