

Waynesboro' Village Record.

Thursday, Nov. 6, 1873.

The King of Ashantee has three hundred and thirty-three wives. And yet he is not happy.

A negro man was arrested in Baltimore last week on the charge of stealing a cooking stove. The stove was not hot.

Stewart, the defaulting postmaster of Pittsburg, Pa., has had two more indictments found against him, one for perjury and one for forgery.

On the 21st ult., a student was expelled from Lafayette college, Easton, for stealing. He had a regular jury trial before his classmates, which lasted three hours.

A lady with five children, just arrived from Germany, reached Williamsport a few days ago to join her husband. She was pained to hear that he had died last winter.

Sarah Harding, colored, aged 98, and the mother of twenty children, has been sent to the Berks county poor house, her son, a local preacher, refused longer to support her.

It is estimated that there are at least twenty thousand working girls out of employment in New York at the present time as one of the results of the depression of all kinds of business.

On the 24th inst., a little girl at New Castle, Schuylkill county, was drowned in a beer keg filled with water, having fallen head foremost into it in the absence of her mother.

The German government on Friday last made a further subscription to the U. S. five per cent loan, amounting to $3,000,000. This is the third subscription by that government aggregating over $10,000,000.

The Emperor of Prussia has presented 2,500 pounds of cannon captured in the late Franco German war to the German Lutheran Church of Baltimore, from which to cast a set of bells for their church.

Robert Sixbury died on the 23d instant in the town of Leary, Jefferson county, N. Y., at the age of 110 years and 7 months. Mr. Sixbury had acquired a great reputation as a hunter in northern New York, where he had slain over 2,200 deer.

George Yocum, aged 36, a lawyer of Bellefonte, Pa., accidentally shot himself last Monday while out hunting, and died of his wound on the following morning. He was the choice of the Republicans of his county for Congress last fall.

The third trial of Edward S. Stokes was concluded at New York Wednesday of last week, with a verdict of "guilty of manslaughter in the third degree," and he was sentenced to four years hard labor in the penitentiary. He ought to have been hung. No trial ever occurred in the United States in which there was such a chain of organized perjury.

Last spring a family named Shaw, of Washington county, New York, were taken suddenly ill, and poison was suspected. The mother and several of the children died, and one of the latter who recovered is almost an idiot. The evidence was strong against the husband and father, and he was arrested. His trial has ended with a verdict of murder in the first degree.

The man Lear, who committed a rape on the person of a little girl seven years old at Cumberland, Md., a few weeks ago, was tried and convicted on all the counts in the indictment. Instead of receiving the death sentence however, the Court took into consideration some mitigating circumstances, intoxication being one of them, and sentenced him to the penitentiary for twenty-one years, the full limit of the law.

SPRICE PAYMENTS.—The Secretary of the Treasury has issued his orders to the Sub-Treasurers of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore to pay out silver in small amounts, not exceeding five dollars on any draft, and not at all in exchange for currency. The Mint at Philadelphia has been ordered to put its full force upon the coinage of half and quarter dollars and dimes. The First National Bank, of Chicago, is also paying out silver at par on the checks of its depositors.

Mr. George C. Smith, a member of the city council of Altoona, Pa., and the head and front of the Enterprise Trading Company, appeared at the county jail one evening last week, and requested the Sheriff to confine him in one of the cells, telling him that he had committed forgery to the extent of $13,000 on his father, father-in-law, and brother-in-law, and desired to be imprisoned. His request was complied with.

John McLaughlin, aged 30, was murdered on Monday a week while driving a team on a public road near Williamsport Pa. His cousin is suspected of the murder.

The women of Wetzel county, W. Virginia, have formed a Grange to prevent their husbands from visiting grass widows in that section.

