CLUB MARSHAL, Oscar Good, requests members and citizens of the township to meet at 6 o'clock to arrange for the order of the evening.

PENNA. ELECTION.—According to our exchanges more than ordinary interest is manifested in the election which is to come off in this State on Tuesday next. "As goes Pennsylvania so goes the Union" has become a by-word about election times, hence the eyes of the people from Maine to Georgia are turned to its result.

A Republican meeting was held at the Town Hall on Friday evening last for the purpose forming a Grant & Wilson Club. The following officers were elected: President, W. A. Reid; Vice Presidents, Geo. J. Balsley, L. P. Thompson; Treasurer, Henry X. Stoner; Secretary, D. M. Good, Jr. The Club meets this (Thursday) evening.

GREENCASTLE MEETING.—Through the politeness of Mr. J. R. Wolfensberger, who tendered us a seat in his buggy, we attended a Republican Mass meeting at Greencastle on Saturday evening last. The immense gathering of people reminded us of the log cabin days of 1840. The meeting was the largest held in the county since the opening of the campaign. The speakers at the regular stand were Hon. Geo. W. Brewer and Hon. Chas. Lee, Jr. and at the Adam's House, F. Stumbaugh, Thad. Mahon and W. U. Brewer, Esqrs.

Matthews, Teacher of High School, J. Zuck, Jr. Teacher of Grammar School, Mrs. Josephine A. Funk, Teacher of Secondary School, Miss Cordelia Phreaner, Teacher of Primary School, Miss Lisle M. Wilson, Assistant Teacher of Primary School.

The merchants and other business men in order to be present at the dedication will close their houses during to-morrow afternoon. R. R. SURVEYS.—Jos. S. Gitt, Civil Engineer, arrived on Monday evening last, and on Tuesday morning commenced the survey from this place to Fayetteville and to connect with the H. & P. R. R. at Cleversburg. He will run several lines from this place North from the lines run from Hagerstown. It looks as if we were to get a Railroad after all our failures. Not one, but several corps of engineers have been operating in our neighborhood for sometime. We hope to publish the different reports soon.

Mr. Gitt informs us that previous and pressing engagements will prevent him from being with the party during the whole survey, but he will return in a few weeks to report after completing the various lines run.

Maj. M. W. Boyne has completed his survey between this place and the W. M. R. R. and we are pleased to announce that he has succeeded in getting a line easy of construction, much of the work being more than ordinarily light. The distance as before stated is a little less than six and a half miles. His report will be given to the public in the course of a week or two.

MAIL SERVICE.—The Post-office Department has in contemplation to change the mail service between Gettysburg and Hagerstown—terminating the tri-weekly service on this end of the route at Monterey, making the service between Ringgold and Hagerstown daily.

A petition has been forwarded to the Department asking that the service between Gettysburg and Monterey be also made daily.

Among the recent announcements by the Post-office Department is the establishment of an office at Kingsdale, Adams county, and the appointment of Wm. H. Horner as Post-master.—Gettysburg Star.

VOCAL MUSIC.—Prof. Dock of this place proposes to give instructions in vocal music to as many of our young people of both sexes as desire to improve their voices and become proficient in the art of singing. The Prof. is eminently qualified as a teacher of music and a large number will doubtless take the opportunity of placing themselves under his training. He will be pleased to meet all who wish to be instructed, in the Town Hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 12th, at 7, P. M. A FRIEND.

The "Adventists" tell us that the "six thousand years" of man's occupation of this globe will end this year—some where between the first of September and the first of January. Those who are indebted to this office had better call immediately and settle, so that they may be prepared for the occasion.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Ambersson, Benedict & Co. are now opening out a stock of new fall and winter goods. Call and see the late styles.

The Fairview Mill property will be sold on Friday the 11th.

Mrs. Laura Fair, tried a second time for the murder of George P. Crittenden at San Francisco, has been acquitted on the ground that she was insane at the time of committing the act. Mr. Crittenden was a great criminal lawyer, and through his eloquence and skill many a scoundrel escaped who ought to have been hung. His professional brethren have performed the same duty for his murderer that he performed for others not less guilty. And thus the carnival of crime goes on.

The meeting of the oil producers held at Oil City Pa., on Saturday unanimously agreed to suspend the working of all pumping for thirty days, and also to quit work upon all wells now being drilled for the same period. Three-fourths of the oil wells in the country ceased to at 12 o'clock on Saturday night. An advance in the price of oil is anticipated.

Dr. Medlicott, who had married a lady of Hagerstown, Washington county, has, on a second trial, been acquitted of the murder of Ruth, at Lawrence, Kansas. It will be remembered that on his first trial he was convicted of the murder, and sentenced to be hung.

Mormonism obtains the greatest part of its converts from among the ignorant lower classes in Europe. Between five and six hundred poor, deluded men and women are now en route for Utah, having recently arrived in this country, with the intention of casting their lot with the Mormons.

Rev. Peter Cartwright, the well-known pioneer Methodist preacher, died at his home near Pleasant Plains, Sangamon county, Illinois, on the 25th, aged 87 years.

COMMUNICATED.

According to previous announcement, the picnic and public demonstration of the Ucas Tribe, No. 101, I. M. O. R. M., was held on 26th Corn Moon, and proved to be quite a success, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the day previous, and the unsettled state of the weather on the morning of the Pic Nic, which prevented several of the Sister Tribes from being present on the occasion. Our Chief Marshal, W. A. Price, assisted by W. I. Bickel received Massoi Tribe, No. 41, of Emmitsburg, Md. and Washata Tribe 169, of Middletown, Pa. at the edge of town and escorted them through Main street in their wagons, while Cap. Dock's Band welcomed them with one of their lively airs while passing the Wigwam. The Council Fire was extinguished at the 10th run rising of the Sun, in our Wigwam; from thence we were conducted through the streets, and out to the home of the Aboriginal Red Men, where the following visiting tribes were made welcome with singing the welcome song, and a prayer offered to the Great Spirit by Rev. Thos. J. Cross, acting as prophet. We were entertained for a short time by the Medicine Man (Rev. T. J. Cross) in a spicy address, setting forth the objects of the order, and correcting some of the mistaken ideas about the Imp'd O. R. M. We next had to sculp the tables, which our squaws held in waiting for us; and we did it in a satisfactory manner, for there was not a table on the ground that did not feel the effects of the onset made upon them by the hungry Reds. We were then addressed by P. S. Joseph Byers, chief marshal of Massoi Tribe; giving a synopsis of the rise and progress of the order, which was quite interesting, as well as instructive to all. The council Fire continued to burn during the whole of the sun to the satisfaction of all present until the 5th run; 30th Breath setting of the sun; when our visiting brethren started for their respective hunting grounds, highly pleased with their stay with us, and wished us success in capturing many pale faces, and adopting them into our tribe for our hire. A RED MAN.
