

ished for his villainous outrage on an unprotected female. The same is true of the murderer of Smith at Columbia, except that his Excellency did not go through the form of demanding the surrender.

And yet the criminal whom Judge Parsons felt constrained to punish so severely, and to address with such strong marks of just abhorrence, Governor Bigler took under his especial protection, gave him a full pardon, and turned him loose upon community to commit new and more revolting crimes.

Such is the man whom unscrupulous and unprincipled politicians have selected for election to the office of Governor of this Commonwealth. It remains to be seen if the people will sanction the selection.

THE FALL TERM of this new Medical School for Ladies, will commence on the first Monday in October, 1854, and continue four months. The System of Teaching here pursued is entirely new, and is more comprehensive, thorough and practical than that of any other Medical School in the country. It is, however, as far as possible, the same as that of the Faculty of the University of Pennsylvania. The branches of study are divided according to their natural order of succession, and taught in four progressive courses, in each year, thus enabling the students to pass successively through all four courses within two years. By this arrangement the study is rendered easy, and possessed of daily increasing interest.

For Appointments containing Terms, which will always be made satisfactory, list of officers, Faculty and other particulars, please address JOS. S. LONGSHORE, M. D. Dean, No. 160 Arch-st., or Box 1083, Philadelphia P. O. [Aug. 17.]

WELLSBORO' ACADEMY. THE FALL TERM of this Institution will be commenced on the 4th day of September next, under the charge of Mr. NEWELL L. REYNOLDS, a graduate of Middlebury University.

Mr. Reynolds has had charge of this Academy for one term, and has given thus far, universal satisfaction. From the testimony received of his character and qualifications, from his experience in teaching, and from his great success here and elsewhere, we can cheerfully recommend the School to the patronage of the public.

In addition to the branches usually taught in such Institutions, there will be a Teachers' class, composed of those who intend to engage in the business of teaching, which will receive particular attention at this Institution, both from the Principal and the County Superintendent of Common Schools.

Arrangements have likewise been made to procure suitable Chemical and Philosophical instruments, such as are used in the higher order of Schools in the State of New York.

The Academy building is now undergoing a thorough repair and in such a manner as will best promote the comfort and health of the pupils.

Boarding can be obtained in respectable private families at a price not exceeding $1.50 per week. The rates of tuition will be as follows: Primary Department, $1.50; Geography, Arithmetic & Eng. Grammar, 2.00; Higher English branches, 3.00; Algebra, Geometry & Surveying, 4.00; Languages, Drawing, Painting, &c., 5.00.
