

Thursday, Jan. 9, 1873.

The Baltimore Daily American entered upon its hundredth year on New Year's Day.

The governor elect, General John F. Hartranft, will be inaugurated on Tuesday, January 21, 1873.

A barn, and twenty horses and sleighs belonging to a dancing party, at Lottsville, Washington county, Pa., burned up Christmas night.

The trial of Mrs. Wharton for the attempted poisoning of Eugene Van Ness, commenced at Annapolis on Monday in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel co.

At the Front Street Theatre, Baltimore, on Christmas day, Manager Wm. Sinn, formerly of Frederick, distributed 5,000 loaves of bread and 4,000 pounds of bacon to the poor.

The government has refused to allow the claim of Richard H. Garrett, of Maryland, for compensation for the loss of his barn, which was destroyed in the capture of the assassin, Wilkes Booth.

The colored man Craig, convicted of rape, will be hung at Cumberland, Md., to-morrow. Efforts were made to have his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life, but Judges Pearre and Motter refused to join in an appeal to the Governor to commute the sentence.

A colored man residing near Newtown, Md., intending to give his little boy a whipping, sent him to a switch.—The child did not return, and for some time his absence was not noticed. When his father went to look for him he found him lying beside the barn dead. He had remained out till he had frozen.

The President has signed the bill to reduce the expenses and offices of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which passed Congress a few days ago, and the work of putting the new law into practical operation will be commenced immediately.—This bill, it will be remembered, legislates all of the Assessors out of office by the 1st of July next.

The Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, took fire on the 1st, a short time after the conclusion of the performance, and in fifteen minutes after the entire structure was ablaze. In one hour the theatre was but a mass of ruins. It was valued at $200,000. The lessee, Mr. Augustin Dally, loses $150,000 upon which he had no insurance.

Edward S. Stokes, on second trial in New York for the murder of James Fisk, Jr., in January, 1872, by shooting at the Grand Central Hotel, on Saturday last was convicted of murder in the first degree. The trial lasted seventeen days. On Monday Stokes was sentenced to be hung on the 28th day of February. His counsel will doubtless endeavor to obtain a new trial and apply for a stay of proceedings.

There have been added to the population of this country by immigration last year 291,217 persons, whereof 115,415 were Germans, 63,095 Irish, and 111,805 of other nationalities. In former years the immigrants received from Ireland outnumbered those from any other country. The tide from that country seems to be checked, however, and a stronger one is setting in from Germany. Estimating the value to the country of these newcomers at $1,000 each, which is the valuation usually fixed, the United States are made $291,217,000 richer by one year's immigration.

On Thursday night, Mrs. Mary Ann Lamplay, aged about 72, was brutally murdered at her house on Mullikin St., Baltimore. The family were absent, and on the return of a son, about 9 o'clock, he found the alley gate locked, and the stable door in the rear open. Suspecting robbery, he sought assistance, and on entering the sitting-room found his mother a corpse on the floor. The poor woman was not bruised, and had evidently been choked to death. The house had been robbed of $1,000 in greenbacks, and $250 in silver. The husband was overcome with grief, and on his return attempted suicide.

President Grant has given an emphatic denial to the rumors set afloat by the Washington correspondent of some of the Northern Journals to the effect that important changes were to be made in the Cabinet. He told the agent of the Associated Press on Saturday that he was desirous that all the present Cabinet officers should remain, and that he knew of no one who contemplated retiring unless it be Mr. Boutwell, who is a candidate for the seat in the Senate made vacant by the election of Mr. Wilson to the Vice Presidency. He said that Mr. Fish had expressed a desire to resign at the end of the present term, but that he had solicited him to remain until the questions growing out of the Treaty of Washington were finally disposed of.

Six big birds banded together the other day and thrashed an Iowa schoolmaster so severely that he had to have a doctor.

The Fourth of July falls on Friday, this year.

LOCAL OPTION.—As some persons have a very imperfect understanding of the "local option law," we append the act as it passed at the last session, and which will be voted upon on the third Friday of next March:

