One Country, One Constitution, One Destiny.

WYOMING, Pa.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 19, 1864.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

- ROBERT L. JOHNSTON, RICHARD VAUX, WILLIAM LOUGHLIN, EDWARD R. HELMBOLD, EDWARD P. DUNN, THOMAS MCCULLOUGH, EDWARD T. HESS, PHILIP S. GERHARD, GEORGE G. LEIPER, MICHAEL SELTZER, PATRICK McEVROY, THOMAS H. WALKER, OLIVER S. DIMMICK, ABRAM B. DUNNING, PAUL LEIDY, ROBERT SWINEFORD, JOHN AHL, GEORGE A. SMITH, THADDEUS BANKS, HUGH MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. IRVINE, JOSEPH L. THOMPSON, RASSELLS BROWN, JAMES P. BARR, WILLIAM J. KOUNTZ, WILLIAM MONTGOMERY.

While the army is fighting, you as citizens see that the war is prosecuted for the preservation of the Union and the Constitution, and of your nationality and your rights as citizens.

Democrats Organize!! Again to Your Duty!!

Democrats of Greene county, on Tuesday, the 8th of November, you will be called upon to exercise the most important and responsible privilege ever conferred upon freemen—the selection of your own Chief Magistrate of your Nation. The vote cast in our county at the late election was not a true vote of the strength of the party.

Under the circumstances the result attained is indeed flattering. But as we said before a higher and still more solemn and important duty awaits you. You owe another day to your country and your party. Let every Democrat and conservative man therefore at once be up and doing.

You are battling for the preservation of our Republican form of Government, and the restoration of the Union as it was, and the preservation of the Constitution—the Abolition party for the destruction of both. It is for you to choose which you will sustain.

Freedom of the Press.

We ask the attention of our readers to the following correspondence relating to the suppression of the publication of the Baltimore Evening Post, the only Democratic paper published in that city.

We can scarcely realize that it relates to a transaction in an American city, and not in the dominions of despotic Austria, which never heard of a Free Press! We are persuaded that no comments of ours can intensify the detestation with which every American citizen, whatever may be his politics, will in his heart, view such acts.

The undersigned herewith encloses a copy of the Evening Post of the 30th of September, 1864, the day on which said order was issued, and the contents of which they understood from General Wallace caused the issuance of said order.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10th.

To the Editors of the National Intelligencer: GENTLEMEN: The papers you receive with this (and which you will do me the favor to publish) speak for themselves, telling a story that no American citizen worthy of the name will read but with deep regret.

Yours, with regard, REVEREND JOHNSON.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6th.

To the President of the United States: Sir: The accompanying communication from the editor and proprietors of the Evening Post, of this city, has been placed in my hands with a request to forward it to you.

An early reply to the request of the editor sent through me is respectfully solicited, and, not doubting that it will be a favorable one. I have the honor to remain your obedient servant.

REVEREND JOHNSON.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5th.

To his Excellency, Abraham Lincoln: The undersigned, citizens of the State of Maryland, respectfully represent:

That the publication of said newspaper was continued by them daily up to the 30th of September, 1864, on which day the undersigned prepared to issue their paper as usual, and had issued a number of copies, when they received from the military commandant of this department an order, of which the following is a copy:

"HEADQUARTERS MIDDLE DEPARTMENT, EIGHTH ARMY CORPS, BALTIMORE, Sept. 29th, '64.

"Editor of the Evening Post: As the surest means of preventing your office being made the subject of violence, you will discontinue the publication of your paper, the Evening Post. By order of Major General Wallace.

That thereupon, in obedience thereto, the publication of said paper was suspended, and has not since been resumed, Gen. Wallace having declared to the editor that said order would not be revoked by him.

The undersigned respectfully ask of the President of the United States whether the suppression of their newspaper and the prohibition of its further publication meets with his approval; and if not, he will cause the above mentioned order to be revoked.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10th.

To Hon. Reverend Johnson: My DEAR SIR: Having been the bearer of a letter from you to Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, relating to the suppression of the Baltimore Evening Post, of which I am one of the proprietors, it seems to be courteous that I should detail to you the circumstances attending my failure to obtain an audience which I was at so much pains to attempt to procure.

Very respectfully, JOSUAH M. BOSLEY.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10th.

The political tricksters who predicted that the presence of the military in this county would reduce Gen. Lee's majority to 1200, only overestimated the effect of that presence, but still we doubt not his vote was reduced 100 by the fact.

By order of the committee: C. L. WARR, Chairman.

Robert J. Hemphill, Secretary. A telegram to the Associated Press from Philadelphia yesterday announced that "though but 5,323 votes from the army had been received, the Republican majority was 4,667."

It would be interesting to know the name of the Republican clairvoyant who counts at Philadelphia, and reports to New-York, votes not yet received and opened at the State Department of Pennsylvania.

How brightly Breaks the Morning! --The People Speak for McClellan, Pendleton and the Union.

In our issue yesterday, we published an account of the recent local elections in Connecticut, which showed large gains for the Democratic party since last spring.

The Soldiers Vote at the Presidential Election.

It is very important that provision should be made to secure the vote of Democratic Soldiers at the Presidential election. This can be done by their friends at home having them assessed and their taxes paid in time, and the evidence of these facts furnished the Soldier by the day of the election.

Let it be remembered by the people that all of their money is not squandered by the Shoddy Administration in buying votes. Twelve million dollars of the public fund only have been sunk in the newly-built monitors which won't float!