ENCOURAGING.—The Baltimore American of Tuesday speaks thus encouragingly of the situation financially: "Abroad and at home the week opens with an improvement as regards finance, commerce, trade and manufactures. Our local situation is especially favorable, in view of the monetary stringency so generally prevalent. If trade is not so active as it might be under better auspices, it is at least certain that dealers are looking for an early removal of the restrictions now embarrassing business, and are not curtailing their operations to any considerable extent. All of the eighteen cotton mills in Maryland are running on full time, with an undiminished complement of hands, with the exception of the Laurel, and the demand for their goods is very little short of what it is usually at this season of the year. The jobbers speak encouragingly and have no idea of limiting business. The iron trade is unharmed; the mills of the Abbott Company, Trego & Thompson, and Coates Brothers are steadily at work, without any anticipation of shutting down. The banks continue to pay out money liberally for use in legitimate business, and the complaints against them come almost entirely from people who want currency to send away, and the banks are steady in their purpose of keeping money at home. There is yet no perceptible suffering among the working classes, and the fact that there is no unusual pressure either upon the Saving Banks or the Building Associations is evidence that they are not generally short of money. In New York the principal financial topics were in the meeting of the creditors of H. B. Claffin & Co., and the statements of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. It was found that the Claffin assets were nearly seven millions of dollars in advance of their liabilities, and the creditors at once granted an extension of four months for the settlements of accounts. The Chesapeake and Ohio Directors have resolved on an issue of twelve millions of seven per cent. twenty year bonds as the only measure possible for the salvation of the road. The feature of the Wall st. markets yesterday was the decline of Gold rate from 108 1/2 to 107 1/2, closing at 107 1/2, the lowest point reached since June, 1862. Money was in active demand throughout the day, and the rate for call loans ranged from 7 per cent. per annum to 1 per cent, closing at 1-16 @ and interest. The feeling at the close of the day was most cheering and hopeful.

THANKSGIVING.—Governor Hartranft has issued the following: Whereas, The President of the United States, by his proclamation, has appointed the twenty-seventh day of November next as a day of public thanksgiving. I do, therefore, recommend that the people of Pennsylvania, in accordance with said Proclamation, shall meet on said day, in their respective places of worship, to return thanks to Almighty God for the manifold mercies he has vouchsafed to us during the past year, and to implore a continuance of His favor, and to pray that the afflicted people of other of these United States may be delivered from the pestilence which is within their borders. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 30th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and of the Commonwealth the ninety eighth.

By the Governor: M. S. QUAY, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The trial of Udderzook for the murder of W. S. Goss has been in progress at West Chester for the past week. The Baltimore American says: "If the extraordinary chain of testimony now being developed in the Udderzook case has the same effect on the jury that it has upon those who read the daily reports of the trial, the poor man's fate is sealed. We do not think that his counsel will be able to set up any defence which will be able to break the force of the evidence which has already gone before the jury. The proof of the identity of A. C. Wilson and Winfield S. Goss seems to be cumulative. It is proven by so many witnesses, and so many circumstances, which are stronger than oral testimony, that we think that it would be best for the prisoner's counsel to admit this fact and to rest their whole case upon the absence of positive proof that Goss was killed by Udderzook. The testimony that has this far gone before the jury only goes to show that the deceased man named in the indictment is identical with the one who was murdered, and that the accused had a powerful motive for killing him.

As a part of the history of the scourge in Memphis, the fate of the inmates of a boarding house is given. The landlord is Joe Sanford, whose family consisted of a wife and two children. In his house were eighteen boarders. Of all these, there were only Joe Sanford and one boarder who survived; all the rest (twenty) died.

The official majority in the State for Mackey, for State Treasurer, is $25,352; for Gordon, for Judge of the Supreme Court, 14,294.

A Bellefonte mechanic has invented a machine by which he can make twenty horse shoes a minute.

The nights are longer than the days.

Local News.

Yesterday was one of Autumn's fairest days—a cloudless sky and balmy atmosphere.

We understand the Coroner's Jury in the Hess case will re-assemble at Quincy to-day.

The Democratic ticket in Washington county, Md., was elected on Tuesday.

The "stamps" for several long-standing adv'ts. are needed just now. If payment is much longer deferred a "personal" will be the result.

FARM FOR SALE.—We call special attention to the farm advertised for sale by Mr. Isaac Garver of Washington county, in to-day's paper.

BIG RADISH.—A radish measuring 2 1/2 feet round and weighing ten pounds, raised by Mr. Jacob E. Miller near this place can be seen at Reid's grocery. Who can beat it?

