A young man was recently fined at Hanover for cruelty to a dog, the fine and costs amounting to $18.71.

Ex-Gov. Orr, Minister to Russia, died suddenly at St. Petersburg, on the 26th ult.

The Altoona (Pa.) Tribune says 4900 houses will be erected in that city, this summer.

The Council of the town of Bath, W. Va., has fixed the liquor license in that town at $20 per quarter of three months.

The soil in Nebraska froze to the depth of eight feet. The potato bug was nine feet down, and now he is coming out gay and lively.

Jenny Dennis, a young married woman committed suicide Tuesday night at Harrisburg, Pa., by drowning herself in the canal.

After the general demonstration at Harrisburg on Decoration Day, Governor Hartshorn visited the grave of ex-Gov. Geary, and with head uncovered deposited a bouquet thereon.

At last accounts Gen. Davis' soldiers were still in hot pursuit of Captain Jack, the treacherous Modoc. He is reported to have but a few warriors left with him. The capture at an early day is not at all improbable.

A fire broke out in the city of Boston on Friday morning last, and before it could be arrested destroyed a large amount of property, estimated at over two millions dollars. During the conflagration five firemen were killed.

A correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph asserts, giving details, that a smoke-house was built in Eastern Pennsylvania in 1790; that during the past season, in repairing the building, a head of wheat was found embedded in the cap of the gable; that five of the grains thus found were planted, and four of them grew in bare ground, after having been embedded in mortar eighty-two years.

The horrible series of tragedies in Southeastern Kansas, with which the name of the Bender family is connected, seem to be on the point of being cleared up. A supposed accomplice of the murderers was arrested in Texas, but managed to commit suicide while being brought to Kansas by the officers. A man and a woman, who are supposed to be two of these notorious people, have been caught in Iowa, and there is said to be but little doubt of their identity.

George Francis Train is again at liberty. His counsel succeeded in persuading one jury that he was not insane. Then they proved before another jury that he was insane, and a verdict having been given accordingly, they immediately sued out a writ of habeas corpus to carry their client before another Judge, make up an issue, and prove that he is not insane. Mr. Train now threatens to sue for one million damages.

Thomas Shuman of Catawissa, was indicted for selling liquor without license. After his indictment he succeeded in compromising with the prosecutor. The Court refused to allow it and ordered the case to proceed to trial, setting forth that it was a crime against society, and no individual had a right to compromise the interest of the community. He was accordingly brought to trial, found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $60 and cost, and to be imprisoned in the county jail for ten days. It will cost him about two hundred dollars.

In 1866 when John A. Andrews was Governor of Massachusetts the Legislature passed an act increasing their pay and increasing the pay of the Governor from $3,900 to $5,000 a year. Governor Andrews heard of it and sent word to the salary grabbers who had the project in charge: "If you undertake to raise my salary, I will send back a veto within an hour. It is not in accordance with my ideas of honor to pass upon the question of my own compensation." And he was as good as his word. He did veto the bill, and returned it to the Legislature.

The trial of Levin Palmer, colored, indicted in Baltimore county on the 2d of January, 1871, joined with the colored man Pritchard, who was hanged at Towson, for committing a rape on a white girl named Mary Scoble, on the 3rd of August, 1870, was concluded on Wednesday by a verdict of guilty. It will be remembered that Palmer escaped from the Towson jail, and was not re-arrested until about two years afterwards. In the meantime Pritchard was tried, convicted and executed.

The arbitrators in the case of Geo. Grubbs, against the corporation of Hagerstown, Washington county, for damages sustained by a mob during the late war, have rendered a judgment for $1,000 against the town.

The Augusta, Ky., Chronicle gives the following warning: "Delinquent subscribers should not permit their daughters to wear this paper for a while. There being so much due on it there is danger of their taking cold."

THE CAVE AT DELAWARE GAP.—Two or three years ago a Mr. Frear bought 100 acres of land on the Kittating mountain, near Delaware Gap. One day last summer Mr. Frear, while cutting wood on the mountain, discovered near the base a well ten or twelve feet high laid up against a perpendicular precipice of apparently solid rock. He took down a portion of the wall, and came to an opening in the rock large enough to permit the passage of his body. The instant the opening was uncovered a strong current of air escaped. It was so cold that Mr. Frear was in a very short time chilled through and through.

