READ what they say about CHARLES From Hon. N B. Bakka, Governor of New Managebre

"Concord, N. H. Jan. 10, 1855. This continue that the Corn Planter invented by Charles H. Dana of Lielavon, and known at "Dana Corn Planter," was exhibited as the State Pair 1854, at Kesse, in this obtate, and received the highest pressum symmet-ed by the Society to that class of implements. I have seen the Planter in use on a variety of soils, executing its work under all circumstances with admirable accuracy and depatch; and confidently recommend it as decidedly the best implement of the kind within my knowledge.

N. B. BAKER.

President N. H. Ag. Society.

The Secretary of the State Agricultural Society of New Hampshire also concurs in the opinion of Gov. Baker. This Planter took the premium at the last annual Fair of the Conn. River Valley Agricaltural Society, and was not only considered the hest Planter on exhibition, but the best ever used in the country.

The subscriber has purchased the right for this County, and is prepared to furnish the Planter to be der. He is also Agent for the sale of the Right in Potter County. GEO. PAYNE: Wellsboro' April 19, 1855.
