

Bigler and the Honor of the State.

The Governor and his friends are boasting of his spirited conduct in the case of McCreey, the kidnapper. "Mark how a plain tale puts them down."

THE AGITATOR.

WELLSBOROUGH, PA. Thursday Morning, Oct. 5, 1854. ANTI-NEBRASKA TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR. JAMES POLLOCK, of Northumberland. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. GEORGE DARSIE, of Allegheny.

FOR SUPREME COURT. DANIEL M. SMYSER, of Montgomery. PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR CONGRESS: GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna.

Anti-Nebraska County Ticket. FOR REPRESENTATIVE. Thomas L. Baldwin, of Tioga. FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER. William D. Bailey, of Wellsville. FOR COMMISSIONER. O. B. Wells, of Jackson.

Lauman, Bigler & Co.—Judge Pollock's Letter—let Freemen read and decide for themselves. In his speech at the Court House on the 27th ult., Gov. Bigler took occasion to comment freely upon the sentiments contained in Judge Pollock's Sullivan letter, and labored hard to prove that they were contradictory.

It is not only against Judge Pollock's opinion that Lauman, Bigler & Co., direct the shafts of their logic. A greater array of talent was never presented by an administration or Congress, than at the time of the enactment of the Missouri Compromise.

THE FOREIGN ANTI-AMERICAN PARTY. The movements of the Democrats, with their foreign allies, the Irish Catholics, are rapidly developing themselves. War is openly proclaimed against all who dare stand in opposition to the craft of Rome, while it works to undermine our institutions!

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

Which is Right? Gov. Bigler and his well-wishers in Tioga, say that the Nebraska question cannot, and should not be made an issue in the coming election.

Your Attention is requested. Let—to the indelible fact, that many leading democrats in the 6th of July mass-meeting, and later, in the Tioga Convention, boldly repudiated any man for office who was not openly and unequivocally opposed to the Nebraska inquiry.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. And take your neighbor with you. Rouse the indifferent, and urge them to go to the polls and vote for the anti-Nebraska ticket.

READ YOUR TICKETS. And trust only your own eyes; there is no certain safety without. Look out that your packages are not mixed. Act on your own responsibility, think for yourself.

THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

ADDRESS TO THE CITIZENS OF TIOGA CO. The undersigned having been appointed by the Crystal-Spring Lodge of Good Templars, a committee for that purpose, respectfully beg leave to address the citizens of Tioga county upon the subject of the vote to be taken on the Second Tuesday of October inst. for and against a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

COMMUNICATIONS. A Brief Statement of the Fraud and Treachery practiced by J. W. Ryan, toward Thos. L. Baldwin prior to, and in the Tioga Nominating Convention.

Editor Agitator—Dear Sir:—As there has been an attempt on the part of Mr. Ryan and his friends to misrepresent Mr. Baldwin's position before the people of this county, by declaring him a bolter from the decision of the Tioga Convention, I beg leave to make a statement of the facts in regard to Mr. Ryan's action prior to, and in that Convention towards Mr. Baldwin.

1. J. W. Ryan was the first person that encouraged Mr. Baldwin to be a candidate. He sent to him personally and desired him to be a candidate; stating at the same time that he, (Ryan) would be happy to use his vote and influence for him.

2. J. W. Ryan was elected a delegate to the Tioga Convention at Mr. Baldwin's suggestion, and instructed to support Mr. Baldwin with all his influence; and on the day of the nomination he dined with Mr. B., and repeatedly assured him that he would not be a candidate against him.

3. There were no regular delegates elected in Elkland township; but on the day of the Convention credentials were made out for them at Tioga, and they were admitted into the Convention and voted.

4. From the facts developed at and since the nomination was made, there can be no doubt but that Mr. Ryan had been figuring for some weeks before to get the nomination; and that he well understood that he was to be a candidate all the while he was professing friendship to Mr. Baldwin, and solemnly assuring that gentleman that he would not be; and that he acted in bad faith from the beginning.

5. J. W. Ryan was the first man who made the proposition to fuse the parties and obtained most of the signatures of the Standing Committee. He declared his object to be to disband the parties and build a new party on the ruins of the old.

6. Mr. Baldwin told Mr. Ryan, (after the rumor that Ryan was to be a candidate reached his ear, which it did not until a few hours before the Convention organized,) that if he (Ryan) intended to be a candidate, he (Baldwin) would not be; as he did not wish to quarrel about it.

7. From these briefly stated facts, it will be seen that Mr. Baldwin's defeat in the Tioga Convention was brought about by the base treachery of Mr. Ryan, who became a friend that he might betray, and accepted of Mr. Baldwin's hospitality while he meditated his betrayal.

8. Mr. Ryan assured him that he had no such intention. It would be a great triumph over the Slaveocracy and the despotism of "Regular Nominations." Besides, we may find in it, a solution of the question—"Who in the name of nature is SAM ALLEN?"

9. It has been reported that Hon. G. A. Grow is in favor of Bigler for Governor. We have the best of reasons for stating that this report is without any foundation in truth. It arose from the fact that he presided at the Montrose Bigler meeting.

10. A painful rumor is also current here, that a destructive fire occurred in Towanda last week, which consumed both printing offices, the Court House, and other valuable property.

11. A slanderer named. It has been reported that Hon. G. A. Grow is in favor of Bigler for Governor. We have the best of reasons for stating that this report is without any foundation in truth.

12. An Artful Dodger. LAWRENCEVILLE, Sept. 25, 1854. M. H. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find letters, which you are at liberty to use as you think proper.

13. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

14. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

15. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected that he was going to vote for Bigler. He said he should not, but would vote for Pollock. This statement was made in the presence of Royal Wheeler. Respectfully, SAMUEL CHAPMAN.

THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

16. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

17. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

18. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

19. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

20. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

21. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

22. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

23. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

24. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

25. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

26. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

27. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

28. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

29. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

30. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

31. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

32. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows:

33. Lawrenceville, Sept. 25, 1854. Mr. COBB, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As Mr. J. W. Ryan is charged with pledging himself to vote for both candidates for Governor—Bigler & Pollock, I will state what I know in relation to the matter: I told him I suspected

34. A Man Known by the Company he Keeps? Mr. EDITOR:—Will somebody be kind enough to answer the following questions: Is a man known by the company he keeps?

35. Mansfield, Sept. 22, 1854. P. DAMON, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 20th was received yesterday, two days for the mail. The conversation with Mr. J. W. Ryan, was in substance about as follows: