

Wagynnesboro Village Record.

Thursday, Aug. 20, '72.

Ex-Gov. Carlin denies that he is for Greeley.

Gen. John A. Dix was last week nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor in New York.

Since the 15th of July for all money orders, where the amount does not exceed $10, the fee is five cents.

The Treasury at Washington on Friday held $4,523,172 greenbacks, and $72,997,365 gold.

Rubenstein, the first pianist of the world, saving, perhaps, Listz, is en route to the United States.

A fire a few days ago in the press room of the Christian Union, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's paper, caused damage to the extent of $30,000.

The Hagerstown Manufacturing Company are making arrangements to erect suitable buildings for the purpose of manufacturing railroad cars.

Rev. Jacob Holmes, a local preacher of the M. P. Church, died at his residence near Westminster, Carroll county, on the 12th inst., aged 75 years.

The papers for the pardon of four Ku-Klux prisoners confined in the Albany Penitentiary have been made out at the State Department, and will be forwarded to Albany as soon as the President signs them.

Charles Francis Adams is said to have written a letter endorsing President Grant's re-election, declaring his lack of sympathy with the Greeley movement, and declining to be a candidate for the Governorship of Massachusetts.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, to be held at Pittsburg, on the 17th of September, bids fair to be the largest demonstration of the kind ever held in the country.

Prominent among those mentioned as candidates for President at the Louisville Convention is Hon. Chas. O'Connor of New York. Brick Pomeroy suggests A. I. Stevens of Georgia, for Vice President.

Richard Connolly, late Comptroller of New York city, and the only one of the Tammany Ring thieves who has suffered imprisonment, has disappeared; he is wanted as a witness against Haggerty and Bauleh, the voucher thieves, but cannot be found. His bail, amounting to half a million, it is thought will be forfeited.

Dental surgery has added a new achievement to its skill and discovery. They now take out a tooth, remove the nerve, cleanse, scrape and purify it, and then replace it, instead of putting in a false one. A case is reported in London where a sufferer from toothache had the disturber of his quiet taken out and replaced, and in this manner got rid of the pain. It is said that this experiment has also been successfully tried in Boston. This may be an important discovery, yet it is difficult to see how it can become very popular. Most people are only too glad to be rid of an aching tooth, and are little inclined to restore it to its former usefulness.

BALTIMORE BANK ROBBERY.—No clue has yet been had to the robbers of the Third National Bank of Baltimore. It is supposed the bank will lose, in all, about $80,000 in money and securities. The amount lost by private deposits is very heavy, but not yet accurately ascertained. It may run up to $400,000 all told, money and bonds.

Those best posted are apprehensive that neither robbers, money or bonds will be heard of. The loss is truly distressing to several of the special depositors, it having swept away their very substance.

CONVENTION OF FAT MEN.—Invitations are being issued to the fat men of the United States to attend the "Annual Convention of Fat Men," to be held at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie, on the 10th of September. The Circular making the announcement says: "The hotels on the island have agreed that special efforts shall be made to make the visit a pleasant one, and no pains will be spared by the Committee in charge to make this the event of the season. All parties weighing 200 pounds and over, will be permitted to deliberate with the Convention. Slim ones will be welcome. Speeches, lectures, readings, recitations, whistling, wrestling, jumping, racing, rowing, fishing, swimming, singing, dancing, eating, drinking, &c., will constitute the amusement while convened. It is expected that the delegates will bring their wives, be they fat or lean, long or short, thick or thin. "The heaviest man in the Convention present shall be President of the same."

We would suggest that among others the following individuals put in an appearance at the convention referred to viz: D. S. Bonbrake, Geo. V. Moig, A. D. Gordon, J. Wolfensberger, Miller Sowerbeck and David Wertz.

The recent election in West Virginia resulted in favor of the independent ticket which was supported by the Republicans in opposition to the regular Democratic ticket. The majority for Jacob for Governor is said to be between 5000 and 6000. The new Constitution which would have disfranchised the colored citizens is also defeated.

Local News.

Past—the dog days. Hard up—the printer. Plenty—elder and apples. More rain is needed. The water dearth continues. The potato bug has left. Fall plowing has commenced.

A seasonable luxury—peaches and cream. Should be propped—the over-burdened fruit trees. The weather continues oppressively warm.

Now is the time to gather elderberries. SEED WHEAT.—See Advt. of Jas. H. Clayton.

The Lutheran S. S. Picnic was held on Thursday, all parties enjoying a delightful time.

The Oxford (Pa) Times says that others of marriageable daughters in that village are putting in stronger gate posts.

SANDERS' SALE.—The sale of valuable real estate by Levi Sanders, including several desirable town properties, comes off on Saturday next.

TEACHERS.—On Saturday next the School Board will employ teachers for the township schools.

PUBLIC SALE.—The personal property of Mrs. Susan Barr, dec'd will be sold on the 17th of September by the administrator, B. F. Barr. See advt.

Jacob Y. Busley exhibited to the Star last week an Adams county cantelope measuring 2 feet in circumference and 2 feet in length.

FARM FOR SALE.—Isaac Shockey, Esq., assignee of Jacob C. Stouffer, offers for sale one of the most valuable farms in this section of Franklin county. See advt. in another column.

DEAD.—Daniel Myers, formerly of Quincy township, and well known in this county, expired after a protracted illness at his residence near Dry Creek, Linn county, Iowa, on the 19th inst.

HOME FOR SALE.—John Price, Sen. offers at public sale a desirable small property near this place. It is pleasantly situated on the Waynesboro' and Greencastle turnpike. See advt.

Several young men in town have discarded white vests. The young ladies use so much oil on their hair that a vest is only good for one evening on the front door step.

Union services will be held in the Lutheran Church under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. next Sabbath evening. Sermon by Rev. C. L. Keedy. All are cordially invited to attend, the young especially.

FINE YIELD.—Mr. Jonathan Null of the vicinity of Quincy informs us that one and a half acres of ground the past harvest yielded him forty bushels of wheat, old Lancaster or red-top variety. This beats the Falls' wheat referred to in the last Opinion.

MT. ALTO R. R.—The grading on the Mt. Alto Railroad has been completed and the work of putting on the Superstructure commenced. A Quincy township gentleman informs us that they expect the cars to be running on the road in a couple of months.

REGISTER.—Persons who have not been registered for the coming election should call on L. C. Brackbill Borough Assessor. This duty must be attended to ten days before the election. Mathew Gordon registers in the township. This notice refers only to persons voting on age and those who have lately come into the election district.

FIRMS CHANGED.—John McErvin has purchased the interest of his partner, M. C. Crilly, in the grocery business in this place. Mr. A. E. Waynant of the firm of Boerner & Waynant, has disposed of his interest in their merchant tailoring establishment to Mr. John Appenzeller.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—We call special attention to the notice by the School Board in this issue, from which it will be seen that any damage done to the new School Building by mischievous boys, or others, will be visited with the penalty of the law, without respect to persons. It would be well for parents and guardians to admonish the youth of our town in regard to this matter.

MORE SURVEYS.—We are reliably informed that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has ordered the running of a railroad line between Hagerstown and this place. It is said the intention is to connect the Washington County Branch Road with the Harrisburg & Potomac at or near this place. The H. & P. R. Co. has also understood commenced the survey of a second line from the Cumberland county line to this place.

An Indiana woman, just divorced has written a letter of advice to her sex in which she says: "I would say to young girls not to marry young, and when you are married live at least fifty miles from your husband's relatives."

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.—FATAL RESULT.—The grinding house of the Keystone Powder Mills, at this place blew up, on Tuesday afternoon, resulting in the partial unroofing of the building, and burning of one of the employees, named Edward Clensing, in such a manner, that he died on Thursday evening. The victim was the only person in the house at the time of the explosion, and on account of his great agony, it was only a short time before his death that the cause of the accident was made known. It appears that the powder had accumulated on the rollers, and Clensing, in order to relieve them, used a copper shovel, in doing which a spark was produced which done the terrible work. This is the third explosion since the Mill has been in operation, something less than two years time, killing two persons and severely burning another.—Public Opinion.

