Press for sale.—We still have for sale the Washington Press upon which the Record was printed previous to its enlargement. Price, $100.

President Grant has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, November 30th, as a National Thanksgiving day.

A little son of Levi B. Swavely, of Pottstown, got a chestnut in his windpipe the other day, and choked to death.

President Grant has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, November 30th, as a National Thanksgiving day.

The Hon. George Connell, member of the State Senate from the 4th District, Philadelphia, died on the morning of the 28th inst.

A petition fifty feet long was received at the Executive Mansion on Tuesday, signed by women of Utah, protesting against polygamy and urging effective measures for its suppression.

The full official vote in Pennsylvania gives Benth 20,370 majority, and Stanton 14,490. The latter was badly cut in Allegheny and a few other counties, falling behind Col. Benth.

The frightful intelligence comes from Buenos Ayres that during the past summer no less than twenty thousand persons died in that place from yellow fever, and that thirty thousand had died in the Province of Corrientes from the same disease.

Retail buyers ought to profit considerably by the depression in the coal market. Lehigh operators have reduced prices twenty-five to fifty cents per ton and Schuylkill operators fifty to seventy-five cents per ton below the prices of a month ago.

Rev. Septimus Tunstun, D. D., died in Washington on Monday morning. He was very prominent in the Presbyterian Church. In 1840 he was Chaplain of the House of Representatives, and had filled various charges in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

There seems to be no halting in the legal war which the judicial authorities in Utah are waging on Mormonism.—On Saturday Hawkins, who was convicted of polygamy, was sentenced by Judge McKean to a fine and an imprisonment for three years. Three prominent Mormons have been arrested on the charge of being concerned in a murder which occurred some years ago, and warrants are out for the arrest of Brigham Young as being an accessory.

General Robert Anderson, the gallant soldier who was most closely connected with the early scenes of our recent war by his defence of Fort Sumter, on the 11th and 12th of April, 1861, died on Thursday at Nice, France. After the surrender of Fort Sumter he took very little part in the contest, remaining only for a short time in command in Kentucky.—For several years past he has been in Europe.

There are nearly one hundred Ku-Klux prisoners at Yorkville, South Carolina, including five colored men, and as many at both Spartanburg and Uniontown. The Attorney General is now at Yorkville, and will himself appear for the Government in the preliminary examinations to be had before the United States Commissioner, under the Ku-Klux law.—He has associated with him, besides the United States District Attorney, the Hon. R. B. Elliott, the colored member of Congress from the Edgefield district.

A special from Salt Lake City to the N. Y. Herald states that the great Mormon Prophet, Brigham Young, for whose arrest, on the charge of murder, a warrant has been issued, has left his home and all his worldly goods and fled to unknown parts. In the same court, Elder Hawkins, convicted of adultery, has been sentenced to three years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500.

Tweed was arrested on Saturday in New York and gave bail in the sum of $2,000,000 for his appearance in Court.—It is not so certain that even if he is convicted of swindling and stealing any of the stolen millions can be recovered from him, as within the past two months he has been busily assigning all his property as immense wealth into hands that can safely hold on to it. The investigations of the Citizens' Committee have developed the fact that the Ring have cheated the city out of the enormous amount of $10,519,586.

A farmer in New York is attempting to establish the fact that animals can live without water. Some time in June last he put in an enclosure a number of hogs and a small calf. Neither the hogs nor the calf have had any water during this entire period, and yet, strange to say, they are all as fat as hogs, and are in an exceedingly thriving condition.

The Fulton Republican says that "hearty plenty on the Cove Mountain; that they come down from the mountain and go into cornfields in day time, where they are frequently seen."

The winter wheat looks well.

Rosenzweig, the N. Y. abortionist, who caused the death of Alice Rowley, a New Jersey girl, a few weeks since, and sought to conceal his crime by enclosing the body in a trunk which he tried to send off by rail, was found guilty of murder in the second degree on Saturday, and sentenced at once by Recorder, Hackett to seven years in State prison, with hard labor.

The Star says, the Recorder, "with unusual severity of manner," passed sentence as follows:

Rosenzweig, no person in life knows better than you that on the Wednesday night you performed the operation with a steel instrument.

