THE LICENSE QUESTION We publish by request the following preamble and resolutions adopted by ministers of this place and visibility in reference to the license question :

WHEREAS, In view of the fact that the Legislature of Pennsylvania has enacted that on the third Friday of March, 1873, every voting district shall vote on the unestion of license or no license, and.

WHEREAS, We hold that this is a moral and religious question, or vital moment, without involving any political creed, and that it is the duty of every member of the church to give the subject serious consideration, and,

WHEREAS, We find the preamble and resolutions, unanimously adopted at a temperance meeting, held at Chambersburg, January 9th, by our ministerial brethten of said place, expresses fully our heartfelt conviction as to the duty devolving on us as ministers of the gospel and congregations of this town and vicinity, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we endorse every sentiment of said preamble and resolutions and recommined to our people to give the License Question their carnest and prayerful attention, and by their votes to protest against the granting of license to sell intoxicating beverages of any kind in Franklin county.

Resolved, 2. That each pastor preach a sermon to his peoply, bearing on the subject of temperance, before the third Friday of March, 1873.

Resolved, 3. That the action taken by us, together with the preamble and resulutions, as signed by the clergy of Chambersburg, with our names and the names of the officers of our congregations also subscribed thereto, be read from our pulpits, and published in the Village, Record and the Chambersburg papers. "WHEREAS, The Legislature has given the opportunity to vote on the question of licouse or no license in the counties and cities of this Commonwealth, on the third Friday of March, 1873, and "WHEREAB, We hold that no government WHEREAS, We hold that no government has a right to license, or in any way legal-ize a business so baneful in its influence and so injurious to the religious, social, indus trial and pecuniary interests of the people as the liquor traffic in all the past has shown itself to be, and WHEREAS, In a democratic government like outs the people are the ultimate source both of power and responsibility, and "WHEREAS, We have seen in this commu-nity the sad effects of the license system in destroying the brightest prospects, in urg-ing on our young men to the most startling ds of violence and crime, in casting the larkest shadows over our once joyous and happy homes, and in producing the most heart-rending exhibitions of poverty and want. Therefore, "Resolved, 1. That we. as Ministers of the Gospel and Pastors in our several churches, feel compelled to lift up our united voice against an evil so multiform and terrible in its effects. Fidelity to God. to our own souls. to sad and ruined families, and above all, to | payment of a patent right. That the said those whose only hope is in the removal of machine for which right was sold was enthe temptation, requires us to be outspoken and emphatic in our testimony. LOCAL OPTION.-The local option law, to be voted on in March, is prominent among the themes of discussion at present. The question is, will the voice of our county be for or against it? Disputants have but one elternative, and that is to apatient then, till the time arrives. SENTENCED.-Lewis Henninger, Wm-

Murray, Wm. Ferry and Scott McFadden were last week ried, convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary for burning a stable in Chambersburg. Henninger, Ferry and McFadden for two years and three months, and

Murray for eighteen months.

MORE SNOW - A snow storm prevail ed in this region from an early hour on Monday morning until late in the evening, without any intermission, making a bed at least a foot in depth. If a sudden thaw does not follow another fine season of sleighing may be anticipated. The roads are well broken, judging from the continuous ringing of bells during Tues-

For the "Village Record." The Brave Knight Appears. HEPSIDAM MOUNTAINS, January 25th, 1873

MR. EDITOR :- I send your readers good news from Hepsidam, for "as cold waters to a thirsty soul so is good news from a far country." Readers, this is a horrible place to which the Temperanceville Correspondent-and-the School Board have driven your "Dear" Backwood Grumbler. O correspondent, when shall 'my boy" be allowed to emerge from
