

Local Department.

Sad Casualty.

On the evening of Saturday, 18th inst., R. Carson, infant son of Ambrose H., and Charlotte Stout, of Jackson township, Greene county, aged four years past, was playing with his father while making on a fire, when, by accident, it fell backwards into a kettle containing about three gallons of apple molasses which had just been lifted from the fire and was setting close by. The boiling liquid splashing upon the body of the child in the neighborhood of the heart, caused its death on the following morning. The little fellow remained sensible to the last, being turned until the flesh peeled off of some portions of his body, until death seized hold of his spirit and passed it from this cold and dreadful world to that from which there is no return, and all is well although it is said to give up one who was promising, and the joy of its parents, and the admiring of all who knew it, yet it is a consolation for all worldly grief, to know that its resting place is the abode of angels and its gift that of the Creator who gave it.

The "Hamilton House."

JACOB LEMLEY, Esq., is now the proprietor of the "Hamilton House" of this place. He is refurnishing it and intending to make it one of the best hotels in the country. Mr. Lemley is a clever and courteous landlord and together with his excellent lady will spare no pains in making their guests comfortable. Give them a call.

New Tavern at Jacktown.

Mrs. M. BRYAN has purchased the Walton property, at Jacksonville, where she will be better prepared than ever to accommodate the travelling community. Give her a call. See card.

Chief Justice Taney Dead.

Chief Justice Taney, whose death we should have announced last week, had been in ill health for several years, but the immediate cause of his decease was chronic disease of the bowels. He did not, however, take to his bed until Monday week, and it was soon apparent that it was his last sickness. His family physician, Dr. Tyler, of Georgetown, with Dr. Hall, of Washington, had been in constant attendance on the deceased, and on Wednesday he was visited by Mr. Buckley, of Baltimore. He commenced to sink rapidly on Wednesday evening, and the members of the family, who had been previously summoned to Washington, were called to his bedside and took leave of him, and soon after he became insensible and died without a struggle. Judge Taney leaves five daughters, four of whom—Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Campbell and Miss Taney—were present at the time of his death, together with his son-in-law, J. Mason Campbell. It is his wish that, after the funeral solemnities at Washington, the remains will be taken to Frederick, Md., for interment. Among the prominently named for succession to the Chief Justiceship, are Ex-Secretary Chase, Secretary Stanton, Judge Advocate Gen. Holt and Solicitor Whitting. It is hardly probable however, that any selection has yet been made.

For the Messenger.

In order to form any idea of the inextinguishable peace, we must enter the field of battle, and mark the awful desolation of war. When we witness the number of dead lying on the ground, and ourselves as it were wading in their blood,—when we hear the shrieks and dying groans of the wounded,—we cannot forbear exclaiming, "O! what a blessing is peace? War is the mother of poverty; peace is the mother of plenty. War engenders the worst of feelings that can be engrained in human nature,—peace creates the best sensations in the minds of men. War produces every sort of deception and vice,—peace is attended with sincerity truth and virtue. Anger and wrath are the children of war,—compassion and kindness are the offspring of peace. The peace maker is engaged in a good cause. It is the cause of God and of the rights of man. To be its cordial friends is our most important duty, our most unparalleled honor, and our most invaluable privilege. It is this our employment and our delight, we need not envy the praises of heroes; and we need not wish to wear the crowns of kings. Let them glory in their names and be ashamed of their glory. The name of peace must prosper, and will ultimately triumph. God has declared that "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more; for the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our God and of his Christ."

War produces every sort of deception and vice,—peace is attended with sincerity truth and virtue. Anger and wrath are the children of war,—compassion and kindness are the offspring of peace.

The peace maker is engaged in a good cause. It is the cause of God and of the rights of man. To be its cordial friends is our most important duty, our most unparalleled honor, and our most invaluable privilege. It is this our employment and our delight, we need not envy the praises of heroes; and we need not wish to wear the crowns of kings. Let them glory in their names and be ashamed of their glory. The name of peace must prosper, and will ultimately triumph. God has declared that "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more; for the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our God and of his Christ."