De ernined to explore this singular cavern, Mr. Frear entered the opening. He found himself in a large chamber, the walls being of rough and jagged rocks. The cold was so intense that he could not explore the cave further than fifty feet. Since then no person has penetrated further than sixty feet under the mountain. The draft of air is so strong at the mouth that trees thirty yards distant are kept in constant motion. One can stand but a few minutes in the mouth. A thermometer standing at ninety degrees above zero will fall to thirty in the current.

A piece of pure lead, a gun barrel, and a collection of bones were found by Mr. Frear in the cavern. He threw the bones in the river before ascertaining whether they were human remains or not.

A dog accompanied him on his first exploring tour. The dog jogged on into the cave. Since then it has never been seen.

Hundreds of people have visited this remarkable cavern, and witnessed the mysterious phenomenon of the cold current of air. No satisfactory explanation has as yet been given as to the cause. There are a number of crevices in the rocks near the opening from which the cold air also issues.

Mr. Frear erected a temporary platform in front of the cave. A person standing on this five minutes would experience a sensation of almost complete numbness. It was the owners intention to excavate a passage way and erect a building over it for the accommodation of inquiring visitors. He was killed on the railroad, however, before his project was carried out. The cave is considered one of the greatest curiosities of the world.

A PAUPER HEIR TO A LARGE FORTUNE.—Samuel Miller, thirty-five years ago, was a dull-witted, harmless man, floating about Easton, Pa. He lived on the charity of the people, although he had wealth relatives in New Jersey. He could not be induced to remain with them. Finally his condition became worse and worse, he was placed in the county poorhouse in 1848, being one of the first inmates. He occupies the small room to-day that he did then. He is now over fifty years old, and as simple-minded and innocent as a child of three. A few days since a great change came over his fortunes. An uncle of his, very wealthy, died in Washington county, N. J. Letters have been received by the authorities of the almshouse making inquiry as to whether there was such a person as Samuel Miller in their charge. His infirmities were described. There is no doubt of his identity.

The bulk of the deceased uncle's fortune amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, is left to Samuel. He is unable, however, to form any idea of the great change. He will not leave the poorhouse although far beyond the need of its care. As the county has supported him for thirty years, it may be that the matter will be so arranged that out of the inheritances it will be reimbursed, and that the now wealthy imbecile be paid until he dies, when the residue will revert to the other heirs.

Already the Postal Cards are being used by unscrupulous persons for the purpose of gratifying malicious and disgraceful impulses. Such an abuse of an excellent convenience was to have been expected. There are always in a community some persons who will avail themselves of any opportunity to wreak their spite upon others, so long as there are no disagreeable consequences in prospect for themselves. The postal cards do offer a tempting chance to such people to send insulting, scurrilous, and indecent messages. But the abuse is easy of remedy, and the postal authorities have availed themselves of the means lying ready to their hand. A notice has been promulgated stating that no card containing a scurrilous or obscene communication will be transmitted through the mails, but at once destroyed in the mailing office. When once it comes to be distinctly understood that there is no chance of such communications reaching their destination, people will discontinue sending them, and devote their cards to more legitimate uses. Meanwhile the new institution has conferred great advantages upon the business community, and will be more and more highly appreciated as its objects come to be more generally recognized.—Ex.

The yearly meeting of the Tunkers, at which delegates are expected to be present from all branches of that church in the United States, will be held at Dale City, Sumner Co., Pa., June 1st to 6th. The people of Dale City estimate that there will be an attendance of perhaps 20,000 persons, if the weather proves at all favorable.

There are 580 patent churns in this country.

Y. M. C. A.—The Young Men's Christian Association of this place will hold a meeting at Tomstown on Sunday afternoon next.

We understand a similar Association is about to be organized at Rouzerville, near this place.

CRACKERS.—Our neighbor Reid the other day presented us with a package of choice crackers. He keeps all the different varieties, fresh from the celebrated Tyler Factory, in Baltimore. The very thing for family use, fishing, picnic or other parties. Give him a call.

DUST.—Main Street at present is sadly in want of cleaning. During the past few windy days the dust has been almost blinding at times. Citizens should take advantage of the first rain fall and give it a thorough cleansing, but not fail as has been the case heretofore to have the dirt promptly removed when gathered to gether.

The Cholera has made its appearance at New Orleans and a number of deaths are reported. The season upon which we have entered may prove a sickly one, and every precaution should be taken to guard against diseases from local causes. Clean houses, cellars and surroundings, and a free use of air-slacked lime are important safeguards.

PAYING UP.—A few of many patrons largely in arrears settled their accounts during the past week. We trust others may be as considerate, and thus greatly relieve us financially. We advise those at a distance in making remittances to enclose checks or P. O. orders. One subscriber in the State of New York claims credit for a five dollar greenback which failed to reach us.

