2. 1 Magnificent Steamer.

"The New World is the last and highest triumph of ateamboat architecture. The long expected three-decker came to our dock this morning, and is the theme of wonder and admiration to all who have examined her. Her distinguishing peculiarity is a second upper cabin, a third story to the ordinary Hudson river floating hotel; and so well proportioned is it, so light, artistically related to the vast bulk of the vessel, that there is no effect of topheaviness produced, and no sense of insecurity or unfitness suggested. Like all the o'her improvements in steamboat building made by Mr. Newton, this last one is as successful as it was bold.

"The steamer New World should have for New Yorkers-what it undoubtedly will have for European travellers upon the Hudsonull he interests of a public institution of the Empire State. She is magnificent in her propartions, her appointments, her capacity, strength and speed. No passenger vessel in the world is comparable to her. She has a length of 370 feet, 48 feet of beam (80 over all) and 10½ feet depth. Her engine has a er answer, and desired the boy, to remember cylinder 76 inches in diameter, with a stroke it. Some hours after, the teacher repeated of 15 feet. Her wheels are 46 feet, with a fuce of 11 feet. With room to "bed and great agony, and at length answered ; "I board" in voluptuous style, one thousand people, she can carry upon her ample deck 250 tuns of freight. In good running order she can bring upon their way of pleasure or business the passengers who throng her several stories at the rate of twenty miles an hour. With this great speed those who read by her chandehers will not experience interruption from the ratiting of the glass drops, so firm-ly is she put together. Enormous as is her she answered and said 'What's that to you. bulk and rapid her movement, the New World draws but 5-1-2 feet of water.

SOMETHING TO SWEAR BY .- Father Shehano an old Universalist preacher in Alabama, is called by the reople 'the walking Bible.'-In a country court it was discovered on a certain occasion that there was no Bible in the court-house to swear the putors upon. The judge, casting his eyes upon the venerable preacher said, there's Suchine, he has the Bible in his head, they can lay their hands on him, and that will answer every purpose.' We have heard of a custom-house at the south where a directory was used for several weeks in the administration of oaths, as the copy of the Bibic at the collector's desk was removed on account of its dirty and torn appearance.-Boston Trans.

Judge Huston, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, was, during his lifetime, the owner of considerable wild ! A TTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT land in Tinga county, and occasionally had a lassouit with tumber stealers and squatters. On one occasion, wishing to put off a suit, he was required to tay legal grounds, and refused to answer, as the universal custom is in this country, with the uplified hand. A Brble was sent for, but the constable being somewhat of a wag, instead of a Bible, brought in a Dictionary; the Judge was sworn and the suit continued. Some one mentioned the joke to his Honor after he had left the Court Room "Just right, just right," said the Judge, "in such a d----ble suit any. thing is good enough to swear by."-Bal. ance.
