

Waynesboro Village Record. Thursday, December 3, '74.

The associated banks of New York now hold sixteen millions of dollars above the legal reserve. Every one of the employees of the New Jersey Central Railroad Company was given a turkey on Thanksgiving day. Ex-Governor Curtin is suggested as the Democratic candidate for Governor in the contest of 1875. The "oldest inhabitant" of Stroudsburg, Pa., died on Saturday. George L. Bar was the name of the venerable man, and his age was 113 years. Hon. John M. Read, ex-Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, died in Philadelphia on Sunday, aged seventy-eight years. The Citizens Oil Refinery of Pittsburg, has suspended payment. The liabilities are about $300,000. The assets can't yet be given. Five colored men have been elected to the next Congress, all new men. Two are from South Carolina, one from Alabama, and one from Louisiana. The National Life and Trust Company of New Haven, Conn., is in an embarrassed condition, its assets falling short of its liabilities by over a quarter of a million dollars. The writ of habeas corpus is again invoked in behalf of Wm. M. Tweed. His petition raises the old point on which his counsel exhausted themselves during his trial, namely, that the Court in which he was convicted had no jurisdiction in his case. The recent mild weather has hatched out the grasshopper eggs in the West, and the fields swarm with young insects. The farmers in many places exult in the thought that the winter will kill them, and they will be free from the pest next summer. It appears that the appeal taken by Mr. Beecher's counsel from the ruling of the Brooklyn City Court denying the motion for a bill of particulars, will not materially delay the pending suit. The Court of Appeals will consider the matter immediately, and give a decision on December 8th. The iron bridge on the Northern Central Railroad, near Baltimore, and North of the Relay House, about 5 o'clock on Monday evening gave way, precipitating two passenger trains into Swan Lake, killing one passenger, mortally wounding a second, and seriously injuring many others. Wheat is cheaper in England just now than at any other time within the memory of living men. The average price is forty-four shillings per quarter of eight bushels. England will consume 80,000,000 bushels more than she produces, the deficiency will be supplied from California, the Atlantic slope of the United States and France and Russia. Two hundred and forty-two Mennonites arrived in Philadelphia on Saturday by the steamer Vedul. They are in charge of the Mennonite Executive Aid Society, and will be forwarded to Safe Harbor, Lancaster county, where they will be sheltered in about one hundred houses belonging to the Phoenix Iron Company. There they will remain during the winter, and in the meantime locations for a settlement will be selected in the Western States and Territories. One hundred and fifty-eight thousand acres of land in Kansas that in the summer produced beautiful crops became a barren waste before the season was over. Only grasshoppers went over that vast tract—that was all, but that was enough. Not a green thing was left. And now the people of seventeen counties are not able to get through the winter without assistance. Nearly eighteen thousand persons is the number needing relief. A special to the New York Times from Wilmington, Delaware, November 21, says: "The usual fall whipping took place at New Castle Saturday, eight persons being punished in that manner. Seven were colored men, one white. Their offenses were larceny of various grades, from a horse to a bag of corn, and they varied in age from Clayton Earle, an old man of sixty five years, to Shadrock Trusty, a little negro lad. The punishment was inflicted by a sheriff, sworn into office a few days ago and, was witnessed by several hundred persons, among them some women." We now have a real, live King on American soil. Kalakaua, monarch of Sandwich Islands, arrived at San Francisco on Saturday evening in the steamship Reuicua, and was formally received by the municipal authorities on Sunday. His royal highness and suite are now quartered at the Grand Hotel. In a few days they will arrive at Washington, and after a visit to President Grant, will make the tour through the principal cities of the East. There are over 24,000 idiots in the United States, acknowledged as such, besides the fellows that hang around our church doors on cold nights.

