

In town—the hooping cough.

Quiet—our town on the 4th.

The days are shortening.

Chestnuts will be plentiful this year.

The corn-fields, with a few exceptions, look well.

Our type men want money, the "paper man" do. Pay up!

Harvest is over. Come down, then, with the promised "greenbacks."

Apples are selling at 20 cents a peck.

The Mountain Houses are crowded with visitors.

This is warm weather—most too warm to get married.

A brother editor says the champion reaper is advertising.

Reports of death from sunstroke come from all quarters.

See advt. Omnibus for sale, J. R. Wolfersberger.

The thermometer continues among the nineties.

Now is the time to gather Yarn, Bonnet and other "fables."

The blackberry crop will be abundant.

Tangle foot whiskey in Baltimore this week is called scorpion broth.

The voracious potato bug has made his appearance in the town lots.

A gill of strong sage tea taken at bed time will break night sweats.

Bugs, gnats and flies are becoming unpleasantly numerous.

Grading was commenced this week on the York Springs B. R. R.

Wanted—an uprising for a branch connection with the W. M. R. R.

The weather has been extremely warm the past week, the thermometer keeping in the nineties.

Whortleberries are on our streets at 10 cents per quart. The crop is said to be a very abundant one.

The Democratic County Convention will be held in Chambersburg on Tuesday, 30th inst.

The H. & P. R. R. is slowly, but surely progressing. A report of its operations and progress will shortly be issued.

The real estate of Jas. Hovis, dec'd, will be sold in Pikesville, on the 19th of July, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Thirty young ladies on one street in Waynesboro expect to marry before they are twenty-five years of age.

The yield of early potatoes in this region will prove a light one owing to the intense heat and protracted drought.

Forty thousand dollars will grade and bridge a branch line to the W. M. R. R.

Mr. B. F. Barr, U. S. Mail contractor runs a coach daily between this place and Blue Ridge Summit Station on the W. M. R. R. See advt.

The present is a good time to pave side walks. For your own credit, comfort, convenience, and that of your neighbors, fill up the mud-holes.

Preaching.—Rev. Thos. Creigh, D. D., of Merceburg, will preach in the Presbyterian Church in this place next Sabbath morning and evening.

Removed.—The trial of Joseph Davis, for the murder of Abram Lynn in Carroll county, Md. has been removed to Washington county.

The Military Encampment at Gettysburg was a failure. Neither General Grant and but few of the big officers or soldiers were present, and what did attend were disgusted and soon went away.

The popular Baltimore Saddler, Mr. J. W. Jamison, a host for Grant, pulled stakes again on Monday. This time he has temporarily settled at Munkton, Balt. Co., Md.

We offer our readers an apology for the quality of paper upon which the Record is printed this week. Much of it is unfit for use, but "short" it is the best we could do under the circumstances.

Valley Spirit.—Our valued county contemporary made its appearance last week in a new and handsome dress. In appearance the Spirit vies well with the best country journals, and editorially is ably managed by its publishers, Messrs. Dupcan & Stenger.

AGED LADY.—The Hagerstown Mail says Mrs. David Schaeby, wife of Col. David Schaeby, late of that county, dec'd, will if she lives be one hundred years old on the 15th of February next. With an assistant she continues the business of farming near State Line Station on the C. V. R. R.

Baby shows are the latest addition to South Bend church festivals. The handsomest baby gets a premium, and the mothers of all the rest get mad, of course.

Watermelons and cantaloupes are now sold in Louisville by the car load.

MOUNTAIN VISITORS.—We understand the public houses on the Mountain are filled with visitors. One of them it is said could have five hundred boarders during the season with the necessary accommodations for this number. Excursion and pic nic parties from Washington county to these shady retreats over the W. M. R. R. are of frequent occurrence of late, but for want of a short Branch connection with the W. M. R. R. a stranger in this part of the "moral vineyard" is getting to be a rarity. Such a connection would fill our town with campers and goers daily. As healthy a town as Waynesboro is, with first-class hotels and boarding houses, and so near these summer retreats, she might accommodate during the season a couple hundred strangers. The difference in boarding would more than pay their railroad fare to and fro. Such an outlay would be a profitable investment to the town, to say nothing of the farming community, whose interests in pecuniary sense would be equally enhanced. But the fact is we lack the one great essential to a live community. We have good citizens but they are wanting in energy and business foresight. Give us live business men with moderate capital who do not scare at a shadow, and a connection with the W. M. R. R. would not be long postponed. Such men would not stop to consider impracticable routes or out-of-the-way connections.

SCARCITY OF WATER.—The water dearth continues to increase, well after well yielding to the protracted drought, until the situation becomes not only one of inconvenience but ill forebodings as to the future. Citizens whose heads have been whitened with the frosts of four score and more years profess to have no recollection of a like occurrence, and this state of things is not confined to any particular locality but is widespread. At Westminster, Md. we are told citizens are actually buying creek water at one dollar per barrel. Many of our citizens carry water for family use from one end of the town to the other, whilst farmers in the country are forced to resort to springs miles off with waggons. The question of water or no water is really assuming a serious aspect.

