

DR. A. H. STRICKLER, (FORMERLY OF MERCERSBURG, PA.,)

OFFERS his Professional services to the citizens of Waynesboro' and vicinity. DR. STRICKLER has relinquished an extensive practice at Mercersburg, where he has been prominently engaged for a number of years in the practice of his profession. He has opened an Office in Waynesboro', at the residence of George Besore, Esq., in Father-in-law, where he can be found at al times when not professionally engaged. July 20, 1871.-tf.

J. H. FORNEY & CO. Produce Commission Merchants No. 77 NORTH STREET.

A rich banker named Sanderland enoved for a long time the favor of the cries the unfortunate. No such thing; Empress Catharine II of Russia, but one it is simply the legitimate consequence of affix "eis," making it "Tribes of Men." day he suddenly saw his house surroundnegligence. Pay particular attention to the sale of ed by an armed force, led by a commissary of the police, who demanded to speak tory. "Lucky fellow," cries the world .with him. "My dear sir," said he to the frightened shrewd and economical, but they never banker, "it grieves me deeply to have re- grow rich, while others, like Midas of old, ceived orders from our gracions sovereign convert everything they touch into gold. to execute towards you a severity beyond This all seems luck, and for want of a anything I have ever yet seen. I know more appropriate term, let us so cosidercommitted, to excite such extremity of But is it well to place dependence upnot what extraordinary offence you have er it. anger in her majesty as to induce her to on this Janus-faced agent that controls.

shed?

resurrection?

Miscellaucous Reading.

TO BE SKINNED ALIVE.

A RUSSIAN ANECDOTE.

are dead?

A man draws a prize of half a million in a lottery, and, of course, is generally regarded as a lucky man; but, after all, Shall the dark buried past find no bright can his success be attributed to any special seen or hidden agency? He may have Shall etornity bring back the days that made ventures of a similar character hundreds of times, and always with failure River." as a result; and he might go on and make hundreds of more similar adventures without winning a second half-million prize. A man fails to renew his insurance. and an hour after its expiration his property is destroyed by fire. "Bad luck,"

The river with the big bend." Kentucky-an Indian name-"Kaintuck-ee," signifying "At the head of the river.' Ohio-Shawnes name for "Beautiful Michigan's name was derived from the lake, the Indian name for a fish weir or trap, which the shape of the lake sug-

Indiana's name is derived from that of the Indians.

recovered from his fright and desired to redeposit his funds, the cashier responded quickly and came forward to the counter. Well, sir, what is the matter now?" "Vell, you see, ven I hear about dis dings mit der panks I was in Shecago, und I must gum righd avay queek here und I dhinks dot it vill be all righd ven you bay mine leedle expenses down here und pack home und---

"Pay your expenses!" broke in the have any accidents." "I certainly hope we will not," responded the passenger, cashier. "Pay your expenses! Well, with a slight feeling of uneasiness. "Well, that is an idea to be sure. See here, my I don't know as it would make much Illinois' name is derived from the In. | friend, how many brass bands do you supdifference to you," said the conductor, dian word "Illinois" men, and the French pose could be supplied with instruments cheerfully. "You'll die anyhow if you're goin' to Memphis."-Nashville Union and from that cheek of yours, and then have ever since Friday to pick the hairs out on the panic has so far abated as to permit an Essex street man to return to ten cent cigars, and he hopes in another month, if the brightness continues to increase, to get pledge, have ye?" said one Irishman to

"So he did ! But, then, my name is not Timothy, and there's nothing the matter other day in a queer way. He was fish-ing, and tumbled out of his boat, and being unable to swim, would have perished had not the maiden, discovering his danger, swam out to him, and throwing into his hands her back hair, four foot in who was undermining her constitution by keeping late hours, was told by her physician that she must retire early and rise early, if she wanted to recover her health. Following his advice, she discharges her young man every night at eleven o' clock. now, and rises in the morning at eight. Some sacrifice must be made, she says, when one's health is at stake.

the conductor, with a yawn. "Very," was the reply. "Last time I went over this road this car we're in now was upset, and a man killed all to smash," said the THOUGHT.-Thought is the electricity of the brain. It shoots to the remotest pecommunicative ticket puncher, with ariod of history, and touches the first link nother yawn. Then he added : "I've got of life. It passes through the elements of the most reckless engineer on the road fire, air, earth and water' it penetrates to, with me to-night, but I hope we won't the depths of knowledge and rises to the gates of heaven. Thought is an infinitesi." mal ray of the Deity, bestowed on hu. manity. It returns to Him from a corruptible to a spiritual existence. «Cultivate it, and you will be refined; neglect it and you will be debased.

BALTIMORE, MD. Flour, Grain, Seeds, &c. Liberal advances made on consignmente. may 29-tf

HORSE RAKES.

