

Waynesboro' Village Record. Thursday, May 14, 1874.

One half of the furnaces in the State are out of blast.

Congress will adjourn about the first of June or first of July.

Work has been entirely suspended at the Harrisburg mill shops for want of orders.

The citizens of Tiffin, Ohio, have been arrested for trespass, but after two trials the jury failed to agree on a verdict.

All Indiana men has just received notice of a $4,000 dividend on an oil well which he had given up as a total loss.

The demand for railroads in Ohio is so slight that the principal mills in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky are idle, and have not a single order to execute.

The great Mississippi flood has inundated 5,000,000 acres, including some of the richest cotton and sugar plantations, with a population of 175,000 persons.

On Saturday a boy about 16 years old, supposed to be of a tramp, attempted to jump off a moving train at Tyone, fell, had both legs cut off, and died shortly after.

The Duchess of Leeds who recently died in England, was a large land owner in Frederick county, Md. She was the last survivor of four daughters of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.

The total number of Granges in the United States is 10,831 and the total membership 780,000. The only States in which there are no Granges are Connecticut, Delaware and Rhode Island.

A gang of counterfeiters of the nickel coin have been broken up in Crawford county, Pa. Stamps, dies and bushes of five cent pieces were found in their house.

The Decoration Association of Illinois has resolved that it will make no distinction on Decoration Day, but will strew flowers alike on the graves of the Federal and Confederate soldiers.

The committee on pensions have reported a bill amendatory of the act granting pensions to soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812, and persons whose names were stricken therefrom in consequence of disloyalty to the government.

A joint resolution has passed both branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature by a unanimous vote asking the President of the United States to appoint a board to examine the proceedings in the case of Fitz John Porter.

Monday was extraordinary for the number of fires that are reported. By far the most disastrous was the conflagration in town of Ridgeway, Iowa, which left but one house standing. The people are homeless, and their houses, stores and workshops destroyed. The Toronto fire caused a loss of a quarter of a million dollars.

The features of the new Currency bill, which the majority of the Senate Finance Committee have agreed upon are these: The maximum of the bank circulation to be $382,000,000; new bank notes to be issued to the amount of $164,000,000; for every million of new bank currency issued, $500,000 in greenbacks to be retired, until the total circulation is reduced to $300,000,000; specie payment to be resumed January 1, 1877.

A foot race came off on Tuesday last in New York city, between J. Gorlen Bennett, proprietor of the Herald, and John Whipple, a young lawyer, the stake was $3,000 a side, and the distance run was ten miles. Mr. Bennett made the ten mile in 1 hour, 45 minutes and 35 seconds. Mr. Whipple reached the goal at midnight and 55 seconds behind him. Mr. Bennett showed no signs of fatigue, and on returning to the city was warmly congratulated by his friends. The betting ranged from $100 to $80 and $75, and in a few cases $50 on Mr. Whipple. It has been estimated that $25,000 changed hands on the race.

The situation in Arkansas is not improving. There was some skirmishing in the streets of Little Rock on Saturday, and some two or three persons were killed. At the solicitation of the representatives of both parties at Washington, Attorney General Williams drew up a plan of pacification, which was submitted by telegraph to the rival Governors for their ratification. In the hope that further bloodshed would be prevented, but Baxter rejected the proposition. We should like to know whether Brooks and Baxter, or either of them, is making war on the United States. If not, why do the United States troops at Little Rock busy themselves in throwing up barricades for their own protection?

The Orangemen of New York have held a meeting to decide upon the manner of celebrating the 4th of July this year. Inasmuch as they have vindicated their right to parade, they decided not to undertake a parade this year. The day occurs on Sunday, and the Orangemen will go in a body to church, without regalia or banners; and on the day following they will have a picnic, conducted on the total abstinence principle.

HORRIBLE BUTCHERIES.—On Thursday night, the 28th ult., at Homestead, Minn. township, six miles from Pittsburg, Pa.; Mr. John Hammet, a well-to-do farmer, his wife, their two children and a farm boy, were murdered, and the house afterward fired and completely destroyed.—Ernest Low, the hired man on the farm, a Prussian about 25 years of age, was arrested as the murderer of the family; and he has since made a full confession, giving all the facts connected with the shocking butchery; which he says he accomplished with an axe, first killing the two little children and the farm boy during the temporary absence of the parents, and then way-laying the latter as they entered the house. He says that he murdered them to get Mr. Hammet's money, supposing his wife had a great deal, but after obtaining his pocket book, found it to contain only $15.