A GREAT STORM.—Our exchanges have given an account of a most destructive storm which occurred on Monday a week extending over the entire country East of the Mississippi. The wind in some places was so strong that it amounted to a hurricane. In the North-western portion of the city of Baltimore about one hundred buildings were damaged to a greater or less extent, the loss amounting to some $60,000, twelve persons suffering various injuries. At Keyser, W. Va., a railroad building was wrecked, two men killed and several injured. At Tusculum, Alabama, one-third of the residences were destroyed, twelve persons killed and many others injured. At Philadelphia, Trenton and Camden, N. J., buildings were unroofed and fences and trees prostrated. Covington and Newport, Ky., were damaged slightly, the storm passing from there across the Ohio up the Little Miami Valley, with abated strength unroofing only a few houses and prostrating fences. In Westminster, Md., the new School House in course of erection was blown down and the buildings on the Carroll Co. Agricultural Fair Grounds were considerably injured. The Pyrenological Journal for December is an admirable closing number for the present year; it abounds in profitable suggestions and pleasant reading. There are portraits and sketches of Mr. John S. Bender of Indiana, and of Frederick the Great, Prince Eugene, Gustavus Adolphus, Wallenstein, and the Old Dessauer; also, good bits at Modern Progress in the Advancing and Retreating Races, and National Types—both illustrated. Character Three-fold; a scientific exposition of mental phenomena.—Spiritual Evolution, an excellent essay on the growth of moral thought. Sex in Education, put in a light as logical as humorous, some of the main points in this great controversy. Only Trifles Offers admonition of general application.—The Labor Problem is an encouraging view of that great paradox. Agriculture as related to Civilization is true. Literary Sharks shows up the plagiarists in a strong light. Several good Poems are sandwiched among the prose articles.—Jerome Pringle's Pay-day is also worth mention, as a lively, social story. The Memorial Department is unusually full, and the whole number creditable to the publisher. Price 30 cents. Subscriptions for 1875 are now in order, at $3.00. A clergyman in a communication to the New York Tribune makes the following very just and appropriate suggestion. He says: "I believe that I express the judgment of the great mass of the clergy of this country, and most certainly the judgment of all with whom I have conversed upon this subject, in saying that Mr. Beecher should either interpose no bar to an immediate trial, or else abstain from preaching until after trial and acquittal. For Mr. Beecher, in view of the terrible nature of the charges against him, to refrain from demanding an ecclesiastical trial, to postpone by appeal a civil trial, and at the same time to continue to preach is an outrage upon decency. The infant and only child of Allan Goss, of Freemansburg, Pa., was stolen during Wednesday night. Some person or persons entered the dwelling, which is a one-and-a-half story front, situated on the borough line, and took the little infant out of the cradle, which stood beside the bed in which lay the mother, unconscious of the abduction of her baby. The excitement is great, and many are the theories, but the case is a mystery, and baffles the skill of the police and others who have been unremitting in the search for the missing one. A body was discovered in the Lehigh River on Thursday, which was recognized as that of the missing child. The evidence went to show that the mother threw it in. She was placed in Eastern jail. Wm. Ogle Key, a native of Maryland, but for the last fifteen years a citizen of Alabama, was found dead in his room at the Bonnet House in Baltimore Monday morning. The testimony taken at the Coroner's inquest clearly shows that he committed suicide by taking a poisonous dose of morphia. He was a cousin to the author of the "Star Spangled Banner." For some years he was proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel at New Orleans. He was at one time a man of great wealth, but the war swept away greater part of his property. Pecuniary troubles brought on depression of spirits and intemperate habits which culminated in suicide. A FORTUNE OF $125,000.—The Harrisburg Patriot of the 24th inst., contains the following: Yesterday the wife of Jacob Wilhelm, a nailer employed at the Chesapeake works, in the lower end of the city, received the sad intelligence that her father had died in California. With the information, however, was the announcement that he had left her a fortune of $125,000. If your horse is lame, sore or galled, you should use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment: wash the part with castile soap and warm water, rub dry, with a clean cloth, then apply the Liniment, rub in well with the hand. Cabbages are high in the East. Look out for a rise in cigars.

