DEAD.—Mr. Geo. Cook, an aged and well-known citizen and merchant of Upton, in this county, died in Lancaster on Sunday last. At the time of his death Mr. C. was Post Master at Upton, which office he had held—according to a statement in the Repository—for a period of thirty-three years.

QUINCY BAND.—The Quincy Brass Band was present and furnished the music at the Tournament in the grove of Mr. David Shank on Saturday last. They tarried long enough here to treat our citizens to several pieces of choice music.—They were neatly attired and occupied a handsome wagon. With practice Quincy may yet boast of a first-class band.

Wm. McSherry has been nominated for State Senator in the District composed of Adams and York counties, by the Democrats, and Dr. A. C. Hetrick, by the Republicans.

THE ANTIETAM RAILROAD.—The last Boonsboro' Odd Fellow contains an advertisement signed by six commissioners appointed by the Maryland legislature, among whom are A. K. Syester and Daniel V. Ahl, announcing that on the 25th, 26th, 27th, and 28th of October, Books of Subscription will be opened to the Capital Stock of the Antietam Railroad.—The capital stock is fixed at $200,000 in shares of $20 each. The Odd Fellow says:—"Some suppose this to be a different railroad enterprise from the Miramar. We will try to explain. "The Antietam Railroad" and the Miramar Railroad are substantially the same enterprise, though under different names and charters. "Miramar" is operating under a charter from Pennsylvania, and runs from the Susquehanna opposite Harrisburg, to the State line in Franklin County, south of "Waynesboro'. The Antietam Railroad is an enterprise chartered by the Maryland Legislature to run from the Antietam Iron Works, or the Potomac at Shepherdstown, through Washington County, to connect with the "Miramar" at some point on the line of Washington County. The two are designed to connect, and are in fact the same enterprise, and under the patronage of the same parties. The subscriptions in this county must be taken to the Antietam Railroad, to make them legal, as the Miramar is not known here in law, and all subscriptions in that name would be null and void."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A Young Man Instantly Killed.—A very sad accident occurred about three miles from Greenscastle, on the Williamsport road, last Sunday afternoon. The facts as given to us are about as follows: Major John Rowe and Mr. Henry Prather, of Greenscastle, were driving quietly along, about 4 o'clock, when a young man by the name of Hartle and Charles Cunningham, who were riding behind them on horseback, tried to pass them, Mr. Hartle turning his horse to the right of the road, and Mr. Cunningham his to the left. Mr. Hartle passed by safely, but for some reason which has not been discovered, Mr. Cunningham's horse became unmanageable, and instead of passing by Major Rowe's carriage, dashed with great force against the vehicle in the rear, breaking it into pieces and throwing the occupants some distance forward on the ground. Major Rowe fortunately escaped without sustaining any serious injuries, but Mr. Prather was severely but not dangerously bruised in various portions of his body. Major Rowe, on gaining his feet, went to the remains of his carriage, where he found his horse standing, trembling as in great fear, and Mr. Cunningham and his horse lying on the ground. Heaton approached them and found that Mr. Cunningham had been instantly killed, though his horse was not much injured.—Mr. Cunningham was a young man of about 21 years of age and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. His bereaved parents and friends have the sympathy of the entire community.—Repository

LECTURE ON SCRIPTURE HISTORY.—The Rev. Henry Miller will deliver a lecture on Scripture History in the Town Hall, this evening, illustrating the same by the use of illuminated pictures, which are highly entertaining and instructive, to both old and young. The public is invited to attend. Lecture free. The same Rev. gentleman will also deliver on Friday evening a free "Temperance Lecture" illustrating the subject by the use of a Magic Lantern.

R. R. COMMUNICATION.—A very interesting and therefore very important communication upon the Railroad question will appear in our next issue. It turned up on Wednesday morning, too late, we regret, for this week. We ask for it an earnest, attentive perusal upon the part of all interested in this vitally important question. It is from the pen of a gentleman, of much experience in railroad matters, and who, we feel confident, would not willfully put before the public false representations in regard to the question of a railroad or any other public enterprise.

DISORDERLY.—There was an unusual amount of disorder upon our streets on Saturday evening last. We understand a piece of brick bat was thrown into the Ten-pin Alley by some scape grace, by which a young man from Middleburg was struck on the face and severely cut. As the town has provided a Lock-up for the accommodation of disturbers of the peace, our officers instead of retiring should be on the alert for such offenders, especially on Saturday evenings. Lodging a few these characters in the Lock-up over night would soon abate the nuisance.

SHERIFF SALES.—The Bowden House in this place is advertised to be sold by the Sheriff, in Chambersburg, on the 20th inst. Also the frame house and lot of ground adjoining our Borough, belong to David J. Eichelberger.

Prof. John A. Light made his 118th balloon ascension from Hanover on Wednesday a week, landing near Oxford in Chester county. The Spectator says the distance traversed by the balloon in three hours was about 100 miles.

DAMAGE CLAIMS.—The Commissioners, Messrs. Douglas & Garver, according to announcement, arrived in this place on Monday, and have since been engaged in examining the claims of those who sustained losses during the Rebellion.—Claimants from the following sections are yet to be heard. That part of Washington township east of the public road leading from Quincy through Waynesboro' to the Maryland line, to-day October 5th. That part of Washington township west of said road, Friday, October 6th, and for the Borough of Waynesboro', on Saturday, October 7th. Claimants missed during the week on the special day set for them can be heard here on Saturday.