HARVESTING.—Most of our farmers finished harvesting last week. We hear of one here and there having realized a tolerable turn-out of wheat, but the crop generally proved light. In many instances scarcely sufficient for seed and home consumption was secured. The work of destruction seems to have been wrought by the fly. The farmers were fortunate in this, however, that what they had to gather was well headed and well filled.—The partial failure is attributed to too early seeding more than to any other cause. Our country friends should turn to account in the future this lesson of the past.

LEG BROKEN.—We regret to learn that Mr. Jos. Mentzer who resides a few miles from this place, in Washington county, met with an accident on Monday last, by which one of his legs was broken. He was taking in, it appears, his last load of grain, when his horses took fright and ran off. Whether he was thrown from the horse or the wagon we are not informed, but the wagon passed over his leg breaking it between the ankle and knee joints. It is bad enough to have a limb broken at any time, but more particularly trying at this juncture of the season, mid-summer.

The National Democratic Convention assembled in Baltimore on Tuesday last. According to the latest newspaper accounts the nomination or endorsement of Horace Greeley as the Democratic candidate for President can be put down as certain. The Pennsylvania delegation is represented as divided between Horace and a straight ticket, with only one State, little Delaware, a unit in its opposition to Greeley.

GENEROSITY.—Mr. Otho Chambers, of our town, whose home was entered by some burglarious scoundrel, while he and his family were at church, a few weeks ago, and robbed of $185, was pleasantly surprised a few mornings since by a purse of money being handed him containing $101.75, which a number of our good people charitably contributed to lessen the burden of his misfortune.—Greenacelle Echo.

GOOD MOYE.—We are to have another Bank to be called the "Waynesboro Bank." The charter will be applied for at the next session of the Legislature. It would certainly prove a great convenience to the business community, and will no doubt be very liberally encouraged in both town and country.

The Fifth Maryland Regiment visited Hagerstown on the 4th and encamped on the grounds of the Agricultural Association. The Fifth has acquired distinction as to its fine appearance and character of drill, and it is said to have attracted a large crowd and more than ordinary attention.

The Board of School Commissioners of Washington county have raised the salaries of teachers in the public schools of that county.

Horace Greeley is a Unitarian, but he originally believes in the doctrine of election.

FRANKLIN COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The quarterly meeting of the F. C. M. S. was held in this place, on Tuesday, July 2d, the following physicians being in attendance, viz: Drs. H. H. Hunter, E. N. Senesby, J. L. Suesseotte, S. G. Lane, H. Buhman, Jno. Montgomery, I. N. Spively, B. Frantz, A. H. Strickler, T. J. McLanahan, A. S. Bodebrake, J. Burns Amberson, J. M. Ripple, and Dr. Unger. The meeting was called to order by President Hunter, at 1 1/2 p. m. Dr. Montgomery was appointed Secretary, pro tem. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The report of the delegates to the American Medical Association was made by Dr. Montgomery and received. Applications for membership were received, after which the following nominations were made: For President, Dr. I. N. Snively, of Waynesboro; Vice-Presidents, Drs. T. M. Kennedy, of Guilford and J. M. Gelwix, of Strasburg; Corresponding Secretary, Dr. S. G. Lane, of Chambersburg; Recording Secretary, Dr. Wm. H. Boyle, of Chambersburg; Treasurer, Dr. T. J. McLanahan, of Chambersburg; Censor, Dr. A. H. Strickler, of Waynesboro. Dr. Lane moved that the Society meet in Strasburg, in October, which was amended by the President making the next meeting at Merceburg, Tuesday evening October 1st, 1872, and inviting the Physicians of Merceburg and vicinity to meet with us, which was adopted. The Treasurer reported the names of members of the Society in good standing. On motion, Dr. Montgomery was appointed to prepare an essay to be read at the next meeting. On motion it was resolved that the thanks of this Society be extended to the Y. M. C. A. for the use of their rooms and that the Corresponding Secretary be ordered to engross a copy of the resolutions and present them to the Association. After a discussion of numerous medical topics, interesting to the Society, it adjourned to meet at Merceburg, the first Tuesday of next October, at 7 1/2 o'clock p. m.

It is a fact that there are living two widows of revolutionary soldiers who are under forty years of age, and the oldest surviving widow is one hundred and fifteen years old.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Fifteen hundred and sixty-nine deaths were occasioned by the heat in New York last week, nearly twice the number of the preceding week.

Brigham Young, just on the point of tottering into his grave, solemnly resolves to marry no more wives. He has but forty-nine now living.

A man was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad last week, who had just been discharged from the State prison, after a confinement of eighteen years.

The Baltimore Sun says there are over two thousand cases of small-pox in that city and calls upon the city authorities to take measures to stay the disease.

Rev. J. A. McCalley, Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, Washington, D. C. has been unanimously elected President of Dickinson College, at Carlisle, Pa., and has accepted the position.

In Virginia, a young clergyman, the Rev. Joseph P. Price, was killed by lightning while standing under a tree eating his lunch. He was on his way to take charge of a church in Bedford county to which he had been called.