An almost similar crime was committed on the previous night at Houtzdale, Clearfield county, Pa. The residence of Henry Pennington was burned down, and Pennington, a woman who had deserted her husband and was with him, and another person were burned up with it. It is stated that the former husband of the woman had threatened to kill her, and the supposition is that he first murdered the three persons and then set fire to the house to conceal his crime.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A most melancholy accident occurred at the village of East Meadows, Long Island, on the night of the 22d ult. A wedding had just taken place, and just as the bride sprang into the carriage, in advance of her husband, some neighbor discharged a gun in honor of their departure, when the horse took fright and dashed off at a furious rate. The carriage was upset; the bride thrown out and dragged for some distance by becoming entangled in the lines, and finally the horse fell into a ditch, dragging the unfortunate lady with him, where they were shortly after found, the horse kicking and struggling. The head of the lady was almost torn from the body, every limb was broken in a number of places and the whole body was bruised and lacerated in a shocking manner.

Three Kansas men are charged with having stolen a county. They stalked it out and called it Barbour. Then they divided the county offices among themselves, taking two or three apiece, and sent certificates and affidavits to the capital.—Their credentials as a county were forwarded. At a general election over two hundred and fifty-one votes were cast in to the ballot box after the Philadelphia fashion, and W. B. Horner was chosen to represent Barbour in the Legislature.—Horner voted industriously for every one else's measures, and found it easy to get through one of his own. It was a bill to authorize Barbour county to issue bonds for the building of a bridge and other necessary improvements. The bonds were issued and sold well, Horner acting as agent. And now Horner and all the population of Barbour county and the proceeds of the bonds have disappeared, and the bondholders are wondering where they have gone to.

A brief despatch from London makes an announcement that the steamship Sibelia, from Liverpool for Madeira, has been lost at sea and not a soul saved from the wreck. As she was a passenger steamer the sacrifice of human life may have been very great. Coincident with this intelligence comes the statement that the steamship Trojan, of the Anchor line is now twenty days overdue and has not been heard from. Perhaps she has gone to swell the dreadful toll of recent disasters upon the sea. It is curious that the Anchor line seems following in the unlucky path of the French company. One of their steamers, the Ismailia, sailed away from New York more than a month ago and went down at sea, leaving no trace of her fate, and it is likely that the Trojan has been the next to go to the same doom.

On the first of the month there was a man by the name of Waltz hung in New York. The man was a brute, exhibiting all the symptoms of moral and mental insanity. While in his cell, on nearly the last day of his life, he took the life of his keeper. To the prayers of his mother and sister; to all appeals, he was stolidly deaf. On the scaffold he simply stood up and died dumbly like an ox.—The only sound that came from him was a hoarse growl like that of a wild beast brought to bay. And yet on examination after death, his brain was found to weigh 54 ounces, healthy, large and well formed.

The Palms Hotel, about being constructed in San Francisco, will cover a space of 96,220 feet, will be six stories high, and will afford accommodation for 4,200 guests. The floors are to be so arranged that, with the large open court in the centre, there will be no dark rooms, all opening directly into the open air. A feature will be the arrangement of the stores beneath which will be so arranged as to form a grand bazaar open to the guests through the arcades in the courts, also commanding the street trade. The total cost, it is expected, will reach $2,500,000, and is divided as follows: Land, $800,000; building, $1,000,000.

A Troy widow has maintained a law suit for twenty-one years, and is still determined.

Local Gems.

Farmers are now in the midst of corn-planting.

MILLINERY.—Miss Kate Stickle has received her spring supply of new millinery goods. Call and see the late styles.

On Saturday next Messrs. Stover & Wolf will open their new stock of Cloths and Cassimeres.

County Treasurer White is now at Minter's Hotel. Last day to pay your taxes.

Dr. J. N. Soivel, delegate to the meeting of the State Medical Society, left yesterday for Easton. The Dr. expects to be absent several days.

Waynesboro' Grange meets on Saturday next, and thereafter the third Saturday of each month during the summer season.

A committee from the P. M. C. A. of this place will meet at Quincy, on Sunday next, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a similar Association.

