

Wert Sykes was married to Olive Logan on Tuesday.

Bricklayers in Chicago are demanding $6 per day, or they will quit work.

The first temperance society in this country was formed at Saratoga in 1808. It was local in its character, and numbered 43 members, mostly farmers, who pledged themselves to abstain from distilled liquors and ordained that no member should be intoxicated under penalty of fifty cents.

THE ATROCIOUS KU KLUX.—Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, who was employed for the defense in the South Carolina Ku Klux trials, after listening for five days to testimony which clearly proved the atrocious character of the organization and the cruel and bloody deeds committed by its individual members, was ashamed, in his closing speech, to acknowledge himself a defender of such lawlessness and crime. He said: "Neither my distinguished friend (Mr. Stanbery) nor myself are here to defend or justify, or palliate any outrages that may have been perpetrated in your State by the association of Ku Klux. I have listened with horror to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proved have been shocking to humanity; they admit neither of justification nor excuse; they violate every obligation which law and nature impose upon men. These men appear to have been alike insensible to the obligations of humanity and religion. The day will come, however, when they will be judged as they are." "I have not already arrived when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice should not overtake them there is another tribunal from which there is no escape. It is there our conscience, that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man; that still, small voice that thrills through the heart, and as it speaks give happiness or torture, the voice of conscience—the voice of God. And if it has not already spoken to them in tones which have wakened them up to the enormity of their conduct I trust, in the mercy of Heaven, that voice will speak before they shall be called to the dread tribunal to account for the transactions of this world."

DEATH FROM FEAR OF DEATH.—The Doylestown Democrat gives the particulars of a lady who lived down in White Marsh, and ever since the small pox has been the topic of talk in that neighborhood, has been in the most deadly fear of infection; her terror was so great as to cause her to keep all the windows of her house closed on the side toward a neighbor's who had the plague, although the distance of a mile intervened between the two houses. Some two weeks since, such was her nervous excitement that she was taken ill, and her physician discovered mild symptoms of varioloid. This becoming known to her, she immediately gave herself up for lost, and in a few days actually died from sheer fright, as the physician says there is no reason why she should not have thrown off the disease and recovered.—This is only another instance of the necessity of a cool head and quiet nerves in the time of the prevalence of an epidemic.

MONUMENT TO THADDEUS STEVENS.—There has been much astonishment expressed in the press of late that the fact that no appropriate stone or column marks the spot where rest the remains of the Great Commoner. We are pleased to learn that this will not be the case much longer. The Philadelphia Press says: "At last a monument is to be erected over the grave of Thaddeus Stevens. Late Lancaster county advices say that the executors of his estate have commissioned a monumental sculptor to erect a handsome granite monument, with marble tablets, in Sherwin's cemetery, where the Great Commoner lies buried. It has been hoped heretofore that either the colored people of the United States or the school children of Pennsylvania would raise a memorial to the great benefactor of both, but it seems that Mr. Stevens' executors have not thought proper to let his grave remain any longer without anything to mark its place."

WINTER TRAVEL.—It appears that the buffaloes were very much discommoded by the late terrible snow-storm on the Pacific Railroad. While one train of cars was embedded in the snow these animals gathered to the lee side for shelter. A correspondent says: "If any one felt disposed he might find his seat in the car, pop them over with his revolver—the rest would not move—they could not be driven away by engine whistling or human voice, but crowded their shaggy sides close up to the cars and there stood with bowed heads for the storm to pass. Many were seen to fall down in their tracks dead from cold, and when at last the train was dug out and moved off the track was lined with these huge, shaggy, frozen carcasses." We think a robe a luxury in winter—so it is. Imagine the severity of the weather when the animal which furnishes the robe freezes to death under his natural protection.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—On last Thursday night four colored men, who had been engaged at work on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, in Mason county, were frozen to death in the woods a few miles west of the White Sulphur Springs. It is said they had started to walk home to spend the Christmas holidays.

The Adams County Teachers Institute will commence January 15th (Monday.)

Local News.

The suspension of work in our office on Monday and the absence of one of our hands since will account for the lack of reading matter in this issue.

A happy New Year to all our good patrons.

See advt. of Thos. Bringman, boot and shoemaker.

Wednesday of last week was the coldest day of the year in this latitude, the mercury falling 5° below zero.

