New Postal Arrangement.

It is provided that on and after the first of July, 1855, letters alleged to be valuable shall be registered at the office of mailing; by the applicant, upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five cents. Postmasters are to keep a receipt book, similar to a bank check book. The receipt is to be given to the applicant, and a description, with date, name, where sent and to whom, is to be entered on the margin. Receipted letters are not to be entered in the ordinary mail accounts, but separately; a letter bill for each registered letter is to be sent, separate from the letter, to the Postmaster, which in large offices is to be opened by himself or confidential clerk. In all large offices, letters received before the hour of mailing are to be placed in a secure place of deposit, until the time for closing the mails, when each package is to be sealed with wax at the tie, and placed in the bag at the latest moment.

A Catholic Priest and His Wife. The Chicago Tribune of the 11th inst., gives a curious account of the marriage of a Catholic priest, Nicholas Stamber, of that city, to a young German girl, and her desertion of him. The marriage was performed in private by a Catholic priest, according to the rites of the Church, excepting the wedding ring and witnesses. Both priests were then in orders, and continued to be up to the time of the wife's desertion. The wife occupied the place of a housekeeper or upper servant in the priest's family for about nine months, and received good treatment and wages for her services; but some three months since left her husband, being as she said, "talked into it," by her friends.

The married priest and the officiating one have been deposed from office, since the affair has become known. And now the husband brings a suit in chancery for the recovery of his wife. The wife is brought into Court and interrogated by the presiding Judge, to whom she reveals the above facts respecting her marriage, and also her reason for deserting her husband—that she did not consider the marriage legal or binding, because her husband was a priest; and that she had been educated in the belief that she could never go to heaven if she lived in marriage with a priest. The Court assured her that her marriage was perfectly legal; but left her free to choose between her parents and her husband; and she resolutely chose her parents, refusing to listen to the earnest entreaties of her disconsolate and forsaken spouse.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW. How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilarating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE. But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sorrow, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, consciousness being the intensest of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often to her children.

HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN. "UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION," TRANSMITTING CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, HYPOCHONDRIA, NEURALGIA, GOUT, KING'S EVIL, and other and worse Diseases, as a DREADFUL INHERITANCE FROM THE PARENTS.

"And must this continue? Must this be? Is there no remedy? No relief? No hope of escape and eradicating them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE OF LYONS. One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 200. (SEE FINE PAPER, EXTRA NUMBER, $1.00.) A standard work of established reputation, found placed in the catalogue of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1841, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES have been sold, of which there were exported to the United States ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular Medical

the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter. Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes, and the proper remedies for, her complaint. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to her sensitiveness for advice consulting a medical gentleman, will find most instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm at all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from profuse uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are endangered during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief. It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the slightest welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness, and how to prevent it. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, contemplating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicine and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on bookellers as on the public, by imitations of this page, spurious titles, and surreptitious reproductions of copyright and other devices and deceptions; it has been found necessary, therefore, to

CAUTION THE PUBLIC

Upon receipt of One Dollar "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION" is sent (with 1/2 cent) to any part of the United States, the Canadian and British Provinces.