THE CORN.—Some of the farmers in our neighborhood have had to re-furrow and plant their corn fields. It seems they were too hasty in seeding the ground and it rotted in consequence. It is said too that the grub-worm is playing havoc with the later planting which presented a promising appearance until quite recently.—Should the crop prove a failure the coming season there is this consolation left, there is nearly an average crop of old yet on hand.

CONTRACTED FOR.—The Waynesboro Manufacturing Company last week entered into a contract for the manufacture of 12,500 of "The Little Giant Pruning Shears," patented January 30, 1872, by Thos. Campbell, of Palestine, Ohio. The price agreed upon per pair we learn is $2.00. It has a powerful leverage and surpasses anything in the pruning line that has yet come under our notice. With it single trees, spikes etc. are severed with comparative ease. A. Burson, agent, can be addressed at this place.

UNFOUNDED REPORT.—The death of the Rev. W. N. Geddes, formerly Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place, was a couple of weeks since reported here, and very generally believed, from the fact that the information came through an intimate friend of Mr. G. It appears a brother of the Rev. gentleman died some six or eight months ago, and doubtless this circumstance gave rise to the report. At last accounts he was in the enjoyment of his usual health.

The Shippensburg News says: "On Friday of last week, Messrs. Ahl, of Newville purchased from Messrs. Brindle and Webber, a tract of land containing 700 acres. This land is located in the South Mountain in Monroe township, this County, and is said to contain a large quantity of valuable iron ore."

Receipts.—The following is our May list of subscription receipts:

AGED CITIZEN NO MORE.—The past has truthfully been a fruitful season for the death messenger among the aged citizens of our county. We are now called upon to chronicle the death of Mr. Michael Lesher, of Guilford township, which took place at his home on the Waynesboro road, on Sunday the 25th ult., after a brief illness. His funeral took place on Wednesday last, and was attended by an immense concourse of friends. There were 105 carriages in the funeral procession (which was over one mile in length) and the attendance awaiting the remains at the Memorial church, was large—showing the high regard in which the deceased was held by the community. He was aged 74 years, 9 months and 25 days. A brother (John Lesher, of near Marion) survives him, who is now in his 88th year.—Opinion.

SAFE TEST FOR COAL OIL.—An exchange says: The most effective way to stop the sale of dangerous oils and burning fluids which are so destructive to life and property is to educate the people.—The test is so simple that it is in the power of everyone. It has often been published, yet there are thousands of people who have not heard it. You will benefit the people by repeating it often. The test is as follows: Pour a small quantity of oil out upon a saucer or tin plate; apply a lighted match; if it ignites immediately or even before the fire touches it, let the oil be returned to the vender as unsafe. Good safe oil will not flash, but burn slowly when the lighted match is dropped into it, and the fire is extinguished as soon as the match is removed. If the people will subject their oil to this test and use only that which stand it, accidents will be rare.

TALL RYE.—Mr. Samuel Lefever sent to this office one day this week a bunch of rye, the longest stalk of which measured seven feet. The heads were full and healthy looking. It was grown on Mr. D's farm on the Conococheague, managed by Mr. John T. Halback, who stands in the front rank of farmers in this county.—Williamsport (Md.) Pilot.

On the farm of Mr. John Harbaugh, Jr., near this place, now in the occupancy of Mr. George Duffy, (a model farmer) can be seen plenty of rye eight feet in height.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for the erection of a new Odd Fellows' Hall in this place was on Tuesday evening last awarded to the Waynesboro Manufacturing Company for the sum of $4,849.85. In addition to this sum the Company gets the material of the present Hall. We understand the work of removing the old building will be commenced next week.

P. S. Since the above was in type the several bids for the contract were handed us for publication, which are as follows: F. Keagy, $6,200; Waynesboro Manufacturing Company, $4,849.85; W. F. Horner, $5,580; A. M. Good, $5,800.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.—The ticket nominated by the Republican County Convention on Tuesday is as follows: For the Assembly, Wm. A. Mackey; Treasurer, Jeremiah Cook; Commissioner, Hesehiah Keefer; Director of the Poor, Amos Stouffer; Auditor, Col. Jas. Dixon; Jury Commissioner, Gustavus Etter; Coroner, Dr. Critzman.