AN ACT to permit the voters of this Commonwealth to vote every three years on the question of granting licenses to sell intoxicating liquors.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that on the third Friday in March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in every city and county in this Commonwealth, and at the annual municipal elections every third year thereafter, in every such city and county, it shall be the duty of the inspectors and judges of elections in the cities and counties, to receive tickets, either written or printed, from the legal voters of said cities and counties labeled on the outside "license," and on the inside "for license," or "against license," and to deposit said tickets in a box provided for that purpose by said inspectors and judges, as is required by law in the case of other tickets received at said election; and the tickets so received shall be counted, and a return of the same made to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the peace of the proper county, duly certified as is required by law; which certificate shall be laid before the judges of the said court at the first meeting of said court after said election shall be held and shall be filed with the other records of said court; and it shall be the duty of mayors of cities and sheriffs of counties, or of any other officer, whose duty it may be to perform such service, to give due notice of such special election above provided for, three weeks previous to the time of holding the same and also three weeks before such election every third year thereafter: Provided, That this act shall not be construed to repeal or affect any special law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, or prohibiting the granting of licenses: Provided, That when the municipal and township elections in any county or city do not occur on the third Friday in March, the election provided in this section shall be held on the day fixed for the municipal elections in said county: And further provided, That all licenses granted after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, shall cease, determine and become void on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, if the district for which they shall be granted determines against the granting of license; and the treasurer of the proper county shall then refund to the holder of such license the moneys so paid therefor, for which the said treasurer shall be entitled to credit in their accounts with the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. That in receiving and counting, and in making the returns of the votes cast, the inspectors and judges and clerks of said elections, shall be governed by laws of this commonwealth regulating general elections; and all the penalties of said election laws are hereby extended to, and shall apply to the voters, inspectors, judges and clerks, voting at and in attendance upon the elections held under the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. Whenever, by the returns of elections in any city or county aforesaid, it shall appear that there is a majority against license, it shall not be lawful for any court or board of license commissioners to issue any license for the sale of spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors, or any admixture thereof, in said city or county, at any time thereafter; until at an election as above provided a majority shall vote in favor of license: Provided, That nothing contained in the provisions of this act shall prevent the issuing of licenses to druggists for the sale of liquors for medicinal and manufacturing purposes: Provided, The citizens of the borough of Lebanon shall vote upon the question on the third Friday of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, on the same day and time when the townships of the county of Lebanon hold their spring elections.

APPROVED.—The twenty-seventh day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

JOHN W. GEARY

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh, delivered an opinion which in effect, declares that school directors have the right to enter upon improved property for school purposes. The school directors of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, have made several attempts to negotiate for a house and lot which adjoins the school property, but the owner refused to sell. The board, as a last resort, had viewers appointed and then took possession of it for school purposes. The case was brought in court of common pleas to recover the property and a verdict for the defendant rendered. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, which sustained the judgment of the lower court. This will be of value to any directors when they come to build needed school houses, should any obstinate property holder stand in the way.

Mrs. Lydia Sherman, who was convicted of the murder of her husband by poison in New Haven last spring, has made a confession of her guilt. She has been in jail all summer awaiting the meeting of the Supreme Court, from which she will receive her sentence. Her confession was made to the jailor a few days since. She says that she poisoned Sherman and his two children, as well as her first husband, struck, several years ago. She denies that she killed her second husband, Dennis Hurlbut. Sentence will be passed upon her this week, and her punishment will probably be imprisonment for life.

Mrs. Fliza Sellers, wife of the late Col. W. W. Sellers, has received the appointment of Post-mistress, at Pekin, Ill.

The Legislature convened at Harrisburg on Tuesday last.

Local Option Law in another column.

This being the week of prayer our churches are open nightly.

DISBANDED.—We regret to learn that the Waynesboro' Lodge of Good Templars has been disbanded.

We have heavy bank payments to make next month. Those largely indebted for advertising, etc. will please and not forget us.

CLOSED.—Last week Mr. A. D. Gordon suspended business and closed his Brew House. We understand the brewery is offered for rent.

The communication from our Temperanceville correspondent was received too late for this week's paper. It will appear in our next issue.

The Waynesboro' Infantry Company will meet this evening at the Town Hall for transaction of important business. A full attendance is requested.

Auction.—Geo. J. Balsley, Assignee of John C. Martin, announces a public auction of store goods at Tomstown, on Saturday the 18th inst., morning, afternoon and evening.

We tender those patrons who responded to our recent appeals for money the compliments of the season and our kind regards. May fortune smile upon them propitiously through the year that lies before them.

Messrs. L. S. Furney & Son have been actively engaged since the fire in replacing machinery in the engine house connected with their steam tannery, and are again operating as usual, although the building is yet minus a roof.

Sleighting continues, notwithstanding the rain during Sunday and Sunday night, but the roads are said to be very icy and rather rough for smooth running. A few inches more of snow is wanted to make the sport first-class.

We noticed the "rug peddler" in town last week. Every house-wife should have a husk rug for her outside door doors. They last for years and save much cleaning. Peter Keckler is the only one in this region who manufactures the article.

INSTALLATION.—The installation of officers of the Young Men's Christian Association will take place on Monday evening next at their room. At this meeting the officers will furnish reports for the past year. The public are invited to be present.

