THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

Gen. Wilson Flaying the New-York ... Doughtaces.

During the session of the Know Nothing Convention, Mr. SQUIRES, of the New York Delegation, made a violent and coarse attack upon Massachusetts. Gen. Wilson took up the gauatlet thrown down, and flayed the New York delegation in the following style :---

Gen. Wilson rose to repel the unprovoked assault made upon his State, and to rebuke the insolence of the member from New-York. All would bear witness that he (Gen. W.) had uttered no words of unkindness to any one during the sittings of the Convention. From gentlemen from the South he had received acts of kindness he should ever remember, and all would notice that the wanton assault of the member from New York was wholly unprovoked. That member had declared that the Anti-Slavery movement had thrown up small men. The exhibition the member had made of himself proves that he is the last creature on earth to sneer at any 2 o'clock. one for want of shility, temper or imaduers, Gen. Wilson said he and his associates stood apon that floor with 80.000 Massachusatts freemen at their broks-the delegates from New York stood there with only a baffled and defeated faction behind them-men of buckram. Seward trod his heel upon the necks of the rampant gentlemen from New-York, and if this New York platform was agreed to, he would look down into their nolitical graves. New York must be and shall be held responsible for their platform ; it was their work. We could not stand upon it in a single Free State of the North. The member says he will go to the Democrats if the restoration platform is adopted. Let him go -lot his associates go, bag and baggagewe shall lose little of either talent, character or power. He will no longer be a hypocrite he tells us : we are glad to hear it. Adopt this platform and the North will repudiate it and you; it has sent 120 pledged men to Congress to restore freedom to Kansas; will rate body with Banking or discount privileges, by these members obey your decrees and violate the name and style of the "THE TIOGA COUN. these members obey your decrees and violate these pledges ? Never will they do so. Mr. Barker, who wanted to be a Mayor of New ident of this Council, and could not get it becausé we wanted a man who knew something more than to repeat the parrot phrase-"No North, no South, no East, no West," and would not have one that blasphemously sneers at the higher law-he boasted of their victo. ries in New York ! That state had resolved in favor of restoring the Missouri Comprothise. She was in layor of it by tens of -thousands. We mean to hunt down these men of the North who betray us we will look down into the political graves of these apostates of New York-these men who are false to the North and not true to the South. Takes to the North and not true to the South. Massachusetts was not there to save the Un-ion—it was safe; we don't raise the question in Massachúsetts. Liberty, not the Union, Saud Dollars, said Bank to be located in the Boro' of in Massachúsetts. Liberty, not the Union, is in danger, and he was here to help preserve it. He would give the South all its rights, but we demanded all our rights. Nincteen years ago, standing beside William's slavepen in the capitol, he pledged himself to Liberty, and he had never in public or in private, at home or abroad, spoken or written one word inconsistent with that pledge, and he never would to save any party, or at the command of any power on earth. He would trample with disdain on your platform-for which New York was responsible-so would the North. Gen. Wilson also treated the constitutional argument in relation to Slavery, together by a general index (prepared anow each year,) which with the publication of Purdon's Digest ift, one alphabet; and are bound up with Purdon's Digest, and also sold separately. Thus the pupeleser of Fordon's Digest will al-ways be in possession of the complete body of the Statue Laves of Pennsylvania days to the vary hour when he purchases it. Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, has complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness for bids consulting a modical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or slarm as all the peculiarities incident to hor situation are described. . How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularlties poculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many soffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony, for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous doliveries, and slow and uncortain recoverios. Some whose lives are hamrded during such time, will each find in its pages the subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or these contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleeplass nights, incapacitating the tion, limited by the verge of the local law. He told the South they would yet be glad to rely upon this doctrine, and to adopt the principle of State Rights as to Slavery.

This rough sketch conveys no adequate idea of Senator Wilson's speech. He spoke for an hour and with his greatest ability, defining his position toward the South, and particularly toward the doughfaces of the North with much clearness and point. His friends say, who heard it, that it was the ablest speech the General ever made; I believe he so regards it himself; and Southern gentlemen are high in their appreciation of the ability and power it displayed. They enjoyed immensely his flaying alive of the New York Delegates and all admitted that this was fully deserved.