FIRE.—Early on Friday morning the occupants of the house of Rev. Wm. Byers, residing near Funkstown, were awakened by smoke and smell of fire, which, upon investigation, proved to proceed from the dry house, which was all in flames. Mr. Byers being rather old and feeble, could do little towards subduing the flames, but a young man belonging to the family assisted by a lady fought the flames manfully and at length succeeded in subduing them, but not until the dry house and smoke house had been consumed. Both of these buildings were in close proximity to the dwelling house, and it was only by hard labor that the building was saved.—The cause of the fire is not known, as the dry house was looked through before they retired the night before, and no signs of fire discovered, but was in flames when they awakened in the morning.—Public Opinion.

Water-melon raising has been introduced in the vicinity of Boonsboro', Washington Co., Md., the soil in that region being naturally adapted to their culture. The Odd Fellow referring to this year's crop says: Mr. Inyer will have about 10,000—perhaps more. Dr. Bell, on the mountain, will have several thousands. Geo. Carson will have perhaps 500, and William Dagenhart has several hundred.—John Lapole, Philip Rohrer, and some others have raised melons, from a few hundred to a thousand. All together there will be about 30,000 melons raised in this immediate section. And they are as large, in most cases as those brought from the city, and far superior in flavor and are sold, at retail, cheaper than can be done in the markets of Baltimore.—These melons will average about 7 cents a piece. We think we are safe in estimating the crop worth over $2,000. And this only in the hands of a few, taking up but a few acres of our ground.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.—Another attempt was made to rob the Post Office in this place on Saturday night last. The burglars sought to effect an entrance thereto by forcing or prizing open the door in the rear of the office. The noise arrested the attention of Mr. James B. Smith in the adjoining building. He promptly gave the alarm causing the party to suddenly vamoose. Traces of their efforts to force the lock were plainly visible in the morning, but had they succeeded in getting in it would have been risk and labor lost.—No money, not even a one cent stamp, had been left in the office.

BARN BURNED.—We regret to learn that our old friend, Mr. Jacob Miller, who resides in Quincy township, about one mile from Hopewell Mills, met with a serious loss by the destruction of his barn by fire on Monday last. The fire was first discovered about 10 o'clock, A. M. and by noon it was entirely consumed with all its contents, including wheat, rye, oats, hay, straw, wagons, plows and other farm implements. Loss about $1,000, upon which there is no insurance. Mr. Miller was a small farmer and this loss falls heavily upon him. The origin of the fire is not known.

PERSONAL.—Rev. W. N. Geddes, formerly Pastor of the Presbyterian congregation in this place, last week visited our town and spent several days among his friends. The Rev. gentleman has accepted a situation as teacher in Hanover College, Jefferson county, Indiana, and on Monday left for the West. Mr. G. is an agreeable gentleman socially, and as a minister was held in high esteem by the congregation and citizens here generally.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOLS.—Our enterprising friend, Prof. A. M. Trimmer, of Dickenson Commercial College, now of Hagerstown, Md., is about establishing similar schools in Cumberland and Frederick city, Md., also in Lancaster city, Pa. Prof. Trimmer has the advantage 15 years experience in this important branch of education and the public can rest assured the best facilities will be afforded young men at these schools.

The United Brethren Camp Meeting which was closed at Keedysville, Washington county, Md., on Friday last was a large affair. There were 105 tents on the ground, and the assemblage on Sunday is said to have numbered from 7,000 to 10,000 persons. The best of order prevailed.

Ex-Mayor Chapman of Baltimore has commenced the erection of a large warehouse at Blue Ridge station on the summit of the South Mountain.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Lewis Bosh, proprietor of the livery stable, located at the Washington House in Chambersburg, was found in his stable, on Thursday morning last, in a dying condition, and upon his removal to the hotel, he expired in a few minutes thereafter. Heart disease was the cause.

The following teachers have been selected to preside over the common schools of Greencastle, which commence on Monday, September 2d, 1872: Samuel Eby, Supt.; John W. Kuhn, Miss Annie E. Hade, Miss Maria Z. Black, Mrs. Martha Detrich, Lemuel Suively.