DERSONS wanting Spring-tooth Horse Rakes can be supplied with a first-class article by calling on the subscriber. He Article by caring on the subscriper. The continues to repair all kinds of machinery at short noticeand upon reasonable terms, The Metcalf excelsior Post Boring and Wood Sawing EcMhines always on hand. JOHN L. METCALF, Feb 27-+ Quincy, Pa.

FRANKLIN KEAGY, ARCHITECT AND BUILDER,

CHAMBERSBURG, PENNA. Designs, Plans, Elevations, Sections and Details of Private or Public Buildings, Bills of Quantities; Estimates of Costs; Drawings of Inventions for Applications of Patents, Ac. Charges moderate. may15-tf

J. H. WELSH WITH W. V. LIPPINCOTT & CO. WHOLESALE DEALERS IN Hats, Caps, Furs and Straw Goods, No. 531 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pa. april 3-tf

BARBERING ! BARBERING !

THE subscriber having recently re-paint-ted and papered and added new furni-ture to his shop, announces to his custom-ers and the public that he will leave nothing undone to give satisfaction and make comfortable all who may be pleased to favor him with their patronage. Shaving, Schampooning, Hair-cutting, etc. promptly attended to. A long experience in the bar-bering business enables him to promise sat-isfaction in all cases. W. A. PRICE, isfaction in all cases. sept 18-tf

THE BOWDEN HOUSE MAIN STREET. WAYNESBORO', PENN'A.

THE subscriber having leased this well-known H_tel property, announces to the public that he has refurnished, re-pain-ted and papered it, and is now amply pre-pared to accommodate the traveling public and others who may be pleased to favor him with their patronage. An attentive hostler will at all times be in attendance. May 23-tf SAM'L P. STONER.

COACHMAKING.

DERSONS in want of vehicles of any de-L scription, new or second-handed, can be supplied at the old "Waynesboro' Coach Factory" on Church street. The subscribin his line to call and examine his stock and learn his prices, which he feels warranted in saying will compare favorably with that of any other establishment in the county. REPAIRING of all kinds will receive prompt attention. Thankful to the public for past patronage

he solicits a continuation of the same in the future. JACOB ADAMS. future. april 10-tf

..

unnrecedented." "I do not understand a word of what ding the hands, "trust to luck ?" Rememyou are saying," answered the astonished | ber that where fortune thrusts itself once banker. "I am as much amazed as if upon a man who has not labored to win you had fallen from the clouds. What it, she ten thousand times over bestows are the orders you received?"

"I have not the courage to tell you; and yet I shall be compelled to execute | tew succeed who do not strive! The gods them. "Am I indeed so unfortunate as to have lost her majesty's confidence ?"

"Ah, if that were all, sir, you would not see me so disconsolate. You might you must battle with them. If a stream regain her confidence, and even her tavor, but—" "Then I am to be banished from Rus-"That would indeed be a sad misfortune, yet with your riches you could find a hospitable reception in any other country, but-" "Oh, heavens! is it possible that I am to be exiled to Siberia ?" "Even from there you might, sooner

r later, be recalled to Russia." "Perhaps then you are going to put me in prison ?"

sin?"

"I wish it were so, for then you might be liberated." "Am I, then, condemned to undergo the knout?" "The knout is a dreadful punishment.

o be sure, but not always fatal." "Then, oh ! then, you would lead me to death! tell me plainly ; this suspense is worse than death itself."

entire skin."

"To take off my skin !" exclaimed San-But gaining his self-possession, he added, "No, no-it cannot be; either lost hers. Is it possible you made no an-swer when you received such cruel or scientist thinks he obtained it in the ders?

dared to do. I did not conceal my grief and then manufactured into paper. It and surprise. I lingered in the imperial has answered so far every purpose, and a presence, and had actually begun an hum-ble remonstrance to her Majesty, when undeniable proof that the moon is inhabour gracious sovereign turning to look on ited by a queer race, that need neither palling words: "Go, and never forget habitants presented an appearance like that it is your indispensable duty to exe that of flies on a ceiling, so that nothing bles into, under a pretended friendship, which, she thinks, must make us smack own country, when a chap loser his daday our line. We thank her, and would be seen of them but the crowns of their heads.

commander, and he achieves a great vic-Some men are indefatigably industrious, command a punishmeut so horrible and as many believe, the destinies of men? It is well to sit down and complacently fol> her favors where they more rightfully belong. All who strive will not win; but > > help those who help themselves, allowing the "trusting-to-luck" class to work their way out of the mire as they best can. If you would triumph over obstacles interposes between you and your main object, and no convenient or agreeable means of crosssing it offers, you must plunge in, buffet its waves, and with stout strokes gain the desired point. If you are destined to be lucky, rest assured that your day of good fortune will not be retarded because you are honest, industrious and persevering.

Curiosities of the Moon.

