Celebrated Blood Cleanser or Panacea. As a medicine for children, the Panacea is, in every way, calculated to take the place of the endie's variety of drugs which are annually sold for that purpose, and which are often very injarious. A medicine which nosesses the qualities of a cathardic as well as a mind alterative, and which is capable of arresting discase without the least injury to the child, is of "__adeniable value to every mother. As a cathardic, it is very checked when the does not, if given in proper quantities, cause mansen or distress to the stomach or booked. It is very pleasant to the taste, which is a very important feature as a medicine for children.