Back.—H. M. Sibbet Esq. returned from his Western tour on Saturday evening last and has again litting out his sign as "J. P."

Rev. D. Y. Heister will preach for St. Paul's Reformed Congregation next Sunday evening, May 17th. The public are invited.

WARM.—Since our last issue we have enjoyed a season of most delightful weather: Our friend, Mr. Fred. K. McIntire, from near Fountain Dale, informed us that the thermometer at his place on Monday at noon stood at 90° in the shade. We suppose about the same temperature prevailed here.

FINE SHAD.—W. A. Reid, our former neighbor, has placed us under obligations to him for a pair of very superior shad.—Mr. R. has been prosecuting the fish trade this season with more than ordinary energy. He has now both fresh and salted shad both herring, and also bass. Among all the varieties the latter are regarded as extra fine in quality.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The church-yard connected with Trinity Reformed church in this place has been enclosed with a handsome paling fence which is painted white. They have also graded the ground in front and on the East side of the church and made other notable improvements. They also purpose painting their church, which is one of the finest structures of the kind in our town.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.—Until June 1st, H. F. Sweet of the Diamond Gallery, will make Pictures at a reduction of one-third from former prices: 4 ferro types 50 cents; 9 ferro types (small) 50 cents, 1 large one for frame 50 cents, 1 dozen Photographs $1.50; 1 large Photograph $1.00.

So far we believe the fruit is unharmed. Portions of the apple orchards are just now in full bloom and give promise of an abundant yield the coming apple season. Should this promise be realized, in local option counties the manufacture of cider will doubtless be largely increased, where there will be a demand for it as a substitute for malt drinks.

ICE CREAM.—Our neighbor, Mr. H. Henneberger, who has acquired quite a reputation for the quality of the ice cream he manufactures, surprised us the other evening with a large bowl full as a present. There is more than ordinary "push" about Hiram. As an evidence of this, in addition to the Bates' Tonic Beer (a harmless beverage) he supplies his customers with Crab-apple Cider manufactured in the State of New York.

ORGANIZATION OF NEW COUNCIL.—The members of the new Town Council, viz: David Rider, George W. McGinley, Samuel Rider, J. F. Reisinger and Samuel Hoeflich, met on last Saturday and were sworn in. Geo. W. McGinley was elected President, and A. B. Stoler Clerk. The following appointments were made: S. B. Rinehart, Treasurer; Collector, W. F. Horner; Supervisor, Emanuel Diefenderfer.

PROMPT.—The dwelling of Mr. Alex. Hamilton, the roof of which was partially destroyed by fire on Monday evening, was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of York County, Pa. The loss sustained, $173.12, was yesterday paid in full by the agent for the company in this place, Mr. JAS. H. CLAYTON. Action so prompt as this on the part of a fire insurance company is worthy of commendation.

On Friday afternoon we visited the public school building and spent a short time in the primary department, in charge of Miss Lisle Wilson and Mrs. Annie Smith. We were agreeably surprised to note how far the little ones were advanced in the different studies, and more particularly that of geography. The exercises were so different from the old-time mode of teaching as to be new to us and therefore the more interesting. The discipline of the school was also a noticeable feature and alike creditable to the lady teachers in charge.

A doctor writes to the Baltimore Sun that hydrophobia can be produced by the bite of a perfectly healthy dog.

FIRE.—About 5 o'clock on Monday evening an alarm of fire started our citizens. A black cloud of smoke was seen rising from the roof of Mr. Alex. Hamilton's dwelling on East Main street, and a few minutes later a portion of the roofing was enveloped in flames. A strong East wind was prevailing at the time carrying the smoke in to the centre of the town. The situation was perilous in the extreme and many persons despaired of any efforts to arrest the progress of the flames, but the fire engine was soon on the ground, where citizens from all parts of the town had gathered. Lines were formed and with buckets the engine was supplied with water until the flames were subdued. Two small hand engines one belonging to Messrs. Frick & Co., and the other to the Geiser Manufacturing Company, were also used very successfully.—Five minutes later and the fire residence would have been doomed to destruction, which was only saved (with the loss of the roofing) through the extraordinary exertions of the citizens. A gentleman present who has witnessed many fires remarked that he had nowhere ever witnessed better work on such an occasion. The little engine which was repaired a short time since by the Waynesboro' Manufacturing Company, done its work admirably and agreeably surprised all classes. The investment of $100 for its repair was a fortunate investment, for which no small meed of praise is due the former Council. It was not only the means of saving the building referred to, but doubtless a number of other dwellings. How the fire originated is enveloped in mystery but the burning seems to have started on the roof of the front or main building.

