

the very interesting ceremony of painting my face with black paint—thus marking upon it the letter R. Just how that proved—that it will be better for the people of Kansas to make Kansas a slave State, rather than a free State—I am not informed.

This ceremony being ended, and the company having now grown to some thirty or forty persons (boys included), my trial began—if that be called a trial, in which there was neither judge, jury, law, order nor counsel for the prosecution or defense.

are not the right to hold slaves in the Territory, or shall introduce into Kansas, print, publish, write, circulate, or cause to be introduced into the territory, written, printed, published, or circulated in this territory, any book, paper, magazine, pamphlet, or circular, containing any denial of the rights of persons to hold slaves in this territory, such person shall be deemed guilty of felony, and punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not less than two years.

This is no more nor less than making a difference of opinion, upon a constitutional question, a penitentiary offence. It establishes the prison and the pillory as the arbiter of constitutional law, in preference to the judiciary of the land, makes the human mind square its convictions to the ideas of a few accidentally elected legislators.

Men are no longer to be permitted in the new territory to express abstract opinions upon moral questions without suffering the ignominious penalties of a State Penitentiary, and that is what is called opening the territories to the people of the whole Union; and admitting all persons to the enjoyment of its fair lands. Squatter sovereignty was much lauded by Gen. Cass and Mr. Douglas, in the outset, and yet, under this phase of it, both Mr. Douglas, and Cass would be sent to the state prison, if they dared to utter in Kansas territory what they have repeatedly said in glowing language in the Senate of the United States.

Mr. JORL LYONS, of Greenfield, Mass., has a pear tree which, for two years past, has borne two crops of pears, and this year it has had two crops of pees, on it, and has now blossomed for a third crop.

The Missouri papers say more corn will be raised in that State this year than for any five years before. Much of the wheat land averages 40 bushels to the acre.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW. How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pliable condition so not even for one day to feel happy and exhilarating influences incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE. But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, narrow, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and most salutary rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often to her children.

HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN. "UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION." Transmuting CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, RHEUMATISM, INSANITY, GOUT, EPILEPSY, &c., &c., and other and worse Diseases.

DREADFUL INHERITANCE FROM THE PARENTS. "And must this continue? Must this be? Is there no remedy? No relief? No hope?" The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in—

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION; BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, F.R.S.E., F.R.C.S., F.R.C.P., &c., &c. One Hundred and thirty, (100,000), 10mo., pp. 250. (100,000, 10mo., pp. 250.)

A standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES have been sold, of which there were upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation to which it is held as a reliable popular Medical BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is nearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes, and the proper remedies, for her complaint. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicate habits seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from sturting uterus (weakness, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficulty if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are endangered during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? A wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocations, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various imitations have been published in the United States, Canada, and other countries, and surreptitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary, therefore, to issue the following CAUTION THE PUBLIC to buy no book unless the words "Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, F.R.S.E., F.R.C.S., F.R.C.P., &c., &c." are printed on the title page; and buy only of respectable and honorable dealers, or send by mail, and address to Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but as the public are not conversant with the experience of eminent public men is found in their affidavits upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together so as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Chery Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only is desired for the curative purposes of the disease, and the most and obvious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved purely and more confidently, and are willing more powerfully to resist to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expressed that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as I do not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British Provinces. They are to be sent to any person who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Chery Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body; restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