The most powerful telescope presents

Such a picture presents all the minute details, and these can be magnified by a foot-steps as a merchant. I was proud of must supply, or art be able to furnish

Wisconsin's name is said to be the Dronze en make an equestrian dian for a wild, rushing channel. Missouri is also an Indian name for six-gun batteries of twelve-pound Napolmuddy, having reference to the muddi- | con howitzers were melted down to make ness of the Missouri river.

Kansas-the Indian name for smoky water.

The derivation of the names of Nebraska and Nevada is unknown. Iowa signifies, in the Indian language,

"The drowsy ones," and Minnesota "The Cloudy Waters." The origin of the name of California is unknown.

Danger of being a Rich Man's Son. The following story is said to be strictlv true:

Mr. P., a wealthy man, retired from business, was urged by a friend to engage in a merchantile scheme, from which large profits were apparent. "You are right," said he, "as regards the probable success of the scheme; but I shall not embark in

it. I have too much money already. He was asked to explain, and then remarked :

"Yes. I would not cross the street to gain thousands. I should be happy if ny income were less. I am old, and in a year or two whatever I posess will avail me naught. My daughters are dead, and I have three sons whom I dearly love .---My own education had been neglected; my fortune gained by honest labor and careful economy; I had no time for stu-dy, but I resolved that my sons should have every advantage. They each receivthe moon so far off that only the larger ed a classical education, and then I gave objects on its surface can be seen. But a photograph gives us here some assistance. would be a physician ; the second chose the law; the third resolved to follow my powerful microscope. The latter may my sons, and trusted one day to see them magnify many millions of times. Now, distinguished, or at least useful to their placing a minute section of such a moon fellowmen. I spared no expense in their photograph under such a microscope, training; they had never wanted money there appears no obstacle to our penetia- for I gave each a liberal allowance. Nevting all the mysteries of the moon, even | er had men fairer opportunities; but look "Know, then, that your most gracious down to the smallest rabbit that may in- at the result. The physician had no pa-Empress has given orders to take off your | habit it, were it not for the unfortunate | tients ; the lawyer no clients ; while the fact that the smoothest surface known to merchant-instead of following my exam-"To take off my skin!" exclaimed San-derland, seized with horror—"to flay me scope as to obliterate all photographic In vain I urge them to great diligence.— In vain I urge them to great diligence.impressions there may be on it. Nature | What is the response ? "There is no use, father-we shall never want money ; we you have lost your senses, Mr. Commission some surface that will remain smooth un-sary, or your most benign mistress has der the microscope, and that material is instead of being useful and energetic memhers of society, my sous are mere idlers and men of vain display. Had they been "I did more than any other would have silk-like goss of the common milkweed, forced to struggle against difficulties to "I did more than any other would have reduced by a chemical solvent to a pulp, gain their professions, and were they even now dependent upon their own exertions for support, they would, in all probability, do credit to themselves and me."

There is a class of make-believe friends me, with a look and voice of anger, bade air nor water to preserve life. But, ow-me begone and perform her will. I still seem to hear these threatening and ap-taken when the moon was in full, the in-only place the handle in their hauds, or furnish a leaky bucket, to pour your troustatue of Jim Fisk? About how many that cheek, anyhow?" The excited individual from Chicago eyed his interlocutor with the injured air of one who thinks he has been refused a very reasonable request, and then sadly preceded his coat tails out of that bank. He had got his money .- St. Louis Repablican.

Saturday Night.

What recollections cluster around the memory as Saturday night. while the unceasing roll of time, again pays its weekly visit. The weary labor of the week over, the tired mortal sits down and meditates upon the 'ups and downs' of the world and the vicissitudes incidental to this mundane sphere, while the wind in fitful guats finger's ends. brings down the Autumn colored leaves in thick profusion, and howls musicially around his habitation. Saturday night and the pattering rain drops sing a mournful requiem to the death of another week; Saturday night, and the heart of many a wandering bachelor turns with fevered longing for a home and fireside of his own Saturday night, and the wily lawyer shuts his book, lays aside his half finished brief; Saturday night, and the speculating mer-chant closes his ledger, locks the door of his massive iron safe; Saturday uight; and the brain racked printer quietly smokes his tobacco stained pipe as his thoughts run lazily-not gaily, not sadly-back to the memory of Saturdays gone in the long ago, of Saturdays yet to come; Saturday night, and all unitedly thank God that to morrow will come the rest of the holy, quiet Sabbath.

were necessary to constitute an engage. Dem fellers vat hangs around of dem lick-ment, but "the gleam of the eye and the er-gin mills, und drinken mixed trinks, they become frequent and protracted, which amount to a promise of marriage." The jury, always eager to do a thing which shall be gallant, gave Roxelena, the plain-tiff, $15,000 for the wear and tear of her lips and affections. A Lies firmed by the Court of Appeals. A Lies Moines, Iowa, paper says that "there is now only one way left for the young peo-ile to onlow the pleasures of kissing and how too pool dem boots of mit ein tood-how too pool dem boots of mit a jack and the unmarried girls to kiss the marri-ed men. We vote for the latter.