And you packed her into that trunk, and sent her to the railway. In ordinary cases I should pay attention to the recommendation to mercy, but in this particular case you deserve no mercy.

In my view of the law, you stand guilty of the atrocious crime of murder. You sent two human beings to their last account. You ruthlessly, wilfully murdered them, and the indictment against you ought to have been murder in the first degree, and the sentence I should have pronounced against you is death by hanging.

I agree with my colleague, Judge Bedford, on the enormity of this offence, and I shall unite with him in recommending that this law be changed, that these felonious practices may be checked. You are a man of uncommon nerve. I never saw one who could stand the remarks—the sweeping denunciations against you by the District Attorney, so unmoved. You are an educated man. You came to this country to carry on those vile practices. You are a dangerous man, and I sentence you to seven years in State prison, with hard labor.

The audience loudly applauded the learned Recorder. The prisoner received sentence with remarkable firmness.

A correspondent of a Cincinnati newspaper who has been interviewing "Ben Hill," of Georgia, reports that able Southern statesman as follows:

Mr. Hill is of the opinion that the fate of Georgia hangs upon the events of the next few months. "Our Legislature meets in about two weeks," he said, "and much upon their action hangs our fate. Not half-way measures will do. They must take a bold stand in favor of the constitutional amendments, and assure the North that Georgia accepts all issues of the war. We must not halt or hesitate. There is no time for delay. Our Legislature must affirm in no unmistakable terms their acceptance of the amendments, and their disapprobation of Ku-Kluxism."

From the steps Gen. Grant is talking in South Carolina," continued Mr. Hill, "I should not be surprised to see a portion of our State under martial law in less than ninety days. If we don't enforce the law ourselves it will be done for us. The Ku-Klux business is the greatest evil that ever afflicted the South. Every day that we let it continue we cut our own throats. What possible good can it do? Will it reverse the verdict of the war? Will it injure the North? Will it restore to us anything we have lost? Not at all; it is a curse upon our land, a blight following slavery and war, and the greatest blunder our people ever committed, excepting the one forced upon us by the secession leaders in 1860. The history of the world presents nothing so suicidal and self-destructive as that, and I always make an exception in its favor."

THE WAR ON MORMONISM.—Washington, October 30th. Apart from newspaper publications the Government has, from time to time been advised of the progress of judicial proceedings in Utah. In a recent communication it is stated that the great work of correcting the evils in that Territory is now fairly begun, with the conviction of Thos. Hawkins for adultery committed in polygamy, his lawful wife being the principal witness.

The most shocking part of the testimony does not appear in print, being not only immodest but bestial.

The verdict, it is added, strikes like a thunderbolt in the Mormon camp. To other parties it begins to look a serious matter, and no power under heaven can save them from a like fate. The beginning of the end is at hand, and the Mormons know the opinion was that there would be no trouble in the Territory until the southern portion of it. The parties are not nearly so belligerent when the troops are near by as when at a distance. A quiet and determined course is considered much better than rashness or haste, which might result seriously.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.—His Excellency, the President of the United States, having by his proclamation set apart Thursday, the 30th of November, 1871, as a day of National Thanksgiving.

Now, therefore, I, John W. Geary, Governor of Pennsylvania, do hereby cordially commend to the people thereof the observance of the same as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God for our State, national and individual blessings, and for prayer for the continuance of His gracious favor.

As entirely as may be possible, let business pursuits be suspended. Let us spend the day in religious worship, and in such sacred communings and festivities of the home circle, and so secure its pleasures and perform its duties, as to make our hearts more deeply sensible of our obligations to God and our fellow men. "Who so offendeth praise glorification." He that both pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord, and that which he hath given will he pay him again."

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 26th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-sixth.

JNO. W. GEARY, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The cold days will soon be here—fix up your stoves and take particular care about having your chimneys and stove pipes clean and safe—a neglect of this warning might cost your home and perhaps your neighbor's.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS.—An interesting revival of religion has been progressing in the M. E. Church in this place for several weeks past. We understand between fifty and sixty persons have made a profession of religion since the commencement of the meetings.

DR. A. H. STRICKLER has removed his office from the Cottage Building to the Corner and, formerly occupied by his father-in-law, George Besore, deceased. Persons wishing to consult the Dr. can find him there at all hours when not engaged.