We are now in the midst of the delightful Indian Summer season. Its prolongation is much desired by farmers who have plenty of corn husking and other out-door work yet before them.

The Hagerstown Daily News. We have not seen a copy for a month. Has its career been cut short for want of patronage, or has the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., or somebody else, so much embarrassed the editors financially as to deprive us of an exchange?

LARGE TURNIPS.—Mr. Jacob Snowberger of this vicinity left at our office one day last week two turnips. The largest weighed seven pounds and measured 28 inches round; the other five pounds and measured 24 inches. These were the finest specimens yet brought to our notice.

TIME CHANGED.—The Omnibus now leaves for Greenacres at 7 o'clock in the morning instead of 6 o'clock as formerly. We are requested to state that passengers for Chambersburg or Hagerstown can make connection for either point without delay.

PARTRIDGE SHOOTING.—The law for the protection of partridges it is claimed expired with the last day of October. Owing to the severe winters for the past few years these birds are said to be scarce in this latitude, but the murderous sportsman is in pursuit of them notwithstanding.

The South Mountain in the vicinity of Waynesboro' Station on the W. M. R. R. was on fire on Monday last. We understand the fire in the evening had spread over a large body of timber land and that considerable damage had been sustained in the destruction of young timber, wood and rails. At last accounts the fire was still spreading.

SOLD.—Messrs. Russell and McGinley, Assignees of John H. Miller, on Saturday last sold the house and lot, eight and a half acres, on the Ringgold road, adjoining this Borough, for the sum of $1,175. Purchaser, Mr. L. S. Forney. The property we understand cost Mr. Miller about $3,000.

BRIGHTENING.—According to latest accounts the prospects financially and commercially are brightening. Many banks, stock companies, etc., that suspended since the advent of the "money-panic" within the past few weeks have resumed business and others are preparing for an early resumption. The prospects are that a few weeks will bring brighter skies to all classes of business men.

FOR SALE.—Mr. P. Geiser offers at private sale, in to-day's paper one of the most desirably located and conveniently arranged properties within our borough limits. It would be well for persons contemplating the selection of a pleasant homestead to examine this property and learn the terms upon which it is offered for sale.

HANDSOME PRESENT.—The clever host of Beautiful View Springs on the Mountain, Mr. V. B. Gilbert, surprised us one day last week with a present of three bushels of sweet potatoes. Such acts of generosity are of rare occurrence and are deserving of special note. We are certainly under many obligations to Mr. G. for so handsome and substantial a present, and trust his life may be long spared to share with his guests the hospitalities of his Mountain home.

On Friday evening (Hallow E'en) a cloud of noisy boys were mustered on our streets and for a couple hours seemed to have had undisputed sway of the town. In the morning the streets were strewn with corn which had been thrown against windows and doors, a principle feature of the evening performance. There are some customs time-honored which are very foolish and this we regard as one of them.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We notice the Lutheran congregation of this place have quite recently added a very important addition to their Parsonage, a new two-story brick building with porch above. This will doubtless prove a source of comfort and convenience to the worthy Pastor, Rev. C. L. Keedy, and family. The painter's brush on both buildings would still contribute much to the appearance of the Parsonage.

See advt. Miss Kate Stickel.

HALL OF DAHLGREN LODGE, No. 286, E. of P., Greenacres, Oct. 31, 1873.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Chancellor Commander of the Universe to remove from fraternal intercourse with this Lodge our beloved and esteemed brother, Wm. A. Johnston, who met his death at St. Joseph, Mo., by accident; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Johnston this Lodge loses a true and gallant knight, and his family a kind and generous husband and indulgent father.

Resolved, That while we deeply feel his loss, we sincerely sympathize with his bereaved family and friends in their sorrow and affliction, and with them turn for comfort to the blessed promises of the Savior.

Resolved, That this Lodge room be draped in mourning, and that the members wear the usual badge, for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the widow of our deceased brother, and the same be published in the Village Record of Waynesboro', and the Valley Echo, of Greenacres.

WORK SUSPENDED.—The Mechanicsburg Independent says it learns from good authority that work on the Harrisburg & Potomac railroad has been suspended, the contractors, Messrs. Rehill & M'Tague, having discharged all their hands. We do not understand the meaning of this movement and think it somewhat strange in view of the fact that the road is graded and much of the tract laid between Papertown and the Dillsburg crossing.—Newville Star.