War produces every sort of deception and vice,—peace is attended with sincerity truth and virtue. Anger and wrath are the children of war,—compassion and kindness are the offspring of peace.

The peace maker is engaged in a good cause. It is the cause of God and of the rights of man. To be its cordial friends is our most important duty, our most unparalleled honor, and our most invaluable privilege. It is this our employment and our delight, we need not envy the praises of heroes; and we need not wish to wear the crowns of kings. Let them glory in their names and be ashamed of their glory. The name of peace must prosper, and will ultimately triumph. God has declared that "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more; for the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our God and of his Christ."

War produces every sort of deception and vice,—peace is attended with sincerity truth and virtue. Anger and wrath are the children of war,—compassion and kindness are the offspring of peace.

The peace maker is engaged in a good cause. It is the cause of God and of the rights of man. To be its cordial friends is our most important duty, our most unparalleled honor, and our most invaluable privilege. It is this our employment and our delight, we need not envy the praises of heroes; and we need not wish to wear the crowns of kings. Let them glory in their names and be ashamed of their glory. The name of peace must prosper, and will ultimately triumph. God has declared that "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more; for the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our God and of his Christ."

WHITE MEN READ!

NEGROES TO WORK THE FORGE, THE WORKSHOP AND THE SOCIAL CIRCLE!

Here is the destiny of Northern labor fore-shadowed! NEGROES TO WORK THE FORGES! NEGROES TO TAKE THE PLACE OF WHITE MEN WHO ARE KILLED IN THIS "WAR FOR THE AFRICAN AND HIS RACE," AND TO FILL THE WORKSHOPS OF THE NORTH!—WHITE MEN, DO YOU UNDERSTAND THE SYMBOL! NEGROES WORKING A FORGE UPON A WAGON IN A REPUBLICAN PROCESSION, AT PITTSBURGH, MEANS THAT NEGROES SHALL TAKE YOUR PLACE IN THE FIELD OF LABOR—REDUCE THE WAGES OF LABOR, AND TAKE THE BREAD FROM YOUR CHILDREN'S MOUTHS!

The National Debt of the United States is about 4,000,000,000 of dollars.—This enormous debt was accumulated in carrying out Mr. Lincoln's negro policy. It is increasing at the rate of three millions of dollars per day in advancing the same cause.—Mr. Lincoln says he will not stop the war until all the slaves are emancipated, and if he is re-elected, the present immense daily expenditure will go on until his wicked purpose is accomplished, or "the last man and the last dollar" are wasted. Should he be re-elected, what will the National Debt be at the end of the next four years? Let the tax-payers, who must pay the interest on this frightful debt, make the calculation for themselves, and see how much heavier will be the burthen upon them then, than it is now!

More Straws.

A vote was taken in the 1st Va., Veteran Cavalry which resulted as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. McClellan, 210; Lincoln, 58; Total, 268.

Mae's majority.

In the 5th New Jersey Cavalry, a vote was taken as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. McClellan, 275; Lincoln, 50; Total, 325.

McClellan's majority.

The official returns from several counties have not yet been received, so that it is impossible to furnish the exact result of the late election. The Democratic majority will not be less probably than stated yesterday on the Congressional vote, and may be even larger. So soon as the full figures are obtained we shall furnish an official table.—Har. Patriot.

Draining Lengthens the Season.

Farmers at the North often complain seriously that the seasons are too short for the execution of all their work and the ripening of their crops. A cure for this evil has been found in under-draining. Instead of waiting several weeks for the soil to become dry they are enabled to plough well-drained land at once, to take time by the forelock, and to get through the work without hurrying before others have begun. It also enables them to work more economically by not being compelled to hire extra labor in a hurried season. Dry lands being less liable to frosts in autumn, the crops may continue to grow later.—The editor of the New England Farmer estimates, from his own experiments, that he had thus lengthened the season five weeks.—Rural Annual.

Between twelve and one o'clock.