UNION PRAYER MEETINGS.—We understand the Union Prayer Meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association which are held every Sunday afternoon, are very generally attended. A surprising interest is manifested in these meetings. The Association is certainly doing a good work in our midst.

PERSONAL.—Our friend, Johnny Lantz of the "Union Hotel," Chambersburg, graced our sanctum for a short time on Tuesday. For down-right cleverness, Johnny has few equals among hotel men, and few, if any, afford their guests better accommodations. Don't forget the "Union" formerly the Fisher House, when you next visit our county seat.

APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED.—We are gratified to notice that our particular friend, A. H. Huber, Esq., has been confirmed by the U. S. Senate as Postmaster of Westminster, Md. for four years from 12th of December last. Mr. H. had filled the office for several years, and according to the Democratic Advocate, proved a popular and efficient officer.

HARRISBURG & POTOMAC RAILROAD.

The president of this road informs us, says the Railroad and Mining Register, that the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company have gone largely into ore all along the line of the road, having leased for 99 years the Carlisle Iron Works property, with its fine ore bed, and also purchased the Big Pond Furnace property and $6,000 acres of land for $200,000. The road from Dogwood Run west to Mount Holly Gap is ready for the ties and iron; twenty-seven miles in all have been already graded on the main line and on the Petersburg branch up the Dogwood into York county. The main line will run to Waynesboro', Franklin county, connecting there with the proposed Washington County railroad extension in Maryland, gaining access to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the Cumberland coal traffic. The branch road up Dogwood Run to Petersburg is to be extended twenty miles further to Littlestown, connecting there with the Frederick and Littlestown railroad, in Maryland.

The president claims that this route via Frederick shortens the distance from Harrisburg to Washington by fifteen miles.—The company have decided upon building their bridge across the Susquehanna a few miles below Harrisburg, between New Cumberland and Bridgeport. To Harrisburg especially the completion of the road is of great importance, as it traverses a region abounding in good iron ores, and a very early completion may be reasonably looked for. When the Reading Company, having before their eyes the devouring maws of their sixteen furnaces now building along their road, stretch forth their long, powerful arm and grasp the choicest iron properties on the line of the new road, it is fair to presume that their own interests will compel them to urge the work forward both by words and, if needed, deeds.

RECEIPTS.—The following is a list of our subscription receipts for December: Jacob Crouse, 7.15; John M. Bonbrake, 2.00; Jeremiah Hollinger, 6.50; Jacob Hollinger, 2.50; Aaron Small, 2.00; John Krimer, 2.00; Dr. John L. Blair, 4.00; Abram E. Price, 2.00; John Richardson, 2.00; Geo. Carbaugh, 4.80; Samuel Omwake, 3.00; Jacob S. Good, 2.00; Isaac Riddleberger, 2.00; W. R. Gaff, 1.00; Joseph F. Emmert, 2.00; Rev. A. Golly, 2.00; John Hess, Jr., 2.00; Isaac Shockey (of E.), 2.00; C. Harchelroad, 2.00; David Stoner, sen., 2.00; Geo. Heckman, 6.00; D. H. Garver, 6.00; John D. Frick, 6.00; David R. Fitz, 2.00; John Frantz, 2.00; Rev. M. S. Newcomer, 2.00; Benj. S. Gaff, 2.00; Samuel S. Wingert, 2.00; Daniel Mickley, sen., 2.00; S. S. Bowden, 2.00.

NEW BANK.—The parties interested in a new bank to be called "The Waynesboro' Bank," expect to receive their charter in a few days. We understand upward of $15,000 have already been subscribed. The shares are $50 each. Persons wishing to take stock can see the subscription paper, etc., at the office of the Waynesboro' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. The investment will no doubt be a safe and profitable one, and it is expected that all who have the funds to spare will aid in making up the necessary amount of stock. The charter calls for $50,000, with the privilege of increasing the amount to $150,000. As soon as the charter is received parties will be regularly selected to receive stock subscriptions, etc., of which notice will be given. The prospects of success are said to be very encouraging. It is argued by many that a new bank in our midst will prove rather an advantage than a disadvantage to the stockholders of the First National Bank, and certainly a convenience to business men generally. If this be true, there is no reason why it should not be encouraged.

POPULAR WORK.—Mr. John A. Geis, who has secured the agency and is engaged in taking subscribers to a new and popular work, entitled, "The Life of Jesus the Christ," from the pen of the renowned American divine, Henry Ward Beecher. The first volume makes a fine appearance being very handsomely illustrated with engravings. A cotemporary says it is one of the handsomest and most attractive publications ever issued in this country. Aside from the fascination of the text, to which Mr. Beecher has devoted the best and most careful work of his busy life, the maps and engravings are alone worth the price of the book. The publishers are Messrs. J. B. Ford & Co of New York.