Three weeks from Friday next and Christmas. EAST.—F. Fortmann, Druggist, is now East making purchases for the Holidays. CLOVER SEED WANTED.—See advertisement of J. Grund, Leitersburg, Md. It is more respectable to work for half wages, than for nothing. The squeal of the flying porker, now breaks upon the morning air. The latest ladies' hats are called Chimney Tops. Messrs. Ambersen, Benedict & Co. will receive a second supply of new goods next week. The creditors of Geo. Lackens can call on H. M. Sibbet and receive their dividend. Our "black list" is approaching completion and presents a rather imposing appearance. A Pikeville district delinquent leads the van. PUBLIC SALE.—We call special attention to the house and lot near Pikeville, advertised at public sale in to-day's paper by Mr. Geo. Middour. Don't throw away your money on Christmas presents until after December 11, which date is definitely fixed for the end of the world by the "Adventists" of Maine. FARM SOLD.—On Saturday last Messrs. Simon Leeron and J. O. Besore sold the farm near this place belonging to the estate of Henry Besore, dec'd, for the sum of $41,000 per acre. Purchaser, Rev. Geo. B. Russell, of Pittsburg, Pa. CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL.—The Sunday School connected with Trinity Reformed Church of this place will hold its Festival on Christmas night. It is the intention to make this the most interesting Entertainment ever given by them in Waynesboro'. The public are cordially invited to attend these exercises. BUSINESS OPENING.—It will be seen by reference to a business local in this issue that Mr. W. A. Reid is closing out his stock of groceries, etc. at cost. This is the oldest or first established grocery in our town and may be regarded as a first-class opening for some enterprising man wishing to embark in business. FINE HOGS.—On the 24th ult. Mr. H. C. Miller near Ringgold, slaughtered two Chester White hogs 14 months old, purchased of Mr. Mathias Hoffman when 6 weeks old. One netted 448 pounds, the other 381 pounds. Lewis L. Bechtel slaughtered two of the same litter, one weighing 381 and the other 386 pounds. These stock specimens entitle Ringgold to a front rank in the pig line at least. FINE SALE.—The public sale of personal property of John B. Hamilton, administrator of Alex. Hamilton dec'd, on Friday last was perhaps more numerous attended than any similar sale ever held in our Borough. The bidding was spirited from the commencement to the closing of the sale, and the result highly creditable to the good management of Mr. H. and the efficiency of his auctioneer, Mr. Moug. THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving day was observed as usual in our town by a general session of business. In the morning Union services were held in the M. E. Church, at which the several town ministers were in attendance. The sermon on the occasion, a very able and appropriate one, was delivered by Rev. W. C. Schaeffer of St. Paul's Reformed Chapel. In the evening the anniversary services of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the same place. In the morning appropriate religious services were also held in the German Baptist Church of this place. Sermon by Rev. Jacob Snider. SINGING CLASS.—Prof. D. R. Knight will meet those who have subscribed their names to a paper for the purpose of becoming members of a class in Vocal Music at Miller's Hall, Friday evening, this week, at 7 o'clock, P. M. A general invitation is extended to all interested in Vocal Music, to be present, when an opportunity will be given for those to join the class who may wish to do so. It is a fact generally admitted that the young folks of our town are very deficient as to a knowledge of vocal music. Prof. Knight comes to us highly recommended as a teacher, and we trust this class of the community will not let this opportunity pass unimproved. RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.—We learn from the Herald that the stockholders of the Hanover Branch Railroad Company held a meeting at the company's office on Thursday. The object was to obtain the sense of the stockholders on the proposed consolidation of this company and the Susquehanna, Gettysburg and Potomac Railroad company. The whole number of votes cast was 2093, out of a total capital of 2337 shares. Only 17 votes were cast against the consolidation, making the decision in its favor nearly unanimous. The name decided upon for the new company is "The Hanover Junction, Hanover and Gettysburg Railroad Company." Congress meets on Monday next.

FOUNTAIN GAS LIGHT.—On Friday evening last Mr. E. G. KETTER exhibited this new light in the corner of the Diamond, which was unusually brilliant, and as a street light was much admired by our citizens. For this purpose we understand it is being very generally introduced, being now in use in Harrisburg, Carlisle, Chambersburg, Shippensburg, Newville and other towns. Hagerstown Twice A Week pronounces it the best as well as cheapest street light now in use. We understand the members of our Council are favorable to thus lighting the town and if the citizens will give their assent by petition they will at once procure a couple dozen lamps, which are said to cost $100 per dozen. The cost of fluid per hour is about 1/2 of a cent. We trust citizens will see the importance of this much needed want in our town and act accordingly. The present rate of taxation, five mills, being the limit, the expense thus incurred cannot increase the taxes. In a few days a petition will be presented for their signatures. All who are favorable to having our streets beautifully lit up of dark evenings will of course sign it. A FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday, the 17th inst., an accident occurred in the barn on the farm belonging to the late James G. Rhoads, in Montgomery Township, by which a young man named John A. Wolford lost his life. The particulars, as we have been able to learn them, are about as follows: The deceased, in company with Mr. Clem. Rhoads, were unloading some corn-fodder from off a wagon. Mr. Rhoads was on the mow and the deceased on the wagon; overhead was a moveable joice, and the two were endeavoring to move it to the one side so as to give them more room in the handling of the fodder, when it slipped from the frame upon which it rested. Mr. Wolford was precipitated from the wagon to the barn floor, the heavy stick striking him on the head, crushing the skull; it was also found upon examination that his neck was broken; this is supposed to have occurred in his fall from off the wagon. Death ensued almost instantly. The deceased was a young man and leaves a wife and one child to mourn his untimely demise.