COURT.—The following is a list of Jurors from Washington and Quincy townships for Court, commencing at Chambersburg on the 23d inst: Grand Jurors.—Mathew Gordon, Daniel Knapp, Geo. Smith, Traverse Jurors.—James McCauley, Daniel Mickly, Henry Oaks, John Pentz, John Wisbart, Jos. H. Crebs, Abm. Frantz, John Funk, of H. Henry Good, John Hemming, Robert McCleary, Joseph Sollenberger, Geo. Stoler, Isaac Shockey, Daniel Stoops, Henry X. Stoner, H. E. Wertz, John Walk.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.—The German Baptists who some time since purchased the Union Church property in this place, have recently added much to the appearance of the edifice by painting, etc. The location for a church is one of the finest in town, and with the recent improvements our Baptist friends have an attractive and comfortable house in which to worship.

Philadelphia will have at least one woman voter at the next election. Miss Carrie L. Burnham, has been registered and assessed as a voter.

The Board of Regents of Mercersburg College have elected Rev. E. E. Hite, D. D., President instead of Rev. T. G. G. Apple D. D., resigned.

SOLD.—The house and lot on Church Street, the property of Mrs. C. Diffenderfer, dec'd, was sold on the 29th ult., for the sum of $884. Purchaser, Mrs. Sallie Waynant.

Geo. O. Evans, special agent, who is charged with having defrauded this State out of $291,469, which he retained on commission on disallowed and suspended claims against the General Government, was arrested in New York on Friday night last, on a requisition from Governor Geary. On Saturday morning, having sued out a writ of habeas corpus, he was brought before Judge McCunn, and his release demanded by counsel on the ground that the resolution of the Pennsylvania Legislature authorizing his appointment as a Special Agent provided that his commissions should not be "more than ten per cent." The amount he had retained was just ten per cent, on the sum which he claims to have collected, to which he contends he is entitled. Judge McCunn reserved his decision until Monday morning. He claims to have collected nearly $3,000,000, whilst the State Treasurer makes it $600,000.

There are two absolutely conflicting stories afloat in reference to the health of Queen Victoria. One is to the effect that she is much worse and that the Prince of Wales has been summoned to Balmoral, her seat in the Highlands, in all haste and has been accompanied by Mr. Gladstone; the other and more probable account is that she is much better and her son and the Premier go to see her upon some business errand. The fact that her remaining children have not been summoned to her side confirms the latter view, but there is still much room for apprehension that her death is an event not far distant.

MERITED DISTINCTION.—The well-known Gorton Junction, on the great thoroughfare of the Northern Lines to Boston, has ceased to be. With a large and increasing population, proud as well as prosperous, its citizens, in mass meeting assembled, have voted to change the name of their town to "AYER"—after one of the best known men in America, Dr. J. C. AYER, of Lowell—and the Legislature of Massachusetts has enacted that decision into law. We commend their choice, for not only is the name short and distinctive, but Dr. AYER'S medicines have made it greatly known to the ends of the earth. Probably no living man has carried relief to such countless multitudes of the sick as he, and this high honor, from his neighbors, tells the estimation in which he is held by those who know him.—Bristol Times.

The Secretary of the Treasury has given instructions at New York to purchase $2,000,000 of bonds each Wednesday and to sell $2,000,000, of gold on each Thursday during the present month.

The Peach bottom Railroad will surely be built, says a York paper. The necessary funds can, and will, before long be raised.

HIDES AND LEATHER.—THE subscriber will pay the highest market prices for Hides delivered at his Tannery in Quincy, or at the Hardware Store of S. B. Kinehart, in Waynesboro', where a supply of his leather will be kept for sale. JOHN T. STULL. Sept 29-31.

NERVOUS DISEASE.—How many thousands of the most refined ladies of the land are slaves to nervous diseases in various forms—trembling, twitching, and jerking of the nerves, headache, hysterics, sudden outbursts of temper on trivial occasions, peevishness, a feeling of despondency, despondency or fear, &c. PILES.—Look at those features and see the agony depicted in the face. It cannot be helped while the trouble remains.—The suffering from piles of a very aggravated description. You cannot walk with any comfort; you cannot ride in peace; you cannot sit with ease, and the suffering when attending to nature is almost unbearable, and causes such feeling of dread that it is put off at great sacrifice to health and comfort, in many instances increasing the difficulty to an alarming extent. Use Dr. Briggs' Pile Remedies accord'g to directions to cure internal, external, itching or bleeding piles. They are mild and reliable, and warranted as represented. Sold by Druggists.

DEATHS.

Near St. Thomas, on Wednesday, the 27th ult., Mrs. ANNABELLA J., wife of Mr. Thomas Gillan, in the 54th year of her age.

At the Marsh Run on the 12th ult., LAURA VERNIA, infant daughter of Philip and Mary C. Weisner, aged 2 months and 21 days.

But we have parted Laura, thou art dead, On your last resting place I laid thy head, Then by thy coffin side knelt down and took A mothers farewell kiss and farewell look. There marble lips no kipped kiss returned.

From those valled orbs no glance responsive burn'd, Ah! then I felt thou hadst passed away, That the sweet face I gazed on was but clay. But not forever in the silent tomb, Where thou art laid thy kindred shall find room; A little while, a few short years of pain, And one by one we'll come to thee again. The kind father shall seek out the place And rest with thee, the youngest of his race The dear, dear mother bent with sorrow and grief Shall lay her head by thine in sweet relief, Sisters and brothers and that faithful friend True from the first and tender to the end.