COMMUNION SERVICES will be held on next Sabbath morning in the Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. D. K. RICHARDSON of Middle Springs, Cumberland Co., Penna. Preaching Saturday afternoon and evening. The congregation at Greenacres have recently made out an unanimous call for Mr. Richardson. He is spoken of as a minister of acknowledged ability.

SALES.—JOHN R. SMITH, auctioneer, recently made the following sales in Quincy township: The farm belonging to the heirs of Geo. Knepper, dec'd, containing 66 acres and 43 perches, with improvements, for the sum of $11,155 cents per acre. Purchaser, Daniel W. Benedict.

The farm belonging to the heirs of Conrad Heffer, dec'd, containing 85 acres, for the sum of $101.25 cents per acre.—Purchaser, Abram. Stamy.

The House and lot belonging to the heirs of Emanuel Stover, dec'd, for the sum of $916. Purchaser, Heary Good.

R. R. MEETING.—A large and enthusiastic Miramar Railroad Meeting was held in Monn's Hall, in Quincy, on Friday evening last, which was addressed by Wm. McClellan, Esq., of Chambersburg, Col. W. H. Owen, Capt. Miffin, Chief Engineer, and Joseph Douglas, Esq. A good feeling was manifested. The citizens of Green, Guilford and Quincy townships are alive to the importance of securing the Miramar road, and will, we are assured, do their part. What is our town and township going to do? The work in Cumberland county is progressing rapidly. If we intend to do anything the time to move is now.

PLAYING "SPOOK."—On Saturday night several young men in this place undertook to frighten one of their comrades by one of the number presenting himself at the place designated wrapped in a white sheet. Instead of making his flight the young man drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the ghost, and advancing was about to fire a second time, but fortunately the disguised man called for quarters in time to save the risk of a second shot. What was commenced in sport might have ended sorrowfully to them, indeed. This should prove a warning to other "sports" inclined to play "spook."

LITERARY SOCIETY.—The Mt. Vernon Literary Society held a second meeting at the Mt. V. School-house, on Friday evening last. The constitution was adopted, and other business of importance to the society, was transacted. A very graceful poem, by Alice Cary, was then recited by Mr. J. Good. A debate followed, being quite up to the standard of first efforts. The resolution read thus: Resolved, That a Branch R. R. is more profitable to Waynesboro' than a through line. The negative side winning the favorable decision of the judges.

The subject for discussion at the next meeting (Friday evening, 3d Nov.) runs thus: Resolved, That fire is more destructive than water. An essay will also be read, entitled "Nice young women." Go, young ladies, and hear what will be said about you. Young gentlemen, your enterprise is a noble one; fight it out on that line, if it takes you all winter.

FATAL FALL.—Mr. John Clacken, of Liberty township, this county, came to a sad and sudden end on Wednesday last week. He was engaged at work on Mrs. Zimmerman's farm. The chickens were injuring some rye above the barn floor, and he went up to cover it. Whilst there a board gave way, and he was precipitated to the floor, falling upon his head. He was found in an insensible condition.—Dr. Annan immediately called, could do nothing for the injured man, who died at 12 o'clock that night. His age was about 50 years, and he leaves a wife and 8 children, most of them grown. Some years ago his only sister was struck by lightning whilst on the road to Emmitzburg, and was instantly killed. Gettysburg Compiler.

THE RISE IN COFFEE.—The recent extraordinary rise in the price of coffee has produced much discussion in commercial circles. The price of good Rio in cargo, for instance, has within a few weeks advanced from 114 cents to nearly 177 cents per pound, gold. Other descriptions of coffee have risen nearly as much. It is stated that there are at present but forty odd thousand bags of coffee in first hands in the United States, and some of the large dealers are ordering cargoes from Europe. When the tariff was reduced on coffee, tea and sugar, a year ago, there was an almost immediate decline in the price of those articles; but the short crop of coffee has influenced the present rise in that "necessity."

Germany surprises the world by claiming the credit of discovering the open polar sea. Many wise observers have held to the firm belief that the only way to reach the mystery which surrounds the North Pole was by way of the Pacific. It will be confirmation of this theory if the German expedition has really in this way reached the open sea.
