He believed he had always been a consistent friend of freedom, and trusted he ever should be. He believed his principles are in no danger now. If things go on as they have done, we should present the spectacle of a nominal Republic, containing within itself the worst system of despotism on earth. He believes Slavery, if it had the power, would menacle the free labor of the North. When Slavery and Christianity conflicts, which goes by the board !-When the interests of Freedom and Slavery are at variance, which must yield? It would be safer to proclaim in Russia that the Czar is a despot, and his government ought to be overthrown, than to proclaim in South Carolina, the great truth of the Declaration of Independence, that all mankind are created free and equal. In one case you would probably be sent to Siberia. In the other you would be sent to your graves.

We are now strong, if we would use our power; we may be overpowered hereafterour children may be the mere tools and underlings of the South.

It is the bost of our free institutions that every man may aspire to office. But to-day, no man can obtain place under the Gevernment who is not pro-slavery. He would venture the opinion that there is not a Postmaster in the country, who would dare speak in favor of freedom, loud enough to be heard at Washington. He must forswear the love of free principles he acquired in his youth, for the sake of office. He must forswear his religion, for to say that slavery is a divine institution is to deny the religion of the Bib-

He would give his hand to all who would co-operate with him in the great cause of human rights, whethere former friend or foe. If we have the same objects to accomplish, we will accomplish them if we can. If men are honest, they can find the true path for the friends of freedom. If any man anticipates being led off by some organization, can't he stop? He thought he could—he knew he could stop. He could say, we will part company. Cannot we go where judgment and conscience direct? But they say we shall be ned into a pro-slavery organization. We need not fear that. We have broken down on pro-slavery organization, and can anoth-

STARTLING, BUT TRUE! WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW,

How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhibitating influ-ence incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicibly, becomes a feeble, sickly, sallow, debilitated wife, with frame cunciated, norves unstrang, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an atter physical and mental prosfration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the macringe state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often REREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN

The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in

DREADFUL INHERITANCE

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

PROFESSOR OF DISPASES OF WOMEN. One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 250. [ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.] A standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksullers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES e been sold, of which there were upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SEXT BY MAIL. attenting the high estimation in which it is held as a re-liable popular Medical BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the anthor having devoted his acclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion auxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many sustering from protapses uteri (falling of the womb), or from fiver albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confine-ment. Many have deficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief. It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in Jearning what causes interfere with their health and hanpiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of ago and the proper education of rour children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellors as on the public, by imitations of title page, apartons editions, and surreptitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary, therefore, to

CAUTION THE PUBLIC to buy no book unless the worls "Dr. A. M. MAURICKAE, 129 Liberty Street, N. Y.." is on (and the entry in the Clerk's Office on the back of) the title page; and buy only of respectable and honorable dealers, or send by mail, and address to Dr. A. M. Mauriceau.

NEW YORK TRIBUME.

DAILY, $6; SEMI-WEEKLY, 83; WEEK. LY, 82. ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE commences its XIVth annual volume with the month of Soptember-commences it with a circulation (115, 000) larger than was ever before accorded to any general newspaper whatever. This circulation has been gradually and laboriously attained by concentrating upon THE TRIBUNE the best efforts of many editors and correspondents, and by a greater liberality of outlay in each department than was probably ever before risked on any journal. It has been attained, not by sailing smoothly in the current of Opinion before the wind and basking in the smiles of majorities, but by an earnest, fearless devotion to TRUTH and PROGRESS as above all lower than former prices. Merrimae and Cocheck. to time repelled many sunshine friends, whose prejudices or seeming interests were thereby contraven-ed, but have combined to form a character which it will endeavor to maintain, and assign it a position among journals which we feel that it will be henceforth a success not to impair.

The leading ideas to which THE TRIBUNE is devoted may be brisfly set forth as follows:

1. FREEDOM, to do whatever is essentially right-not alone for which Americans, or Anglo Saxons, or Caucasians even-not for one Race to determine whether they will or will not hold another Race in abject bondage—but for every Race and Nothing, Know Something a Nation, and every adult rational human being.—

This Freedom is rightfully absolute in the broad do.

main of Opinion, and involves the equal and Imperative right to Political Franchises;

2. ORDER, or the necessary right of the legally indicated majority to interdict in the sphere of action all practices which it deems demoralizing, therefore prejudicial to the common weal;

3. BENEFICENCE, or the wisdom and policy of employing the resources and credit of the com-munity to accomplish works of general and un-questioned utility to which individual means are indquate, or which, though eminently conductive to the public good, do not promise to reimburse, to their direct or indirect income the outlay required by their construction;
4. INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT, as there corner stone of a true and benignant National Poli-cy, counting the naturalization of a new and valua-ble art or produce of the soil as more important than the acquisition of a fresh province or island, and equality within the legitimate sphere of National concern and National effort;

5. PEACE, as a vital condition of true Progress

ted to what is currently distinguished as light reading; but reviews of New Books of decided interest, with choice extsacts illustrating their quality are freely given, while the great body of our paper is devoted to a lucid and careful digest of the NEWS OF THE DAY, with Editorial comments thereon. devoted to a lucid and careful digest of the NEWS of THE DAY, with Editorial comments thereon. We have reliable Correspondents in each quarter of the globe, and in nearly all the principal cities of Europe and America, and their letters will aid our Europe and America, and their letters will aid our readers to a clearer understanding of the causes which are now gradually converting the Old World into one gigantic arena for the death-struggle of rival interests, passions and ambitions-THE TRIBUNE contains reliable reports of the Markets. Our Cattle Market reports alone are worth more than the price of the paper to those who are in gaged in raising and selling Cattle.

No paper involving so great an expense as our Weekly and Semi-Weekly could be afforded at the price of these sheets except in connection with a Daily, nor could our Daily be sustained at its price without the ald of our Country Editors. Large as our circulation is, it would involve us in ruinous loss John B. Benn, Wm. J. Benn, Henry Steele, and William Davis.

Note: The TRIBUNE is realized the largest variety and extension of solid information concerning the events of the day which has been or can be bined with extreme cheapness : and in that faith we commend it to the avorable regard of the reading public. We offer no premiums for subscribers empt none to take it by gambling prospects of winning farms or mansions in a lottery in which tickets are furnished to its patrons, employ no tarveling, ngents to importune people into taking it, and was none of our room in dunning our subscribers for