FIRE COMPANY.—The imprudence of having a regularly organized fire company in our town has several times been suggested through these columns. The engine having been repaired so as to be in good working order the present we think would be the proper time to make a move for such an organization.—The engine would be more likely to be kept in order, and in case of fire there would be order instead of confusion, more prompt and efficient work performed.—Let us have a company formed of active men, and let the older citizens, property holders, become honorary members by paying into the Treasury the sum of $1 per annum, the fund to be used for the purchase of ladders, fire hooks, etc. We suggest the propriety of holding a meeting for this purpose not later than the latter part of next week.

ENTERPRISE SOUTH.—A copy of the Winchester (Va.) Times was handed us the other day, from which it appears the people in that part of the 'Old Dominion' are more enterprising than we had supposed them to be. From its local columns we gather these facts. Within the past few years the following improvements have been added to the town, viz: A first-class paper mill, shoe factory, a steam flour mill, a saw and bark mill, a large phosphate mill, five large glove factories, employing several hundred hands, large saw and planing mill, two iron foundries, four or five cigar factories, four female seminaries and one male academy. So far as a spirit of enterprise goes the above is a good showing for the town of Winchester. The engines for the paper mill and steam flour mill were furnished by the Waynesboro' Steam Engine and Boiler Works.

DECEASED.—Mr. Daniel Shank, Sr., died at his residence in the Leitersburg District on the morning of the 25th ult., at the advanced age of 81 years, 1 month and 1 day. His remains were interred in the family burying ground on the premises, followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Rhodes and Overhuler of the Menoche church, of which he was long a consistent member. It is remarkable that during his long life he lived on the same farm on which he was born and finally was buried there.—Hag. Herald.

CEMETERY ELECTION.—At an election for Managers of Green Hill Cemetery, held on the 7th inst. the following persons were elected to serve one year: Simon Lecron, Jacob J. Miller, Samuel Hoeflich, W. A. Tridell, Jos. H. Crebs, David R. Miller, David Gilbert, Dr. J. N. Savelly, Jos. W. Miller, Jacob Hoover, E. Elden, G. W. McGinley. Simon Lecron is President of the Association, Samuel Hoeflich, Secretary, and Joseph W. Miller, Treasurer.

TREES AND FLOWERS.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that a former citizen, Mr. A. D. Gordon, is engaged in canvassing this county for the sale of fruit, shade, ornamental trees, flowers, etc. He is operating in the interest of a well-known and reliable firm in Geneva, N. Y.

AN ACCIDENT.—A correspondent of the Record furnishes us the following item of news: On Sunday of last week while several boys were playing on the railroad bridge, 1 1/2 miles East of Smithsburg, a little son of Mr. Daniel Mentzer fell a distance of forty feet injuring himself so much that he had to be carried home.—At the time the above was written (4th inst.) the exact nature of his injuries was not known, but they were supposed to be very serious.

LOST STEAMSHIPS.—The following summary of lost steamships was compiled from files of the New York Observer and the Presbyterian, by a friend, and handed us for publication: President—Left New York, on March 11, 1841, and was never heard from afterwards.

City of Glasgow—Never heard of after leaving Glasgow in Spring of 1854; 480 lives lost.

Sai Francisco—Foundered in the Atlantic, December 25, 1853. Near 200 lives lost.

Arctic—Run down by French steamer Vesta, off New Foundland, September 27, 1854; 300 lives lost.

Pacific—Left Liverpool January 23, 1856; and never heard from afterwards; 200 lives lost.

Le Lyonnais—Collided with ship Adriatic, off Nantucket, November 2, 1859; 120 lives lost.

Tempest—Never heard from after leaving New York on February 26, 1857.

Central America—Foundered off Cape Hatteras, September 12, 1857; 400 lives lost.

Ataria—Burned in mid ocean, September 13, 1858; 470 lives lost.

India—Wrecked on coast of Nova Scotia, November 21, 1859; 27 lives lost.