On Saturday a week, Peter Hoffman, a lad about 14 years, son of Mr. Jacob Hoffman, of Gettysburg, went out gunning, accompanied by several others, all older than himself. Whilst in the act of crossing a fence, in the neighborhood of Round Top, the gun in the hands of one of the party, Herbert Allison, accidentally discharged, and the load entering the arm and abdomen of young Hoffman, proved frightful wounds, from which he died on Monday morning.

ADVERTISING.—The man who advertises, says the New York Reporter, shows not only a business talent above his neighbors, but he may at once be reckoned among the independent, generous and public-spirited of the community. He who hides his light under a bushel when such advantages as those at present afforded are so freely offered him does not deserve to succeed.

What a world of changes! Scarce have we indulged a pleasant thought, beheld a pleasing sight, or cherished a fond hope, ere it is gone. Friends and pleasant associations are formed at one place, but no sooner formed than severed. Such is life. Changing to change again until time for us is measured. To-day we meet, to-morrow we say farewell.

WILD TURKEYS.—The last Mercersburg Journal says that wild turkey are unusually plenty on the neighboring mountains the present season. Last week the Messrs. McAfee's of that place killed three, one of which weighed 19 pounds. We are also informed that Mr. J. Huston Clark, residing in the "corner," killed several very fine ones last week.

BREAK IN SEWING MACHINE PRICES.—Our readers will be interested to learn that the Florence Company have responded to the general call for lower prices for sewing machines, and will henceforth sell their well-known and superior machines at a reduction of from 30 to 40 per cent. from former prices.

Rev. Wm. T. Beatty, of Pittsburg, former pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place from 1860 to 1863, was in town, on Thursday last, and visited many of his former flock. He is tall, straight and handsome, wears a pair of "Burnsides," and looks exactly what he is—a man of mark.—Echo.

T. F. McCordell, Esq., editor of the Williamsport (Md.) Pilot, has been appointed to the editorship of the Cumberland Daily Times in place of Mr. Clara, an account of whose assassination we published last week.

The Governor of Maryland has issued the following proclamation, appointing Thursday, Nov. 27th, as Thanksgiving Day:

In obedience to custom, which has the sanction of Legislature enactment, I, WILLIAM PINKNEY WHYTE, Governor of Maryland, do hereby appoint and set apart THURSDAY, the 27th of November, 1873, to be observed by the people of this State as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Annapolis, this 24th day of October, 1873.

WM. PINKNEY WHYTE.

A car containing 200 sheep, standing on the New Jersey Central track at Claremont was set on fire by sparks from a passing locomotive, and before it was discovered was completely enveloped in flames. The bleating of the sheep attracted the attention of a gang of track hands in the vicinity, and they at once proceeded to demolish the sides of the car in order to allow the sheep to escape, and their efforts were so far successful that only ten of the animals were burned to death.

The fearful presence of a pestilence brings out the good and the bad in the nature of men. Some, stricken with deadly fear, haste away from the bedside of suffering friends, leaving them in their last hours, to the chance mercies of strangers; others haste as rapidly to the assistance and comfort of the afflicted one, offering to them and the world the assurance that on earth still abide devotion to duty and heroism worthy of the noblest of ancient martyrs. Of the latter class were four clergymen, who lost their lives in Memphis through visiting the sick in their infested homes, and Mattie Thompson, of Towanda, Illinois. The latter left home, went to Memphis, shrank from no danger, nursing the sick without pay, until death claimed her too, a martyr to her self-sacrificing devotion to humanity. A young Philadelphia lady went to Shreveport, to minister to the sick and dying, and when worn by her faithful and protracted vigils, she was taking a short walk to get a breath of fresh air, she fell into an open hatchway, injuring her spine, and died in a few hours.

THE STOKES VERDICT.—Judge Davis in passing sentence said: "In rendering this verdict, Stokes, the jury have exhausted and more than exhausted all the mercy in your case. No appeal to this Court can diminish the sentence from the highest penalty affixed by the statute in the degree in which you are convicted and that it is too light and apparently trifling as compared with the great crime you have committed.