The veil of the future was woven by the gentlest of all hands -those of Mercy.

No one can default death. He may be get his own.

American.

COURTSHIP .- Very few of our young ady readers are conversant with the modus operandi by which a young man mav be 'entrapped' by their fascinating charms. We will here endeavor to give them our view of the manner in which it should be terrible vixen, who lived at a distance, done, and by the practice of which a lover may be caucht in 'love's silken net'. A death. With a hope of accomplishing a may be caught in 'love's silken net" A lover should be treated with the same gentleness as a new glove. The young lady after he received the reprieve, with the should pull him on with the utmost tenderness at first, only making the smallest advance at a time, till she gradually gains upon him and twistshim ultimately round | ent from your loving husband, till death her little finger; whereas, the young lady who is hasty and in too great a harry, will never get a lover to take her hand, but be left with nothing but her wits at her

DAY'S LENGTH.-The length of days

Hamburg the longest day has seventeen hours and the shortest seven. At Stockhours, and the shortest five and a half .- keeper. At St.* Petersburg, the longest has nineteen and the shortest five hours. At Finland the longest twenty-one hours and one half, and the shortest two and onehalf hours. At Wondorbus, in Norway, the day lasts from the 21st of May to the 2d of July, the sun not getting below the horizon for the whole time, but skimming along very close to it in the North. At months and a half.

DEMPERENCE LEKSHUR .- Don't look ers questioned him one day in regard to of dot lager when it bin red, when it vas his powers of memory. given poorty much goler in dot bier glass, "How far back in y und when he vas movin all rite; for of you remember, Jim?" A KISS IS A PROMISE.—The highest ju-her last he sting like von pumblebee, und "Ohi I can remember the day 1 was dicial tribunal of the State of New York bites like a newfountland bull dorg. No born," was his reply. "The day you was born!" excitatmed eyes" a dangerous business. In a recent gots fights ? Who got blue eyes and red "Why, Jim case Judge Neilson charged that no words noses ? Guess once, Vell, I told you.--- of that day ?"

conjunction of the lips are overtures, when like hot Thomas und Jeremiah, for in- stool in the corner of the fire place and they become frequent and protracted, stint, don't it? Uf you don't tought more von your seventeen vifes und one children und to getting drunk, it vas petter you gone dead, py gracious. Don't you bin ashamed mit yourself uf married men to kiss the married ladies, boot-don't you bin drunk den ? Ain't it ? I vas bin a little hoarse, so I don't could rite no more leckshur.

Who dreads to lager next ?

sent us a basket of fruit, the very sight of greatly prefer macking hers.

Some time ago an Irishman was convicted of a felony, and sentenced to death. On the day it was to be carried into effect he received a reprive, his innocence having, after his trial, been satisfactorily established. The fellow had a wife, final separation, he wrote to her the day following effect : Dear Mary-I was hanged yesterday and died like a man. No more at presdoes us part.

TRICKING A GATE-KEEPER .-- A minstrel, riding a pumpkin colored sorrel, perpetrated a heavy sell on a toll gate keeper one day. He rode up unobserved and turned his horse's face about. directin the north of Europe is as follows: At | ly opposite the direction he wanted to go, called to the toll keeper, who by this time had come out, "What is the toll ?" holm, the longest has eighteen and a half ... "Twenty cents," replied the toll gate

"Too high," replied the solitary horseman ; "cant pay it. Guess I'll go back." He turned his horse about and proceeded in precisely the direction he wanted to, go, the toll-keeper never dreaming of the ell.

Jim Guppins was a clever, nice, good-disposition, thick-headed sort of a fellow, and was the butt of the girls in his neigh-Spirzbergen, the longest day lasts three borhood. The most brilliant thing he ever said was, when some of the fair teas-

"How far back in your lifetime can

"Oh! I remember very distinctly, that er-gin mills, und drinken mixed trinks, i on the day I was born, I set on a little

WAKE MONEY .- A good looking Irishman stopping at a botel to warm himself, inquired of the landlord-

"What is the news !" The landlord, disposed to run upon him, replied-

"They say the devil is dead." "An' sure," says Pat, "that's news indade."

Shortly after, he went to the har, laid down some coppers, and resumed his seat. The landlord, always ready for a customer, asked him what he would take, "Nothing at all," said Pat

"Then why did you put down this mo.

A lady, says a Western editor, has just ney." A lady, says a Western editor, has just "An' sure, sir, it's the custom in my "An' sure, sir, it's the custom in my which, she thinks, must make us smack own country, when a chap loses his dudity Wake."