Hibernian—Wrecked off Nova Scotia, February 20, 1860; 205 lives lost.

Canadian—Wrecked by sunken ice in Straits of Belle Isle, June 4, 1861; 35 lives lost.

Anglo-Saxon—Wrecked off Cape Race, April 27, 1863; 237 lives lost.

Hibernia—Foundered off the Irish coast, November 29, 1868; 50 lives lost.

United Kingdom—Left New York, April 17, 1869; never afterwards heard from; 80 lives lost.

City of Boston—Left New York, January 25, 1870, called at Halifax, and was never afterwards heard from; about 160 lives lost.

Cumbria—Wrecked off Irish coast, October 19, 1870; 190 lives lost.

Atlantic—Wrecked on Marr's Rock, Nova Scotia, April 1, 1873; 562 lives lost.

Ismailia—Left New York, September 20, 1873. Not heard of since.

Ville du Havre—Collided with the British ship Loch Earn, and sank in mid-ocean; on Saturday, November 22, 1873; 220 lives lost.

OLD TIMES.—Some 50 years ago and there—says the Mechanicstown Clarion—when Lewis Ripple kept the Mountain House, where the Monterey Springs are now located, about Christmas time it used to be a jolly place in mid-winter. It used to be a great place for the wagons from Franklin county, the Sheeleys, Nicodemus, the Stovers, Savellys, Trout, Funks, etc. etc. Here lads and lasses from Frederick and Washington counties, Md., and Franklin and Adams counties, Pa., used to assemble in large numbers, and dance the old regular country dances and jig, and enjoy life in fine style—with the flowing bowl of apple jack and egg-nog, and mince pies and roast turkey and goose. The days were devoted to sleighing to Waynesboro' and Emmitsburg, Hagerstown and Millerstown, etc. and the nights to pleasure and fun.—Mr. Abraham Welty, of Emmitsburg, and Mr. Peter Roizer, of Mechanicsstown, two venerable octogenarians still living, remember the time very well. These were real Christmas days to be enjoyed in the honey moon of life, and the mountain was vocal, with good cheer!

[Since the above was in type, Mr. A. Welty has departed this transitory life at a ripe old age; but Mr. P. Rouzer still lives to chronicle the old events of history and the joyous days when everything went as merry as the marriage bell.]

Miss Rev. Jane Hayes, oldest daughter of Rev. L. N. Hayes, died in this place on Friday morning last. She had been suffering for more than five years and was confined to her bed a greater portion of that time. She bore her afflictions patiently. Her courage in enduring the treatment at times prescribed by her physicians was truly wonderful. Her Christian faith sustained her in all her trials, and prepared her for an entrance into that haven where "the weary are at rest." She was buried in the graveyard at Middle Spring, Cumberland county. Her funeral was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.—Repositor.

Wood's Household Magazine for May, has an abundance of excellent reading.—There is the real grand old man to which this periodical which entitles it to much credit, and we cannot name one that will afford an equal amount of entertainment and instruction for so little money. The number before us contains among other articles a paper entitled "Poor Jack," by F. W. Holland, in the interest of seamen; "The Child in the Church," by Mary Hartwell; "Kin and Kad," by E. V. Osborne; "Dumb Days," by Caroline B. LeRow, and some good poetry. There are several illustrated articles, the New York Fashions, Architectural Designs, &c. &c. The illustration on Decoration Day is just the thing. Price of Magazine one dollar per year. Address: Wood's Household Magazine, Newburg, N. Y.

Somebody predicts terrible thunder storms this season; and he isn't a lightning rod agent either.

The caterpillars have already made their appearance. Fruit growers should look after their trees in time.

THE FISH LAW.—The following Digest of the Fish Law, is pronounced substantially correct:

It is unlawful to catch fish below any dam which has no chute or fish ladder, the half-mile clause not applying to such dams.

It is unlawful to fish at any time with fish baskets, kiddles, set wires or racks, in any stream in this State.

It is unlawful to fish with seine, set net, fyke net, or net of any other description, the meshes of which are less than 3 inches, between June 15 and August 10, in any stream.

It is unlawful to fish for trout except for purpose of propagation or scientific investigation, in any other manner than with hook and line.