BURSTED A BLOOD VESSEL.—The Mechanics town Clarion says: Mr. Simon Miller, a farmer residing on Friend's Creek, two miles north of Schillsville, near the Pennsylvania line, bursted a blood vessel in jumping out of a wagon, and died in a day or two afterwards. He leaves a wife and three or four children.

SUICIDE AT HAGERSTOWN.—A Hagerstown correspondent of the Balt. American under date of the 6th inst. says:

Our quiet town was thrown into a state of great excitement on Saturday morning by the announcement that one of our most respected and wealthy citizens, Judge Charles G. Lane, had committed suicide. He was found in the Garret of his house in a kneeling posture with a rope around his neck, which was attached to a beam overhead. Although he had gone up stairs but a few minutes before a member of his family went to look for him, life was extinct when the body was found. Mental aberration was no doubt the cause of the unhappy taking off. Some three or four years ago Judge Lane lost his wife. He remained a widower for two years, and then re-married. A few months after his second marriage a woman living in the State of Ohio brought suit against him for breach of promise, charging in her declaration that he had agreed to marry her, and failed so to do. This suit gave Judge Lane great annoyance, and weighed heavily upon his mind. The counsel for the plaintiff claimed that the plaintiff had a strong case, and that there would be no difficulty in proving the marriage engagement. Before the case came to trial it was compromised, the defendant agreeing to pay the plaintiff a large sum of money (some say $3,000). It is understood that the final negotiations were concluded a few days since and the money paid. The settlement was followed by the melancholy event above related. Judge Lane was a- bout sixty-five years of age. He was President Judge of the Orphans' Court for Washington County for two or three terms, and at the time of his death was President of the first National Bank of Hagerstown.

BEGIN TO SAVE.—The persons tell us (says the N. Y. Star) it is wise at the beginning of a new year to make good resolutions and keep them; they might also add it is a very easy thing to make money, but to save it is quite another matter.—People who are in the happy possession of a bank account, however, say that the road to wealth is as easy as the road to market. Savings bank officers show us what wonderful results accrue from small efforts upon the part of the working people of the country. They are becoming the real capitalists of the State. The total deposits in New York alone now aggregate nearly $300,000,000, owned by some 800,000 depositors. Now, at the commencement of the year is a good time to begin to save money. If you have a dollar to spare open a bank account, and we will vouch for it that when you have opened an account you will add to the first deposit and be on the road to wealth. It is wonderful how soon a large sum accumulates by regularly putting by a small amount; how independent that sum makes a man feel, had how valuable it proves when that inevitable "rainy day" arrives which dampens everybody's life, and renders "a dollar and two one's best friend." If you have not a bank account lose no time, but go at once and place your name upon the books of the thrifty.

GOOD MANNERS.—Young folks should be mannerly. How to be so; is the question? Many a good girl and boy feel that they can't behave themselves in the presence of company. They feel timid, bashful and self-distrustful the moment they are addressed or appear in company. There is but one way to get over this feeling and to acquire easy and graceful manners; that is, to do the best they can all time, at home, as well as abroad.—Good manners are not learned by arbitrary teaching so much as acquired by habit. They grow upon us by use. We must be courteous, agreeable, civil, kind, gentlemanly and womanly at home, and then it will become a kind of second nature to be so everywhere. A coarse, rough manner at home begets a habit of roughness which we cannot lay aside if we try when we go among strangers. The most agreeable people we have ever known in company are those who are perfectly agreeable at home. Home is the school for all good things, especially good manners.

A CURE FOR THE CHILLS.—A new cure for ague is given in a Terre Haute (Ind.) paper. The writer says to those afflicted with ague, crawl down stairs head-foremost. Laugh at the idea if you please, but do your crawling first; you can then afford to laugh. Just as the chill is coming on, start at the top of a long flight of stairs, and crawl down on your hands and feet, head-foremost. You never did harder work in your life, and when you arrive at the bottom, instead of shaking, you will find yourself puffing, red in the face and perspiring freely, from the strong exertions made in the effort to support yourself. Try it. It won't cost you near as much as quinine or patent medicines, and if it fails it will only do what they do every day. This remedy might suit the male sex.

The West furnishes another poisoning case. The family of Mr. Culp, residing in Decatur, Illinois, were taken ill immediately after eating breakfast. An investigation disclosed the fact that a small package of arsenic had been placed in the pump through which the water used for cooking purposes had been drawn. No one has died as yet, but seven persons are considered in a critical condition.
