

Waynesboro' Village Record.

Thursday, November 7, '72.

Erily E. Lloyd, tried in Leesburg, Va., last week, upon the charge of having poisoned her little daughter Maud, was acquitted, the jury being out but twenty minutes.

The Philadelphia Mint has commenced the melting of one dollar gold pieces to be converted into pieces of larger denomination. Twenty millions of this description are to be received.

The steamship Missouri, which left New York for Havana on the 17th ult, was destroyed by fire near the Bahamas, on the 22nd, and of ninety souls on board but twelve were saved.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad officials have issued orders that hereafter no trains shall be run upon that road on Sunday, except those containing live stock in transit.

Wm. Craig, colored, about 25 years old, was on Friday last convicted in the Circuit Court of Allegany county, of rape on Mrs. Lottie Dayton, aged 74 years, and on Saturday Judge Pearce sentenced him to be hanged.

The Secretary of the Treasury has ordered the Assistant Treasurer at New York to purchase one million of bonds each Wednesday and to sell one million of gold each Thursday during the month of November.

An apostate and backsliding Mormon organization has been formed at Salt Lake City called the Utah Liberating League. It is taking a strong hold on the people and is spreading rapidly. Its efforts are directed against the power of the priesthood of the Mormon Church.

A gentleman in New York states that he should have embarked on the ill-fated Metis on the night of disaster, but for a strong impression that something would happen to the boat. He even went so far as to send his luggage to the pier, but his fears prevailed and he fortunately stayed in New York.

The horse disease has reached Philadelphia. The Evening Telegraph reports six hundred cases in the city and fifty cases in Camden. Five cars have been taken off the Market street line of city railroad in consequence of the disease among their horses—some fifty of them having been turned over for treatment.

Some months ago there was a paragraph flying about through the newspapers to the effect that the German Government was trying to discourage emigration to America and interposing all the obstacles possible. From information received at the State Department it appears that the story is untrue in every particular. The German Government has done nothing and said nothing to prevent emigration.

POVERTY AND CRIME.—Rev. Mr. Wiswall, Master of St. John's Guild, made a report concerning the poor of two wards in New York city, and referring generally to crime in the city, showed that in the year 1870 over one hundred thousand persons were sent to the different prisons, almshouses, reformatories, nurseries and hospitals, under the management of the Public Charities and Correction. Of this number nearly fifty thousand were convicted of crimes and misdemeanors, most of whom have served out their term of commitment and returned to their disgraced homes. It may be easily estimated from such figures, that during the past five years one hundred thousand of the tenement population have been inmates of city prisons.

Mr. Wiswall stated that ten millions of dollars a year are required to carry on the city prisons and public charities of New York, and all merely to restrain, punish and support criminals and paupers, who, instead of being reformed, are made worse. There are men not thirty years old who have cost the State already ten thousand dollars, beside having stolen as much from private individuals before arrest and conviction.

As to what can be done for the poor children of the city he said: "If their young lives are passed in ignorance, idleness and crime, what may we expect from their future? But can they be reformed? A lady of Rochester, a few years ago, took six of the worst children of the place under care, and five of those six are now reputable citizens. A street Arab was a few years ago sent West. During the Chicago fire he lost fifty thousand dollars, the result of his industry, and so good was his credit that the New York merchants advanced him all the goods he required to start again in business.—Another street Arab was sent west, where he earned enough to defray the expenses in Yale College, and to-day is a prominent student.

A colored man named Joshua Gill, formerly a slave in the family of the late Robert Oliver, of Baltimore county departed this life on the 25th ult, aged 116 years. He had a distinct recollection of Gen. Washington and of his visit to the State of Maryland. He was active and industrious, and retained his mental faculties in a wonderful degree to his death.—Baltimore Union.

There are sixty-two counties in Pennsylvania.

Local News.

The horse disease has made its appearance at Harrisburg.

For public sale of horses, cattle, etc., see advertisement John Z. Bonbrake in this issue.

The chap with the "big feet" was about on Tuesday, of course he voted for Gen.

Persons wishing seats in Crilly's Passenger or Express Wagon can apply at either of our hotels.

SOLD.—The Burger property at Snow Hill was sold by Geo. V. Mong, Auctioneer, on the 25th ult, for the sum of $1,506. Purchaser, Mrs. Susan Burger.

Quits Business.—Mr. John H. Bonbrake requests us to announce that he will not continue the butchering business after this week.

Being short of a hand, in order to get our paper to press at the regular time, we have been compelled to "double" a little this week.

The rooms of the Y. M. C. A. are open for the public, every Monday and Friday evening. All are invited to visit them often.

FOR SALE.—J. W. Miller again offers for sale the house and lot on Church St. belonging to the estate of Ann Maria Blair, dec'd.

WASHINGTON COUNTY LANDS FOR SALE.—We direct special attention to the real estate offered at public sale in to-day's paper by Messrs. David and John B. Newcomer, of Washington county, Md.

THE NEW DOMESTIC.—Mr. F. W. Kepner, of Quincy, has the agency for sale in this county, of the "New Domestic Family and Manufacturing Sewing Machine," which is said to be a first class machine. See advt. in another column.