—Journal. No work has been done on the York Springs Railroad for some months, but we understand that there is a prospect of work being resumed next spring and of its being pressed to completion.—The Harrisburg and Potomac Railroad Company, which undertook to build the road, has felt the effects of the panic, in common with other railroad companies.—This Company, however, is now arranging for the sale of Bonds, and expects to realize on them the money necessary to complete their enterprise. A mortgage has been executed in favor of the Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia in trust for $1,800,000 bonds, to be issued in sums of $100,000 and $200,000, to run three years, (from 1874 to 1904), and bear seven per cent. interest, free of all taxes, payable semi-annually. The mortgage includes the Harrisburg and Potomac railroad, its rolling stock, corporate franchises, real estate, and all other property now owned or hereafter to be acquired by it; also when constructed "a branch road from a point at or near Littlestown, Pa., via York Springs to intersect the main line leading from the Susquehanna river or White Hall to Waynesboro—the mortgage to be recorded in Cumberland, York, Adams and Franklin counties.—Gettysburg Star. HARD TIMES.—We give a receipt for keeping the times hard. Let everybody talk depressingly. When anyone fails in business, put it in all the papers. Let business men keep up perpetual complaint. Let us have occasional editorials inciting bread riots, and political speeches on the wrongs of the laboring classes. Let everybody prophesy a hard winter, an awful hard winter. Let us all talk down instead of up. Let us take no account of the fact that flour is cheap, and that the harvests are large, and God is good. We shall in this way be able to take another fagot from the poor man's hearth and knock another pane of glass out of his window, and hinder the manufacturers from employing him. All together now—ministers, editors, capitalists and laborers—let us give a long, deep groan, and keep it going till next spring, and the times will be as hard as we could reasonably expect.—Talmage. Last Saturday morning a week a man named Findell, a carpenter, who had been for several weeks at work on the farm of Gen. Thos. J. McKaig, between Hagerstown and Sharpsburg, Washington county, went into Nancy Bowers' saloon on the canal, near Bakersville, and called for a pint of whiskey. He drank the whole pint, and was in the act of paying for it when he dropped dead. A Washington dispatch states negotiations have resulted in the transfer of the controlling interest in Forney's Philadelphia Press to Col. A. K. McClure. The price paid by Col. McClure is $250,000, and this comprises only one share more than half the stock, Col. Forney retaining the balance. The Baltimore American says the above announcement is a canard. Next fall Pennsylvania votes for Governor. Gov. Hanrahan will doubtless be renominated by the republicans.

MARYLAND STATE S. S. CONVENTION.—The Rev. F. A. Smeltz, State Superintendent of Maryland Sabbath School Union, called a State Convention at Frederick city, Md., on the 17th of November which continued in session for three days. It was presided over by Dr. C. H. Lease of Baltimore city. The sessions were very interesting and instructive, were largely attended by delegates from most of the counties of the State and by the citizens of Frederick city and adjoining districts. Many interesting topics relative to the Sunday School work were discussed during the business sessions. Among the distinguished persons who addressed the large audiences at the night sessions were Drs. Barclay and Grammar, Rev. Latrobe and others of Baltimore city. The delegates attending the Convention were very pleasantly entertained at comfortable homes among the citizens, provided for them by the Committee of Arrangements. The convention in a body visited the Female Seminary and the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, located in that city; at the latter place they had the pleasure of witnessing an examination of the pupils of the institution which was very interesting and at the same time very affecting. Among the exercises were the recital in Panto mime by a little girl of eight years, the little S. S. hymn, "I want to be an Angel" a larger girl sang the Missionary hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," others the history of Abraham offering Isaac, and Christ stilling the Tempest; a small boy described his experience in fishing, an amusing scene. The most wonderful part of the exhibition was learning the mutes to articulate sounds. One boy of about 14 years of age read an audible and distinct voice the 23d Psalm and part of the 14th Chap. of St. John. The Asylum is a State institution supported and maintained by the State and is free to all within its limits. The buildings are large and commodious, consisting of the main edifice and two large wings four stories in height. The rooms are all elegantly furnished, including Parlors, Dormitories, Dining Hall, &c. Workmen are engaged in beautifying the grounds, which already present a very attractive appearance. J. W. B. Benjamin Prather, a Washington Butcher, died on the 17th inst., from burns inflicted by the explosion of a coal oil lamp a few days previous. He blew into the lamp to extinguish the flame, when the explosion took place. Have the readers of the Record ever used any of Parsons' Purgative Pills if not, why not? they are the best family physic, besides being the greatest antibilious remedy there is in this country. Col. D. V. Ahl has stocked the Yellow Breachers at Boiling Springs, with a large supply of fine black bass, received from the Potomac. BUSINESS LOCALS. New Millinery Goods just received at Mrs. Kester's.