Our Carrier, "Billy Jacobs," will be around next Monday morning with his New Year's Address. Give the Devil his dues on that occasion.

Some of our more bashful Bachelor friends are said to be growing "weakened" at the near approach of leap year. Are they afraid of the young "widders?"

We had a short season of sleighing last week, embracing Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The weather since has been mild and the snow and ice has entirely disappeared.

The house and lot on Church Street, the property of Mrs. Ann M. Blair, dec'd., was sold on Saturday last for the sum of $840. Purchaser, Conrad Raths.

We suggest that certain patrons turn over a "new leaf" with the commencement of the New Year, by leaving some of their "STAMPS" at this office, where they are much needed.

NEAR at hand—January 1st—a fitting season to square up old accounts, and take a fresh start. Will not those in arrears for the Record take the hint, and promptly act upon it? The money is badly needed.

Rabbits are said to be unusually numerous this season. In the vicinity of Shady Grove, in this county, where it is said they trap partridges in violation of law—about 100 were captured during three days last week, after the snow-fall.

SHOOTING, LOOK OUT!—We learn that boys with guns, pistols or fire cracker on Saturday evening or Monday morning next will not be permitted. Officers Horner and Zimmerman have expressed a determination to lodge all offenders in the Lock Up—where they will be compelled to remain until morning when they will be taken before the Burgess who will impose the fine.

UGLY.—During the couple of days sleighing last week we noticed that our town boys acted very rudely by crowding upon the backs and sides of sleighs, throwing snow balls, and acting otherwise rowdy-like. In several instances tears were thus frightened and "run off" narrowly avoided. Zimmerman, High Constable, should abate this nuisance in the future.

BUFFALO MEAT.—We are indebted to Mr. A. G. Nevin, our worthy Post Master for a choice Buffalo Suroin, which was sent to him from Abilene, Kansas, by his son and son-in-law, T. S. Nevin and D. R. Gordon, Esqrs. A little darker in color when served up than beef, but more tender and nutritious. Mr. N. served several other citizens with a mess. They agree with us in pronouncing it the choicest bite of the season apart from fat and tender fowls.

CHRISTMAS TURKEY.—Our kind, genial, and at the same time jolly friend, Mr. FRED. MCINTIRE, of the vicinity of Emmittsburg, Md., made us the recipient of a fine fat "gobbler" for Christmas. This was the first present of the kind received during many years. We appreciated the gift more because it came from Fred, for Frederick county does not boast a citizen of more noble and generous impulses.

CHRISTMAS.—On Monday last, Christmas day, business as usual was suspended in our town, and the streets thronged with comers and goers, among whom the fair sex, handsomely "rigged," (the fascinating young widows of course included) were largely represented. About 10 o'clock our Brass Band made its appearance and enlivened the occasion with choice music, a reputation of which the citizens were again favored with in the evening. The day passed by pleasantly, only a few "tipsy sports" making their appearance after night-fall.

BANKING BUSINESS.—It is astonishing how ignorant many persons are in regard to the banking business. If they chance to have surplus funds on hand they are at a loss to know where to put them, and in too many instances they go into irresponsible hands and both principal and interest are lost. They seem to be not aware that sums of any denomination can be deposited in the Bank at any time and drawn out whenever called for. The institution is controlled by a responsible board of directors, in whose hands such money must necessarily be safe. With a Bank in our community it is not necessary for any person to bury in the ground or otherwise conceal money for safe keeping as has been the case.

CHURCH CONSECRATION.—The ceremonies attending the consecration of the new Reformed Church in this place were of the most interesting character. As was announced, the Consecration Sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. BOMBERGER, President of Ursinus College. Services commenced on Saturday, and very able sermons were listened to from the Revs. G. W. Glesner, Schneek and Supper.—The latter was formerly and for a number of years pastor of the congregation.—In the morning (Sunday) the congregation was perhaps the largest ever assembled in our town. A subscription was taken, which footed up the handsome sum of over $3000. There is yet a debt of about $1400 on the building, but we learn there is enough in the hands of the original subscribers, if it can be collected, to cover this indebtedness. The church is very handsomely frescoed and otherwise tastefully arranged, with appropriate mottoes inscribed upon its walls. For beauty of finish it is perhaps not excelled in the county.

