The Administration giving Evidence in Favor of Gen. McClellan.

In view of the attempts of the Republican papers to circulate slanders der against Gen. McClellan, we give the following testimony respecting his abilities and services from various members of the Administration:

Washington, July 2, 1862. Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan : I am satisfied that yourself, officers and men have done the best you could. All accounts say better fighting was never done. Ten thousand thanks for A. LINCOLN.

Two days afterward, when Mr. Lincoln had fuller information, Gen. Mc-Clellan received the following:

Washington, July 5, 1862.

Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, commanding Army of the Potomac: A thousand thanks for the relief your two dispatches of 12 and 1 p. m. yesterday gave me. Be assured the heroism of yourself, officers and men is, and forever will be, appreciated. -A. Lincoln. In August, 1862, Mr. Lincoln made speech at the White House, in which he said:

There has been a very wide-spread McClellan and the Secretary of Warr Gen. McClellan's attitude is such that in the very selfishness of his nature he cannot but wish to be successful, and I hope he will.

* * I know Gen. McClellan wishes to be successful. * * Gen. McClellan is not to blame for asking for what ducted." he wanted and needed.

* I believe he is a brave and able man, and I stand up here, as justice requires me to do, to take upon myself what has been charged upon the Secretary of War as with holding from him Here is Gen. Halleck's testimony:

Washington, Aug. 31, 1862, Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McCtellan : I beg of you to assist me in this crisis with your ability and experience. I am entirely tired out.

H. W. Halleck, Gen.-in-Chief.

Washington, Sept. 30, 1862. Maj. Gen. McClellan, Commander, etc .: -GENERAL: Your report of yesterday, giving the result of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam, has been received and submitted to the President. They were not only hard-fought battles, but well earned and decided victories. The valor and endurance of your army in the several conflicts which terminated in the expulsion of the enemy from the loyal State of Maryland, are creditable alike to the troops and the officers who commanded them. A grateful country, while mouning the lamented dead; will not be unmindful of the honors due to the living. H. W. HALLECK, Gen.-in-Chief. Says Mr. Lincoln, referring to Antietam :---

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Sept. 15, 1862. Your dispatch of to-day is received. God bless you and all with you. Destroy the rebel army if possible.

A. Lincoln. To Maj.-Gen. Geo. B. McCiellan. But the Republican Congress also of July, Mr. Edwards (Rep.) of New Hampshire, offered the following resolution in the House of Representatives, and it was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan and the officers and soldiers of his command, for the series of brilliant and decisive victories which, by their skill and bravery, they have achieved over rebels and traitors in arms on the battle-fields of Western Vir-

Resolved, That it is with feelings of devout gratitude to Almighty God that the House of Representatives, from time to time, hears of the triumphs of the Union army in the great struggle for the supremacy of the Constitution and the integrity of the Union.

Resolved, That we receive with profound satisfaction intelligence of the recent victories achieved by the Army of the Potomac, associated from their localities with those of the Revolution, | coln! and that the sincere thanks of this House are hereby tendered to Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan for the display of those high military qualities which secure important results with but little sacrifice of Let Democrats bear this testimony in mind, and when efforts are made to belittle Gen. McClellan's great services to the country, let this significant testimeny of Mr. Lincoln, Gen. Halleck and the Republican Congress be produced.

We copy the following opinions of Gen. McClellan, by two men lately eccupying much of the public attention-Vallandigham and Burnside. There is a remarkable concurrence in the opinions of these men, widediffering in almost all other respects. Burnside was the instrument of the Administration in inflicting the cruel and unconstitutional punishment upon Vallandigham, but yet they cordially unite in bestowing the highest eulogy upon our candidate for the Presidency! This speaks well for General McClellan's virtues and worth. By the way, it has only been a tew weeks since the Abolition telegrams represented Vallandigham as hostile to McClellan, and intending to take the field against him; this s but another evidence of the utter unreliability of the Abolition press.

[Extract of a speech delivered at Sydney, Ohio, on the 27th of Sept. last, by Mr. Vallandigham.]

"I have told you that if this country is to be saved, it is through the party that has made Gen. McClellan its candidate. I have the most abiding and utmost confidence in try in every fibre of his body. I know he has courage and capacity as a military man. I believe that that capacity can be and will be rightly directed in the civil service of his country. I know that he has the power of endurance, and the earnestness of purpose, and the fortitude and persistency which go stempt to have a quarrel between Gen. to make up a man for the times. He has borne patiently and uncomplainingly, the persecution and obloquy of his foes. He sacrificed his position at the head of the army of the United States, rather than yield Ladies Dress Goods ! up the convictions of his judgment as to the manner in which this war ought to be con-

[Extract from a speech delivered by Gen. Burnside, at a meeting in New York, after the battles of the Peninsula 1

"I have known Gen. McClellan most intimately, as students together, as soldiers in the field, and as private citizens. For years we have lived in the same family, and I know him as well as I know any human being on the face of the earth, and I know that no more honest, conscientions man exists than Gen. McClellan. I know that no feeling of ambition, beyond that of the good and the success of our cause, ever enters his breast. All that he does is with a single eye, a single view to the success of the Government, and the breaking down of this rebellion. I know that nothing under the sun will ever induce that man to swerve from what he knows to be his duty. He is an honest, Christian-like and conscientions man; and let me add one thing, that he has the soundest head, and the clearest military perception of any man in the United States." ----

Mr. Lincoln says, "If slavery is not wrong then nothing is wrong." Suppose it is? The whole Protestant clergy of the country will say, with unction and sincerity, that if the Romish church is not wrong, then nothing is wrong. What then? Are shot and shell the remedy?—Hartford Times.

Josiah B. Grinnell, member of Congress from Iowa, said in his place in the House of Representatives, "I would rather a thousand times let the country be divided—the South go their way all slave, and the North all free-rather than sec this country once more under Democratic rule." This earnest advocate of disunion is ardently supporting Mr. Lingives its testimony. On the 16th day coln, because they agree exactly in sen-

A soldier of the 85th P. V., writes to a friend of the Genius of Liberty from camp near Petersburg, Sept. 1st:

"I got the Genius C. sent me; feel very thankful for it, and would like to see the next one. I read Cowan's speech, and was much pleased with it. I never saw such a change in political matters as has taken place in our regiment. Uncle Abe will get but a few votes in our squad"

Peace!—If the people want peace they must vote for McClellan, who will make an honest, earnest endeavor to secure it, without regard to the negro question. Lincoln will have nothing to do with peace negrotiations until he has freed the negro.