It is lawful to fish for salmon and speckled trout between April 1 and August 15; speckled trout only to be caught by hook and line. It is unlawful to catch, kill, sell or have in possession, salmon trout or lake trout between October 1 and March 1.

It is unlawful to place a set net across any canal or rivulet or creek in this State.

It is unlawful to fish for black bass, pike, or pickerel in any other manner than with hook and line or scull; and only with hook and line, or scull, between June 1 and March 1, except when taking them alive for stocking other water.

It is unlawful to fish at any time in any inland water (such as a creek, river, or other stream) in this State inhabited by black bass or speckled trout with a net of any kind the meshes of which are less than three inches.

It is unlawful to fish with seines or nets in any place where the water has been partly or wholly drawn off, or to fish in any way by drawing off any water.

It is unlawful to use set lines in any stream inhabited by speckled trout.

There is nothing in the several acts of 1873 to prevent the setting of outlines in any stream not inhabited by speckled trout; subject to the foregoing restrictions as to the kind of fishing and the species of fish caught.

Not a Draft.—Our little neighboring village of Funkstown now has not a single place within its limits where anything intoxicating can be purchased, the last one, the bar of Mr. Smith, having closed its doors on the evening of the 8th, Wednesday, his license expiring on that date, and he concluding not to have it renewed. Thus, without the aid of crusaders, local opinion or moral suasion, the business has died a natural death in the very town where, in years "lang syne" John Barleycorn held high carnival.—Hagerstown Twice a Week.

THE REMAINS OF A MURDERER.—The Hagerstown Daily News of Saturday says: In a conversation with a gentleman from Union Bridge we learned that the membership of the Reformed Church at Taneytown had reconsidered their opposition to the interment of Davis' remains in their graveyard, and that the remains of Davis' wife be removed from their present resting place, in his mother's front yard, at an early day. The report that the doctors had stolen the remains is untrue.

A special meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange will be held in Franklin Hall, Mechanicsburg, Pa., Wednesday June 10th, at 3 o'clock, P. M., with the purpose of taking action on the proposed amendments to the National Grange Constitution.

DECORATION DAY.—It is suggested that instead of decorating the soldiers' graves with cut flowers this year rose bushes be planted over every mound that marks the resting place of the patriotic dead. It would be a better way than the old custom.

Until the 1st of June the days will continue to lengthen one and a quarter minutes every 24 hours.

The attendance at the Shippensburg Normal school at present is four hundred.

Judge Gilmore, presiding in the Baltimore City Criminal Court, passed two weighty sentences on Saturday. Charles H. Jones, an illiterate negro, who showed a very fierce and dangerous temper when he killed his companion, Kelly, in a quarrel over a game of cards, was sentenced to be hanged, the jury before which he was tried having found him guilty of murder in the first degree, the penalty for which is death under the laws of Maryland.—Charles Rose, convicted of rape (also a capital offence), was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

ILLINOIS.—A meeting of the Advisory Board of the State Farmers' Association was held in Bloomington, on Tuesday, 5th instant, fifty-two out of one hundred and two counties of the State were represented. They resolved upon inaugurating an Independent political party, which shall include the members of all industrial organizations, and a State convention is called to meet at Bloomington to put in nomination a full State ticket. This ticket will sweep the State like a prairie on fire. The farmers are in motion.

At the recent term of court in York county the Grand Jury found bills against fifty-four parties for violation of the License law. They were not for violations of the Local Option law, York county having voted for license, but were indictments for selling to minors, to habitual drunkards and on Sunday.

The public debt was decreased during April $2,965,451.48.

"OLD BENDER"—A despatch from Salt Lake, Utah, makes the apparently confirmatory announcement that the senior member of Bender family has been arrested, and that the old man's photographs have been readily recognized by persons who knew him in Kansas. It will be remembered that the yard attached to the domicile of the Bender family was nothing less than a grave yard of the victims who had fallen prey to their relentless hands.

Poor South Carolina! Terrible was her crime and fearful the penalty she is paying for it. Desolated during the war—her metropolis knocked to pieces and her capital burned to the ground; her beautiful summer resort of Beaufort destroyed, and the rich cotton lands of the district rendered almost valueless—she has been overrun almost to the walls by political plunderers, who have stripped the remainder of her substance from her and involved her in hopeless bankruptcy.—Pottsville Journal.