On Monday morning a week Mr. Jacob Sprecher, a farmer living near Hagerstown, Washington county, aged 65 years, started from home in his buggy to go to Fairview. On the way his horse became frightened and ran off. Mr. Sprecher attempted to jump from the buggy, but was caught between the wheels and thrown violently to the ground, receiving injuries that caused his death 12 hours after.

The Ladies' Fair for the benefit of the Protestant Episcopal Church was opened at Smithsburg, Md., on Monday evening last. The ladies of that place are noted for style and taste in getting up such entertainments, and we have no doubt on this occasion they will be liberally patronized. The Fair will be continued for some time, perhaps a couple of weeks.

—Decoration Day was very generally celebrated according to the accounts published in our exchanges.

Mr. H. Good has two McCormick Reapers for sale. See advt.

A STUPENDOUS SCHEME.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Sun pretends to have unearthed one of the largest schemes attempted since the days of Aaron Burr. He says: Important movements are on foot in this country and Europe looking to the establishment of a magnificent empire in the north and west of Mexico. A number of the greatest capitalists in the world have for some time been negotiating with the Mexican authorities either for the absolute cession of the States of Chihuahua, Sonora and Lower California, or for the granting of extraordinary privileges. The active spirits in this great enterprise are, of course, Americans, and the central genius of the combination is Col. Thos. A. Scott, the railroad king of the world. It will doubtless be remembered that several years since a company of politicians and capitalists obtained very extraordinary privileges from the Mexican government in Lower California, and that considerable exertions were made to induce emigration to that country. Some of the principle men engaged in that scheme were Gen. B. F. Butler, S. L. M. Barlow, Col. Thos. A. Scott, Col. John W. Forney, and a number of others equally prominent.

Dispatches from Iowa give fuller details of the terrible cyclone of Thursday the 22d ult. The fright of the people rendered them unable to give a satisfactory account of the tornado. Dead horses, cattle and hogs are visible on all sides, and chickens were found stripped of their feathers. On the farm of John Cunningham three hundred head of stock were killed outright. His family went into the cellar at the approach of the storm, but were lifted out and thrown on the ground by the wind. Mr. Davis, on the next farm, was killed, his clothing all being torn from his person. The stumps of trees over which the storm passed have the appearance of being sawed off clean and smooth. The daughter of Henry Rathmal was carried a quarter of a mile where her mangled body was found almost nude. Mrs. Walters was instantly killed near the schoolhouse. She had twin babies in her arms, one being instantly killed, while the other escaped unhurt.—A man named Baker, driving a team of mules, saw the storm approaching and took refuge under a hedge, whence man, wagon and team were taken up and carried a quarter of a mile into the fields.—Baker escaped unharmed.

A flock of 150 sheep huddled together were taken up by the storm, carried half a mile, and when they struck the earth all but forty were torn to fragments and scattered along the cyclone. The loss of property is estimated at $100,000.

WESTERN CROPS.—The papers of the great grain-growing districts of the West continue to report that the spring has been most favorable for the putting in of wheat and that a greatly increased breadth has been planted. The crop will probably be a very heavy one. The plants are remarkably thrifty, and the principal danger seems to be that they will grow too rank, so that much will "chodge" and be injured or destroyed by wet weather about harvest time. It is altogether certain now that the export demand for American wheat will be very heavy during the coming year. Farmers, therefore, need entertain no apprehension of a dull market.—Their wheat will be wanted at good prices. The chief trouble will arise from insufficient means of transportation.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, which had been in session in Baltimore since May 16th, adjourned on Wednesday a week. Their session was marked throughout by close attention to business before the body. It seemed to be the object to establish more cordial relations with, if not reunite, the separate branches of the Presbyterian Church, and to this end committees on conference were appointed. The Assembly decided that it was expedient for the Church as an organization, to be represented at Philadelphia in 1876, on the occasion of the celebration of American independence. During the session members of the body, individually and for their churches, pledged seventy-five thousand dollars toward liquidating a debt of one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars that now stands against the board of foreign missions.

PARSONS, May 31.—County Attorney Ward returned yesterday from Texas with the body of Nicholas Mouin or Marion, supposed to have been an accomplice of the Bender family the Kansas assassins. At Denison he made some important confessions, and promised to tell all he knew about the Benders when he reached this city, but when near Atoka Station, Indian Territory, he shot himself in the head with a revolver, inflicting a wound from which he died. It seems to be certain that the Benders are now in Texas, making their way to the Rio Grande river, to cross into Mexico.

Gov. White has signed the death warrants of Albert Saunders, colored, convicted in Calvert county of the murder of Eugene A. Purdell, also that of Thomas Jackson, convicted in St. Mary's county, of the murder of James Schofield—fixed the day of execution in both cases on the 17th of July.