Pennsylvania Redeemed.

THE STATE DEMOCRATIC. THE "KEYSTONE" FOR McCLELLAN!!

The Result of the Election in Pennsylvania.

We publish below the report of the chairman of both the State and National Democratic Committees, claiming a victory, of which we have no doubt, the assertions of Republicans to the contrary notwithstanding.

VICTORY.

New York, October 15.—A glorious victory has been achieved in the gallant State of Pennsylvania, over combinations of fraud, government patronage, and the most lavish expenditure of money.

The result assures the State for McClellan and Pendleton, and justifies our expectation of triumphant success in the national election in November.

It is recommended to the various Democratic and Union organizations in the city of New York to illuminate their respective headquarters, and to assemble thereat on Monday evening, the 17th instant, in honor of the auspicious result in the Keystone State; that national salutes be fired in the public squares; and that the city of New-York, true to the cause of the Union and the Constitution, under their chosen leader McClellan, send congratulations to our brothers in Pennsylvania on their hard-earned and triumphant success.

Ch'n of Democratic National Com.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania. ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, No. 612 CHESTNUT ST. PHILA., Oct. 14.

Returns from the elections held on Tuesday last have come to hand, sufficient to prove beyond question that we have triumphed in the State by a majority of seven to ten thousand of the home votes.

We congratulate you on this glorious result! All honor to the noble and faithful men who have achieved such a victory, in spite of the frowns of power, the corruption of money, and the influence of a blind and remorseless fanaticism!

Our victory, however, is but half completed. We hold the vantage ground so gloriously obtained only for one grand movement more—to reclaim, in November, the threatened liberties of our country, and restore to it the peace and prosperity of former times.

Ohio and Indiana.

In Ohio the Abolition majority of last year has been reduced. The Democracy have gained 60,000. This magnificent result will fill the hearts of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution with joy.

The Democracy of Indiana have fought a good fight. The Abolitionists, with that peculiar skill which characterizes them in manufacturing figures and returns, announce that they have swept the State, and claim a fabulous majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13, 1864.—We have elected Voorhees and Hibbard to Congress. There is a Democratic majority of four in the State Senate; and probably a majority in the House.

Last year the Abolitionists carried the State by 12,000 majority. The result this year, even taking the Abolition figures, shows a Democratic gain of 7,000 votes. Indiana has done nobly!

INDIANA.—A perfect reign of terror was instituted in Indiana by the Governor—Morton—and the military authorities of Old Abe. Democrats arrested, Democratic meetings were broken up, prominent Democrats arrested, Democratic flag-poles and banners torn down, and every effort made to intimidate and keep down the rising spirit of Democracy among the people.

Mr. Pendleton's Record.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—A letter from an intimate friend of Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, was received here to-day, in which allusion is made to the Republican document issued, giving Pendleton's record while in Congress.

Organize.

We once more urge our friends to be active in organizing the several townships throughout the county. Ask your neighbor, (if he is not an office-holder, a contractor or any one who is making money out of the war), whether he is not willing to restore the Democratic party to power, and thereby have a restoration of peace and happiness, such as always existed before the abolition party came into power.

How the Soldiers will Vote. All accounts from the army agree in predicting a heavy majority for Gen. McClellan in the soldiers' vote, especially that cast in the Army of the Potomac.

We have gratifying intelligence from the Army of the Potomac, indicating that Gen. McClellan still possesses the confidence, love and respect of the veterans of that gallant army.

At Camp Distribution, where there are several thousand soldiers, a vote was also had a few days since. It resulted as follows:

For McClellan 10,556 For Lincoln 3,555 McClellan's majority 7,001

At Camp Distribution, where there are several thousand soldiers, a vote was also had a few days since. It resulted as follows:

McClellan 4,007 Lincoln 1,393 Mac's majority 2,617

Here is a total army vote of 19,468, of which General McClellan has 14,111, or a majority of 9,658—nearly double the total vote that Lincoln received!

This information is reliable. We have it from a soldier who belonged to Hancock's corps, and who is a Republican. It proves what has all along been said, that the soldiers are almost to a man for McClellan and the Union, and will so vote in November.

The Constitution and the Union! I place them together. If they stand, they must stand together; if they fall, they must fall together.—Daniel Webster.

News.

Raid on the Kentucky Central Railroad—Track Destroyed near Paris Train Captured and Burned—The Passengers Robbed.

Tuesday morning, about 6 o'clock, a gang of twenty-five rebels, under the command of Pete Everett, tore up the track of the Kentucky Central Railroad one mile south of Lowe's Station, which is about midway between Paris and Lexington.

The morning passenger train from Lexington came along in a few minutes afterwards, and was immediately attacked by the rebels, who fired into the cars, killing a negro, and wounding three white men and one negro.

Mr. Pendleton alluded to the president and malignant misrepresentations of his opinions in the Cincinnati papers. He called attention to the fact that they pointed out in speech, no vote, no act which was prompted by a desire to harass and embarrass the government.

MR. PENDLETON'S RECORD. In the same issue, October 11, 1862, we find the following:

The Gazette and Commercial have so persistently misrepresented Mr. Pendleton—so constantly affirmed that he has refused to vote supplies to the administration—that to believe their statements are true. During the session of 1861-2 there were nineteen appropriation bills passed by the House of Representatives. Mr. Pendleton voted against only one of them, and that was for certain civil expenses of the government, and in no wise connected with his military operations.