"I do not desire to make any further remarks on this case, but shall impose upon you all that the law confers upon me the power to give, and I only regret that that sentence cannot be more adequate to the crime which rests upon your guilty head. The sentence is that you be imprisoned at the State's prison at Sing Sing at hard labor for four years."

Stokes was then surrounded and embraced by his male relatives and friends, and instantly hurried off to the Tombs. His female relatives were not present at the passing of the sentence.

On Sunday as the Rev. Mr. Garman, of the United Brethren Church in York, Pa., was conducting the services at the Union church at Yocumtown, York county, the sexton handed him a note.—After the sermon was completed the minister announced he had the pleasure of stating that a couple in the congregation desired to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and the candidates should therefore immediately present themselves. There was a considerable flutter in the assemblage—every eye staring around to see the happy couple. After some delay a fine and buoyant couple came marching up the aisle to the altar. The reverend gentlemen immediately proceeded with the ceremony, and the groom answered promptly "Yes, I will," but to the dismay and astonishment of the clergyman and audience, when it came to the bride's turn, she answered just as promptly, "No, I will not," and smilingly left the church all alone, leaving the half married man in a quandary what to do. "Such is life."

AN EXCEEDINGLY SAD CASE.—A very touching case of mental alienation in a charming young lady is described by a careful observer. Not long ago her mother found her in her room energetically darning stockings, and soon after she appeared in the kitchen and assisted that wondering dame in making and baking bread and pastry. Alarmed by these fearful signs of intellectual disorder, her fond parents immediately sent for a skillful physician, who watched her through a keyhole while she sewed buttons on her father's garments and mended those of her little brother. Much affected, the venerable man remarked that never during a medical practice of twenty-five years had he known any young person to manifest such symptoms as these. The most heart-rending phase of all, however, was shown the other day when her kind father, with a faint hope of rousing her from her sad state gave her $200 and told her to buy a new dress. Alas! 'twas useless. She instantly observed that she didn't need a new dress, and if he wouldn't let her keep $25 to pay a poor widow's rent she'd much rather he'd take the rest for himself. For a few moments that grief-stricken old gentleman gazed upon his hapless child, then hiding his face muttered between his lips, "Her mind is gone! Her mind is gone!"—N. Y. Tribune.

The low price of silver has brought a large amount of it into circulation in New York. Silver is given out as change at many bars and restaurants.

New York, October 27.—Five thousand persons are thrown out of employment by the suspension of the Harrisburg Cotton Mills in Cohoes. The payrolls of the mill foot up $80,000 monthly. It is said that the mill will be opened in two weeks.

The State debt of Virginia amounts to $37 for every individual within her borders.

A. T. Stewart will employ nobody that smokes or carries matches in his pocket.

A farm in Lancaster county which brought $19,000 a few years ago, was recently sold at $5,000.

The Purest and Sweetest Cod-Liver Oil is Hazard & Caswell's, made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others.—Physicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in market. nov 6-4w

PLEASURE—PAIN—JOY.

BY J. H. BARNES.

Bright in its happiness,
Twining the silver threads,
Whirling the giddy sense,
Straining the hearts suspense,
Sweet expectation.

Keen in its bitterness,
Losing the silver chord,
Breaking the golden bow,
Riving the inmost soul.
Harsh disappointment.

Sweet in its tenderness,
Soothing the canker wound,
Bathing the aching smart,
Healing the riven heart.
Bright happiness.

Pittsburg, October 19, 1873.

ON PLAYING CHECKERS.

Well! you see what I have done,
In spite of your skill, I have won,
I am sure you have tried your best,
But I'm the winner, oh how blest,
I have tried my best to win the game,
I have pried my skill 'twas all the same
I only found myself undone;
In the conquest I strove to run,
Yet still I pried my skill in hope,
Trusting "that something might turn up"
And if by luck I'd clear the board,
My confidence would be restored,
In hope and fear I still would try,
Trusting to luck, so by and by,
I vanished Mulligan you see,
For in four games I just won three,
I have beaten in the latest contest,
Did it, Babe, destroy your rest?
Sure if I've won 'twas dearly bought
Able thou the fight has fought.
