Westminister, Md., April 8 .- One of the most shocking tragedies ever known in the history of Western Maryland occured near McKinstry's Mills, in this county, on Friday afternoon of last week. The victim was Mr. Abraham Lynn, a young married man of twenty seven years, who is by profession a miller, and who at the time of the tradgedy was in possession of what is called the "Stoner Mill," which is situated on Sam's Creek, about half a mile from McKinstry's Mills. About five o'clock on Friday evening the absence of Mr. Lynn was first discovered. Upon search being made, which search lasted until nine o'clock at night, his murdered body was discovered in the sink in the The head was frightfully shattered and the brains oozing out of the broken skull, and the body rifled of $800, which the murdered man was known to have in his possession a few hours before he was missed. A jury was empannelled on the following day, but because possibly of the examination then made not being entirely-satisfactory, another examination is being held to-day. At this examination the State's Attorney of the county, Mr. the interests of the State.

Immediately upon the discovery of the murder the independent detective firm of Smith, Pierson & Wost, of Baltimore, were telegraphed to visit the scene of the murder without delay, and on Saturday two of the firm were at the mill and at once proceeded to investigate the case. They made a careful examination of the mill and spot at which Lynn met his death. and found a stout wooden bar covered with blood. According to Mr. Gitt's report a road of six miles or thereabouts can be made in the direction of Smithburg for one liundred and twenty thousand dollars. From some proposed changes in the route it is believed by a good many persons that the cost need not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. We do not know what amount of subscriptions for a railroad has been taken, but are well satisfied from what has been done in the past that at least fifty thousand dollars can be had, and this is a very low estimate, for the town itself on one ocuasion raised nearly this amount. The difficulty in the way is not so much want of funds or lack of disposition among the people to do their part, as a want of harmony among the R. R.