The Lochiel Rolling Mill at Harrisburg was burned on Monday morning last involving a loss of from $80,000 to $100,000. The supposition is that the building was fired by an incendiary.

Wm. Taylor, (colored) formerly in the employ of Dr. I. N. Snively, was last week sentenced by the Court at Chambersburg to one year imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary. Last summer he appropriated to his use a gun and other valuables belonging to David Miller of the Clermont House on the mountain.

CARS RUNNING.—The cars are now running on the Mt. Alto Railroad. The opening excursion took place on Wednesday last week. The new road intersects the C. V. R. R. at a point three and a half miles from Chambersburg. The stations on the line are Brookside, Woodstock, Font Hill, Fayetteville and Pond Bank. The distance from Chambersburg over the line is fourteen miles.

ELECTION DAY.—The election in this place on Tuesday last passed off like that of October quietly. But little interest was manifested by either party as to the result. The vote polled was 557, 107 less than at the former election. Republican majority (reported) 156, a gain of 84 since October.

The Republicans carried the Quincy box by 57 majority.

LARGE TURNIPS.—Mr. Geo. J. Balsley the other day sent to our office a lot of turnips, which, for size, beats anything in the turnip line we have yet seen. Six filled a half bushel, one of the number weighing five pounds, and measuring 24 by 21 inches. Mr. B. is one of our most successful farmers and fruit growers.

Banvard's Great Moving Tableau of the Chicago Fire will be on an exhibition in the Town Hall in this Borough on Saturday evening next, November 9th. Our exchanges speak of the entertainment in the highest terms of praise, and we doubt not that it will come fully up to all that is claimed for it. On Saturday afternoon at three o'clock an exhibition will be given to which children will be admitted for ten cents each.

IN ARREARS.—Jacob Burger, State Line, Pa., owes this office $20.00 for subscription. If Jacob has any conscience at all it must be of the gumelastic order. The account was forwarded to a collector some months since, but we have had no report, and suspect, in value, it don't amount to the paper this is written on.

Benj. F. Leisinger has also neglected his account until it has reached $10.00. His whereabouts just now we do not know. He is a young man of father prepossessing appearance, and never shirks a promise to pay.

ENCOURAGING PROPOSITION.—We understand a favorable proposition has been laid before the President of our Railroad Committee by responsible parties connected with the W. M. R. R., looking to an early Branch connection with that road. The particulars of said proposition we have not at hand, and therefore forbear further comments for the present.

Over twenty miles of the Harrisburg and Potomac railroad are graded, and more than ten miles ballasted. This looks like business, and we suspect next spring will open with considerable railroad activity.—Star.

HOW TO PREVENT FIRES.—The fire Department of an eastern city submits the following suggestions for the prevention of fires, and as they are worthy of consideration and are valuable, we republish them for the benefit of our readers: Keep matches in metal boxes and out of reach of children. Wax matches are particularly dangerous, and should be kept out of the way of rats and mice. Fill fluid or camphine lamps only by daylight and never near a fire or light. Do not deposit coal or wood ashes in wooden vessels and be sure burning cinders are extinguished before depositing. Never place a light or ashes under a stair case. Never take a light to examine a gas meter or gas pipes in a building. Be careful never to place gas or other lights near curtains. Never take a light into a closet. Do not read in a bed by candle or lamp light. Place glass shades over gas lights in show windows, and do not crowd goods near them. No smoking should be permitted in warehouses, particularly where goods are stacked or cotton stored. Where furnaces are used, the principal register should always be fastened open. Stove pipes should be at least four inches from board work, and guarded by tin. All hatchways or openings in the floors of stores, factories or warehouses should be closed at night. All iron doors between stores should be closed at night or when not in use.

THE ELECTION.—Before putting our paper to press this (Wednesday) afternoon we obtained the following reported majorities for Grant and Wilson from Mr. Leeds, our telegraph operator, which were transmitted to President Grant during Tuesday night:

Pennsylvania, 100,000. Massachusetts, 80,000. New York, 30,000. North Carolina, 15,000. New Hampshire, 3,000.

Philadelphia is reported at 46,000 majority for the Republicans.

In the sixteenth Maryland Congressional District, Rowles, Republican, is elected over Ritchie. Washington county gives a Republican majority of about 250, Frederick 600 and Allegany 800.

Should the above figures turn out to be anything near correct the Democrats and Liberals have met with a defeat never unexampled in American politics.

The October crop report, issued by the statistician of the department of agriculture, contains some interesting statements in regard to the wheat crop of 1872. The failure or deficiency in the Middle States is very marked, and Pennsylvania is unfortunately, the heaviest sufferer, the yield in this State being only about sixty per cent. of the yield of 1871. In nearly all other quarters of the Union, however, the product has been larger than usual, a very great increase having occurred in some States, so that in the entire country there is a probable excess over last year of ten million bushels.

DEATH OF MRS. GREELEY.—Mrs. Horace Greeley died in N. Y., on Thursday last, and was buried on Friday. She was married to Mr. Greeley at Warrenton, North Carolina, in the year 1836, having gone to that place to teach school, with Mr. G. followed and married her. She was an estimable lady in all the relations of life, and one of remarkable culture.

