A CARD.

HAVING had the misfortune to lose my barn by burning in August, 1872, including grain, hay, farming implements, etc., I take this method of returning special thanks to kind neighbors and others who assisted me so liberally by contributions and other wise, in rebuilding, without which I would have been left in a helpless situation. May these acts of kindness and sympathy not fail of their reward.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin Co., Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Francis Hovis, A. D. 1871, 18th day of April, A. D. 1873. On motion of Joseph Douglas, deceased, J. B.
