CHEAP GOODS FOR THE FOLKS OF WAYNESBORO'.

JUST homefrom the great New York Auction House on Monday evening. On Tuesday pile after pile of purchases were thrown down at my door, and customers came along and stood and looked and stared at the variety and quantity. But when the tickets were stuck on them they stood in utter amazement. I thought to myself they think I did not pay for these goods and no wonder for the prices are frightfully low. No end to the "Joh Lots" on hand— I don't believe in long palavers in circulars but will only quote a few to give customers an idea of the merchantile panic now going on in New York. One house after another "going up" taking any money at all to keep going a few months. The excitement in the the Gold room among the Bulls and Bears is nothing compared with that in the
