Though I never these days of my chum did, and sometimes athers played with him in our room when 1 was present. I not unfrequently saw the students at cards.— One derthe Professors questioned me upon the subject:

"Have you ever seen any card playing actions the students?"
"Non sir" I answered firmly, determined not to evpose my fellows. "A lie of wonor!" I said to myself. What coupling of contradictions! As well talk of "honest theft," "innocent sin." "Yes are ignorant then of any card playing in the college building, Brown?"

"Ver sir"
"Whe can believe you. Brown."

I was ready to sink. Nothing else could have smitten, stung me like that. Such confidence, and I so unworthy of it. Still held back the truth.

But I left the Professor's room another De Su than I entered it, guilty, humbled, wretched, That one false word tind spoiled everything for me.-All my that manliness was shadowed by it. My ease of mind had left me, my self respect was gone. I felt uncertain, unsafe. I stood upon a lie, trembling, tottering. How soon might I not fall? I was right, in feeling unsafe. It is al-ways unsafe to lie. My feet were slid- LADIES' VIOTORINES, ing beathbane. One of the students had lost a quarter's allowance in play, and applied to his father for a fresh remittance, stating his less. No one could, for who knew whether my integrity might not again fail? I could not trust mysalf until I had obtained strength as well as pardon from God; not even then until I had many times been tried and tempted, and found his strength sufficient for me.

How to Prevent Wet Feet.

A writer in the Mechanics Magazine, last the six years, and thinks he will not require any more for six years to come reals how he treats them. I put a pound each of tallow and resin in a not of the fire when released and the name, style and title of the name, style and title of the name, style and title of the who says he has had three pair of boots pot on the fire; when melted and mixed PETROLEUM BANK OF GREENE COUNTY appliest hot to the boot with a painter's brush until neither the sole nor upper will seek any more. If it is desired that the boots should immediately take a polyth, dissolve an ounce of wax in a teasphorful of turpentine and lamp-black. A day or two after the boots have been treated with the resin and tallows rub over them this wax and turp the, but not before the fire.—
Thus the exterior will have a coat of wax alone, and shine like a mirror.— Tallogrand grease become rancid and rot the stitching or leather; hut the resin gives it an antiseptic quality which preserves the whole:

Boys, Help Your Mothers. .

We have seen from two to six great hearty boys sitting by the kitchen stove, toasting their feet and cracking nats or jokes, while their mother, a slender woman, has gone to the wood pile for wood, to the well for water, or to the meat house for frozen meat for breakfast:-This is not as it should be

There is much work about the house too hard for a woman; heavy litting, hard extra steps, which should be done by those more able. Boys, don't let your mother do it all, especially if she is a feeble woman. Dull, prosy housework is irksome enough at the best.-It is long work, too, it being impossible to tell when it is done; and then, on the morrow, the whole is to be gone over with again. There is more of it than one is apt to think.

We wish some busy, all-day housekeeper, the arrangement of whose house is about as inconvenient as it can be, a not uncommon state of things, -would count her steps in one day, and let us have the result in miles; let it be noted how many times from the stove to the wood pile, to the pump, and up and swear. As a district of the district of the down stairs, and especially how many thought that I could not. How can any one Morning.

Addicted Read.——
Hundreds addicted with Consumption, Epilepsy, Patpitation of the bility of the rystem General or Local Pains or Weakness, Night Sweats, Diamess of Sight, Fits of Despondency, Muscular Prostration and all dis. ases of the Nervous Centres, never dream of the CAUSE of their several afflictions. They treat results as it they were c.uses; and so no relief is found.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF THESE DISEASES very frequently? There is the secret—solitary selfabuse, practiced by thousands. Commenced when boys, at school or elsewhere, it is kept up even during young manthood, producing mental and physical prostration. If continued, these diseases, and even madness are the result. If the victim be conscious of the cause of his decay, and cuit it, he suffers under those terrible nocturnal and involuntary emissions which weaken and shame him, till life becomes grievous.—

Thus place between certain decay and premature death and horrible soffering, the wretched victim rushes to SELF DESTRUCTION, or sinks to an untimely death and horrible suffering, the wretched victim rushes to SELF-DESTRUCTION, or sinks to an untimely grave. If he emancipates himself before the practice has done its worst and enters matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his rectain follows:

be unitativity, and his sense tens into data his is caused by his early follies.

SUFFERING YOUNG MEN,

Let no false modesty prevent you from explaining year case to one whose acknowledged position in the medical profession, and respectability in private life, point him as a private counselfor. Think not to cause yourself, and so tamper with a faculty, the destruction of which senders a mention miserale. Come to the of which renders a mantruly iniserable. Come to Dr. KINKELIN, confide in him as thousands have done before you.