Monday morning, September 26th, there was a shock of earthquake in the north of England. At Leeds, Skipton, Silsden, Kocdale, Hebden, Bridge, Manchester, and other places, the peculiar sensation resulting from the shock was felt. In some places persons were awake by the general tremor, and various descriptions of the phenomenon are given, some comparing it to thunder felt, not heard—others to shaking and rocking.

Rev. Daniel Waldo died at Syracuse.

Rev. Daniel Waldo died at Syracuse, New York, on the 2nd inst., nearly 102 years old. He served in the Revolutionary war, and was one of the pensioners. In 1791 he graduated at Yale College, after which he entered the ministry of the Congregational Church. He preached frequently during the past year—often twice on a Sunday.

The entire vote of the State will be about 490,000 at the October election.

The entire vote of the State will be about 490,000 at the October election, or thirty-three thousand less than last year.

The refugees and freedmen in Missouri will need government aid this winter.

The refugees and freedmen in Missouri will need government aid this winter number five thousand.

Democrats turn out to the election on Tuesday, the 8th day of November.

Democrats turn out to the election on Tuesday, the 8th day of November.

Another Victory by Sheridan—Official War Bulletin.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, October 21, 11 a. m.—The following telegram received this morning, contains further particulars of the battle of Cedar Creek:

Cedar Creek, Va., Oct. 20.—We again have been favored by a great victory, won from disaster, by the gallantry of our officers and men. The attack on the enemy was made about 3 p. m., by a left hand wheel of the whole line, and with a division of cavalry turning each flank of the enemy, the line advanced. The enemy after a stubborn resistance, broke and fled, and were pushed with vigor. The artillery captured will probably be over fifty pieces. This of course includes what were captured from our troops early in the morning. At least 1,800 prisoners have been brought in, also wagons and ambulances in large numbers.

The Missing Steamer Roanoke.

The Missing Steamer Roanoke.—Further Reports of Her Capture by Rebels.

It was very current in Havana, that the steamer Roanoke had been captured by a party of twenty-five confederates, as that number were known to have gone on board; among whom were Lieutenant Brain alias Johnson, who captured the Chesapeake and the engineer of the Harriet Lane, who it was said would take charge of the Roanoke's engines.

Rebel Reports from Georgia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The Charleston Courier, of Oct. 11, has a dispatch from Atlanta, dated October 10, which says: The correspondent of the Montgomery Mail with Hood's army, says the occupation of Rome was effected without a fight, and the dash into Marietta was bloodless. When Sherman learned that Hood had moved northward, he crossed the river with two corps, and formed a line of observation at Vining's Station. General Hood's line crossed the railroad at Big Shanty on the fourth. The two armies held this position to each other without firing a gun. On the fifth, Sherman withdrew, retiring to Atlanta. Our army then set to work, effectually destroying the railroad from Big Shanty to Oateneida. All the bridges from Marietta to Dalton were destroyed. We have strongly fortified Rensaw Mountain. Jackson holds Rome, and Wheeler has possession of Resaca.

Arrests in Washington.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—A great sensation was created here this morning, caused by the simultaneous seizure by the military authorities of a number of large business houses, and the closing of their establishments by a guard of soldiers. The seizures are understood to be pursuant to orders emanating from the War Department. Nothing definite is known as to the charges which induced these seizures, but they are said to be contraband trade and rebel mail carrying. All the proprietors, clerks, and other employees found on the premises seized, have been arrested and sent to Washington in a special train. It is understood that the War Department has ordered other arrests to be made.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—A number of dry goods, clothing, and shoe stores, perhaps ten or more, were closed by military authority to-day, and guards placed over them, and the principals and clerks taken into custody, on suspicion of being engaged in selling goods to blockade runners, appearances of one of such vessels, recently captured, affording, it is said, a cause for these proceedings.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerrillas. This arrangement is to be continued.

Arrests in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The people of Alexandria were yesterday thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent southern citizens in accordance with a late military order. This morning some of them were placed prominently upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a prevention against firing on the trains by guerr