THE CLOSE OF THE YEAR.—The present year is rapidly drawing to a close.—A few more days and it will have reached its termination and the mighty events which distinguished it, be spread upon the accumulating pages of the past. They will live only in history, and will probably, soon be lost sight of, altogether, in new and broader accessions and brighter and more interesting events. The year has been an eventful one, not only so far as these states are concerned but throughout the world. Germany has taken stand in the galaxy of nations, which she did not occupy before. Her successful struggle, with France has given her a distinctive prominence, among civilized governments, changed her political complexion and character and made her one of the mightiest powers of the world.—France, too, humble and humiliated, has had her eyes opened, to her true position, has discovered her weak and salient points and will, doubtless, after she has risen again, like Phoenix from her ashes, put on new garments more beautiful and attractive than she ever wore. Italy has changed her form of government and the papal power which, heretofore, ruled her with an iron hand, has lost its potency and infallibility. Brazil has knocked off the shackles from the limbs of her slaves and now occupies a place, upon the platform, among those who recognize the doctrine of freedom and equality to all men.—In England there is a growing tendency to a change, if not in the form at least in the spirit of the government, and the uncertainty of the present succession may work a revolution such as of which, at present we can form no adequate conception. The world everywhere, is making rapid strides toward republicanism and the time does not seem to be far distant, when the spirit of the example of those free and independent States will be universally imitated. The year, which is about closing, has wrought a mighty work upon the face and character of humanity and the future historian will refer to it as one of the most significant in the march of ages.

HOW TO RUIN A SON.—1. Let him have his own way. 2. Allow him free use of money. 3. Suffer him to roam where he pleases on the Sabbath. 4. Give him full access to wicked companions. 5. Call him to no account on his evenings. 6. Furnish him no stated employment.

NERVOUS DISEASE.—How many thousands of the most refined ladies of the land are slaves to nervous diseases in various forms—trembling, twitching, and jerking of the nerves, headache, hysterics, sudden outbursts of temper on trivial occasions, peevishness, a feeling of desperation, despondency, or fear, &c. In any unhealthy condition of the nervous system, Briggs' Alleviator has absolute control over the nerves, creating a radical change and positive cure. Sold by F. FOURTHMAN and druggists generally.

PILES.—Look at those features and see the agony depicted in the face. It cannot be helped while the trouble remains.—The suffering from piles is of a very aggravated description. You cannot walk with any comfort, you cannot ride in peace, you cannot sit with ease, and the suffering when attending to nature is almost unbearable, and causes such feeling of dread that is put off at great sacrifice to health and comfort, in many instances increasing the difficulty to an alarming extent. Use Dr. Briggs' Pile Remedies according to directions to cure internal, external, itching or bleeding piles. They are mild, reliable, and warranted as represented. Sold by Druggists.

Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails and their attendant ills, have been, in years gone by, and will be in years to come, a source of much discomfort and unhappiness to those who are annoyed with them. By persistent efforts and untiring perseverance, Dr. J. Briggs gave the suffering humanity his remedies—Alleviator and Curative. The popularity which they have gained, and the entire satisfaction derived from their use, is well known and can be attested by all classes who have suffered with Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Chilblains, Frosted or Blistered Feet, &c.—Sold by druggists.

CARSON'S STELLAR OIL!

THE alarming increase in the number of frightful accidents, resulting in terrible deaths and destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of kerosene lamps, know under the name of Petroleum, prompts us to call your special attention to an article which will, wherever used, remove the cause of such accidents. We allude to CARSON'S STELLAR OIL FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

THE proprietor of this oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous kerosene lamps, an oil that is safe, brilliant, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and offers to the public, such a substitute, in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL."

It should be used by every family because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it perfectly safe, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it. Its present standard of SAFETY and BRILLIANCY will always be maintained, for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

To prevent the adulteration of this oil with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., it is put up for family use in four-gallon cans, each can being sealed and stamped with the trademark of the proprietor; it cannot, therefore, be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without this trade-mark.

It is the duty and interest of all dealers and customers of illuminating oils, to use STELLAR OIL only, because it alone is known to be safe and reliable. It is for sale by Amberson, Benedict & Co., Waynesboro', Manon & Statler, Marion, E. B. Winger, Quincy, Goltwicks & Burkhardt, Chambersburg, W. D. Dixon, St. Thomas, J. Hostetter & Co., Greencastle, Thomas C. Grove, Mercersburg, Jno. L. Ritchey.