THE MODOC SURRENDER.

LANGELLES VALLEY, LOST RIVER CO., GREEN CAMP, May 31.—Evening. Via San Francisco, June 2.) After a thorough examination of the captives gathered in during the present scout, under Colonel Green, it has been ascertained that the last haul netted 24 men, women and children, 13 being able bodied warriors, 16 rifles of various patterns, 113 cartridges and several lean and hungry ponies.

Boston Charley and Schonchin are anxious about the disposition to be made of them. The former murdered Dr. Thomas and the latter mutilated Meacham.—Boston and Schonchin look like desperate characters. Each carries his character in his face. Boston is about 28 years and Schonchin 50. The boldest warrior of the band is Bear-Faced Charley.

Dr. Cabaness, of Yreka, the contract surgeon, who slept in their retreat last night, says Captain Jack presented a woe-begone appearance. The wily warrior sat upon a rock in the centre of a little lava bed, a few feet from the crest of a bluff, and seemed as lonely as his surroundings. He was wrapped in a faded army blanket, his head buried in his hands.

His sister Mary, captured at Willow Creek the day before yesterday, talked to him with tears in her eyes, and asked that he enter the camp. He was sullen and had little to say. He did promise to surrender to-day. In the night he stole away.

The Modocs say Jack is insane. There is much method in his madness. At present he is thought to be in the neighborhood, with three to five warriors. There are twelve Modocs at large now.

SURRENDER OF CAPT. JACK. APPLAGATE'S HOUSE, CLEAR LAKE, CALIFORNIA, June 1.—3:30 P. M.—A series of prolonged cheers and yells aroused this camp from a pleasant siesta a half hour after the departure of my last courier. Generals Davis and Wheaton and other officers, and all the men rushed from the house and tents to find the cause of the uproar, and all at once the whole camp was in commotion. Down the level plain north of the house was a grand cavalcade of mounted horsemen. Steeds rushed forward at once at a furious rate and soon neared the groups of spectators scattered about the premises. "Captain Jack captured!" shouted a sturdy Sergeant.

Again the valley echoed with cheers and yells. The mounted command was Perry's. He had returned from a scout of twenty-three hours, three miles above the mouth of Willow Creek. At half-past 10 o'clock this morning the Warm Spring scouts struck the trail, and after a brief search the Modocs were discovered. Col. Hild men were bound to fight. Suddenly a Modoc shot from the rocks with a white flag. He met a Warm Spring scout and said Jack wanted to surrender. Three scouts were sent to meet Jack. He came out cautiously glanced about a moment and then, as if giving up all hope, came forward and held out his hand to his visitors. They two of his warriors, five squaws and seven children darted forth and joined him in surrender.

The command that made this famous scout was the First Squadron of the First Cavalry, Colonel D. Perry, composed of Troop F, Lieutenant Miller, and Troop H, Major Frumbull, and Medical Officer, Assistant Surgeon De Witt. The guides were C. Pillman and H. A. Applagate. Captain Jack is about 40 years old, five feet eight inches high and completely built. He has a large and well formed face, full of individuality. Although dressed in old clothes, he looks every inch a chief. He does not speak to any one.

The Modocs are grouped in a field near the house and surrounded by a guard.—Spectators peer into Jack's face with eager interest, but he heeds them not; he is still as a statue.

A man was lately arrested in Iowa, who is supposed to be one of the Benders, a party to the Kansas butchery. At last accounts he was awaiting identification a photograph of the prisoner having been forwarded to Kansas for that purpose. The Benders have been traced to the Southern part of Iowa where all traces of them were lost.

COUGHS AND COLDS.—There are few persons aware of the importance of attending to a cough or cold at its first appearance. The thousands who die annually of consumption, were first attacked with a "slight" cough or cold, which they thought would soon "wear" itself off, and therefore neglected to use the proper remedies until they became incurable.

Every day that a cough, cold or any lung disease is neglected, makes the chances of a cure more uncertain. We would recommend all suffering from disease of the Lungs whatever to use HASSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR. It never fails in curing the worst cases of coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, catarrh and asthma. It is an infallible remedy for Hooping Cough. Being prescribed by some of the leading physicians in the Northern and Southern States and being prepared under the immediate supervision of a graduate of the Pennsylvania Medical College. The proprietors beg leave to inform all that it is no "quack" preparation, but made strictly in accordance with the advanced principles and theory of medicine.