Mr. David Study, a wide and well-known practicing physician, died at his residence in this place on Sunday evening, of pneumonia. Having been ill but a few days, his death was quite unexpected and caused regretful surprise. He was aged about 70 years. A quiet, good citizen, an honest man, and useful in his profession, he deserves and enjoyed universal respect.—Gettysburg Compiler.

The "ghost" continues to frighten and vex the people of Carlisle. A number of shots have been fired at it, yet it still roams nightly, unharmed.

Five thousand people gathered at Hendersonville, North Carolina, on Friday last, to witness the execution of Mar. in Bayley, for the murder of one Weston and his three children, but he had escaped from jail the night previous, in his wife's clothes.

MURDER IN FREDERICK CO., MD.—Adam Rickets, about 57 years of age, was arrested at his home, near Johnsville, Frederick county, Md., on the 22d ult, charged with shooting his wife. He is now in jail. The Frederick citizen says: "Rickets was in Liberty, Frederick county, on Tuesday, attending to business, and started home in the afternoon, on foot, quite drunk. It seems that his wife was in the yard, about ten feet from the door, when she was shot. The ball took effect in the left arm and side, from which she died on Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock. Rickets speaks only broken English. He is a native of Bavaria, and arrived in this country about twenty-two years ago; was employed as a cook by Wampler, at Westminster. From Westminster he removed to Johnsville, where he has been living ever since. His wife, he states, was four years older than himself, has been married thirty-two yrs, and has had six children; two of them are dead and four living. He thinks he was quite drunk when he arrived home; remembers seeing his wife lying in the yard; that he picked her up and carried her into the house and laid her on the bed; was shortly afterward arrested. He says he did not shoot his wife. He is small in stature and has a good, honest face. While speaking of his wife and children he seemed to be much affected, his eyes filling with tears. He had not been informed of his wife's death, but seemed to think she would certainly recover.

Mr. Blair—Two weeks ago I saw an article in the Record written by Reformer on the School Houses at Pikeville and Waterloo. I think that Reformer has hit the nail on the head. Those men who have made Schools a study, are the men who should be consulted on school architecture; grading schools; selection of text books, and selection of teachers. Men may be first class farmers, and yet be totally ignorant of school affairs. With such opportunities afforded by the school department, for all the information necessary to have "first-class schools, a school board cannot be excused. Grade schools wherever you can. Every township should have a high school conveniently located; to this school could be sent, from every school in the district, the advanced classes. Here the teachers who have charge of the schools could give instruction in Algebra, High Mathematics, Latin, Philosophy, Greek, Botany, Theory of Teaching, Constitution of the United States, Mental Philosophy, History, &c., and thus save not only hundreds of dollars spent away from home, but many bright intellects who could become useful men and women.

A LITTLE BOY HANGS HIMSELF.—On Saturday afternoon last, Mrs. Wm. Hammonds, of this place, sent her little son Willie, aged about twelve years, into the cellar to sweep it out. At first she heard him stirring about. In about twenty minutes time, the little fellow not coming up and not hearing him, she became uneasy and looking into the cellar, discovered him hanging by a swing, (erected for his amusement,) and fearing something was the matter, hurried to him. He was sitting astride of the swing seat, with the rope under his right arm, over his shoulder and around his neck. To her horror and amazement she discovered that he was dead—having been choked to death with the rope. She immediately called to Mrs. Samuel Hammonds, a neighbor, to come to her assistance. The latter answered her call, and assisted the grief-stricken mother in taking her little and only son from the swing-board. It is said that Willie was fond of engaging in gymnastic exercises, and the probability is that while attempting some feat he became entangled in the rope, with the result above stated.—Bounton (N. Y.) Bulletin.

A fearful accident happened at De Kalb, Ills., on the 25th ult. An aeronaut had a balloon ready to ascend, when it broke loose and flew upward. A hanging rope caught around the leg of a man named McMann and carried him up about one hundred feet when he managed to climb into the basket. When the balloon had reached the distance of four hundred feet from the earth, McMann deliberately jumped out, and was picked up dead.

A very dangerous counterfeit $50 United States Treasury note is in circulation. When critically examined the engraving seems to be as fine and accurate as the genuine. The general appearance of the bill, however, is darker than the genuine; the words, "Fifty Dollar," in the centre of the bill, have a blurred appearance when held at a distance. The paper, also, is stiffer and smoother, or rather oily, as compared with the genuine.

The grave of the mother of Stonewall Jackson, (Mrs. Woodson) is in a corn-field two miles from Miller's Ferry, in Fayette County, West Virginia. There is no mark to designate it. Joshua Ellis, who lives at Miller's Ferry, offers to put any stone over it that is sent to him.

A Chicago paper says that Iowa is burning corn for fuel, and thinks that if a dollar's worth of that cereal will make more heat than a dollar's worth of wood or coal, it should be burned by all means. It is a pity that locomotives on the railroad could not burn it too. If one-half of the entire crop were burned, the remainder would, in all probability, sell for more than the whole would bring now.