It is a fact that there are living two widows of revolutionary soldiers who are under forty years of age, and the oldest surviving widow is one hundred and fifteen years old.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

Since sentence of death was passed upon Mrs. Fair, Elisha Cooke, one of her counsel; Harry Byrne, who prosecuted the case; Judge Sprague of the Supreme Court, who was instrumental in granting her a new trial, and a son of A. P. Crittenden, her victim, have died.

DEATHS.

At her residence in this place, on the 1st inst., Mrs. SUSAN NUTT, aged about 95 years.

On the 4th of July, near Salem Church, Mr. JACOB PLOTCH, aged 82 years, 5 mos. and 13 days.

In Chambersburg, on the 6th of July, Miss ANNE WALLACE, in her 78th year.

Near Scotland, on the 13th ult., of consumption, Miss LAURA A. HALE, aged 17 years, 4 mos. and 3 days.

In Pikesville, May 19th, 1872, Mrs. ANNE E. wife of Franklin Enile, aged 24 years, 11 months and 30 days.

In this place, June 26th, EMMA LOUGSA daughter of Jacob B., and Louisa Corbett, aged 1 year and 11 months.

MARKETS.

WAYNESBORO MARKET. (CORRECTED WEEKLY.)

BACON.....60
HAMS.....11
BUTTER.....14
EGGS.....14
LARD.....7
POTATOES.....5
APPLES—DRIED.....00
APPLES—GREEN.....50
HARD SOAP.....00

BALTIMORE July 8, 1872.
17 FLOUR.—The market for Flour remains dull, as before noted, with little or no demand from any quarter.

WHEAT.—Sales amounting to 3,000 bushels new white, and 5,000 to 6,000 new red at 140 to 155 cts. Some small lots wet and tough sold at 115 to 130 cts.

CORN.—Of Southern the sales were 7,000 white at 79 to 82 cents, former for inferior, and 600 yellow at 73 cents.

OATS.—Sales of 800 bushels bright at 45 cents, 3,200 bushels mixed at 40 to 42 1/2 cts.

RYE.—We quote to-day at 70 to 80 cts. PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—Beaves very dull this week: sales 2,000 extra Penna. and Western Steers at 7 1/4 to 7 3/4 cts.

EMPTY Molasses Barrels and Sugar do. for sale at Reid's Grocery. July 11—t

BUS FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers at Private Sale an Omnibus for two or four horses, in fine order and on easy terms. Address J. R. WOLFERSBERGER. July 11—t

BANK NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made at the next session of the legislature of Pennsylvania for the charter of a bank with general banking privileges, to be called the Waynesboro Bank, and located at Waynesboro, Franklin county, Pa., with a capital of Fifty Thousand Dollars, with the right to increase it to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. July 6, 1872—6 mo.

STAGE LINE.

The subscriber informs the traveling public that he is running a Daily Coach from Waynesboro to Blue Ridge Summit, leaving Waynesboro at 9 o'clock, A. M., arriving at Blue Ridge Summit at 11 o'clock, A. M., at Blue Ridge Summit at 12 M., making connection with the 12:35 train on the W. M. R. R. from Baltimore. Express matter from Baltimore for Waynesboro should be sent to Blue Ridge Station as it will come through to Waynesboro the same day.—The train for Baltimore leaves Summit Station at 2:34, P. M., arriving in Baltimore at 6:30 P. M. B. F. BARR. July 11, 1872—t

AUCTION.

The undersigned desiring to close out a stock of ready-made Clothing, will sell at auction, on Saturday evening, July 13th, at his store, in Quincey, 50 PIECES READY-MADE CLOTHING, consisting of 3 Full Suits, 5 Dress Coats, 5 pairs Cord Pants, a number of Summer Vest and Sunday Suits, etc. He will also offer some Shoes, Boots, Hats & Notions. Purchasers to have 12 mo. credit on all sums of $5 and upwards by giving note with approved security. C. W. GOOD.

WAYNESBORO SCHOOL DISTRICT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved the 21st day of April, A. D. 1871, the Board of Directors of the Waynesboro School District, will make application at the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin county, on Monday the 12th day of August, A. D. 1872, for a decree authorizing them to borrow Eight Thousand Dollars, and to issue bonds therefor; redeemable in 20 years from the date of issue, at the rate of seven per cent. interest, free from all taxation. By order of the Board, E. A. HERING, President. July 11—t

OMNIBUS LINE!

The subscriber, informs the public that he has contracted for the U. S. Mail from the C. V. R. R. at Greencastle, to the W. M. R. R. at the Blue Ridge Station, (via Monterey Springs), a distance of 184 miles. He still continues to run the Omnibus line with good horses and a first-class four-horse Coach and is enabled to convey passengers to and fro with comfort and convenience. He will leave Waynesboro at 7 o'clock, A. M., arriving at Greencastle at 8 1/2 A. M., making quick time and sure connection with the first passenger train at 9 o'clock, A. M. Leaves Greenc