THE HEATHEN. - The Knickerbocker re lates the following : "A Sunday school teacher was in the habit of taking up a collection in his juvenile class for missionary objects every Sunday, and his box receivd scores of pennies which other wise would have found their way to the drawers of the confectioner and toy man. He was not a little surprised, however, one Sunday, to find a bank bill crushed in among the weight of copper. He was not long in finding it to be a broken bank, mates who hal seen him deposit and thought it a very noble gift.

"Didn't you know this bill was good for nothing ?" said the teacher.

"Yes," answered the boy. "Then what did you put it in the box for?"

"I didn't s'pose the little heathen would know the difference, so I thought it would do just as well for them,"

A BAD PROMISE.-My friend Richards, says an eastern correspondent, was an inveterate chewer of tobacco. To break himself of the habit, he took up another, which was that of making a pledge about once a month that he would never chew another piece. He broke his pledge just as often as he made it. The last time I had seen him he told me he had broken off for good, but now, as 1 met him, he was taking another chew.

"Why, Richards," says I, "you told me you had given up that habit, but I see you are at it again."

"Yes," he replied, I have gone to chewing and left off lying.

In .- An oblivious son of the Emerald Isle, in passing over the Great Western Railway a day or two since, made a singular mistake, much to the amusement of the passengers. He had imbibed at every available place, and seemed inclined to continue the operation ad libitum. He was coiled up in a seat, with his head swinging like a broken pendulum, and his eyes half closed. The train was slowing, and the brakesman stuck his head into the car and called out "Fairchild's Creek." Our hero incontinently straightened up and toddied towards the door, muttering, "Fair chance to drink, eh ? be gorra I'm in.'

WORK !- Richard Burke being found in a reverse shortly after an extraardinary display of powers in Parliment by his brother Ed. mund Burke, and being questioned by a friend as to the cause, replied :

"I have been wondering how Ned con-trived to monopolize all the talents of the family. But then again, I remember when we were at play, he was always at work.

The force of this anecdote is increased by the fact that Richard Burke was considered not inferior in talents to his brother. Yet the one rose to greatness, while the other died comparatively obscure. Don't trust to your genius, young men, if you would rise, but -work

CANDIED ORANGE OR LEMON PEEL .-Boil the rind from thick skin oranges or lemons in plenty of water, until they are tender, and the water once or twice, if necessary. Charify halt a pound of sugar with half a cup of water for each pound of peel; when it is clear put in the peels, cover them, and boil them until clear and the syrup almost a candy; then take them out, and lay them on inverted serves to dry; boil the syrup with additional sugar, then put in the neels; stir them

AYER'S PILLS, New and singularly successful remedy for the cestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rhoumatism, Fovers, Gout, Humors, Nerrounness, Irritability, Inflamma-tions, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medi-cine is not more or less required, and much sick-ness and suffering might be provented, if a harm-less but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body provails; besides it soon generates serious and four fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicions use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Fererish symptoms, and Billous derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep scated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Profes-rors, and Patients, has shown results surgassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon tial.
These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical teience can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Verentable remedies, extra ted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a noré efficient remed than had hitherito been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode for the cur tive effect is present. All the instra do for the cur tive effect is present. All the instra do for the cur tive effect is present. RESOLUTIONS, Never to resent a supposed injury till I know the views and motives of the author of it. Not on any occasion to retaliate it.

Always to take the part of an absent person who is censurd in company, so far as truth and propriety will allow.

Never to think the worse of another one on account of his differing from me in polititical and religious opinions.

To aim at cheerfulness without levity. Never to court the favor of the rich by flat-ering either their vanities or their vices.

HENRY WARD BEECHERISM .- This clergyman recently preached a sermon against old school Calvinism, in which he said he wished it fully understood by his people, that he served them not as the minister of a sect, but of the truth. "I am not," he declared, "a Calvanist, an Armenian, a Universalist, a Unitarian, a Pelagian, nor a Swedenborgian; but I am simply Henry Ward Beecher, a preacher of the Gospel, a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ; and tryingto make other people believe in him-that is all !"

FACT.--- A man might as well try to pull feathers from a tailor's goose, or try to wheel himself to glory in a wheelbarrow, as to convince a fashionable woman that economy consists in staying at home and taking care of the babies and other chicken fixens, and in figuring up the grocer's bill. Folks who are afflicted with a domestic dunity that wears thousand dollar shawls and super extra kids-make a mem.

A PRINTER not long a go being "flung"" by his sweetheart, went to the office and tried to commit suicide with the "shooting stick," but the thing wouldn't "go off." The "devil" wishing to pacify him told him to peep into the sanctum where the editor was writing duns to delinquent subscribers. He did so and the effect was magical. He says that picture of despair reconciled him to his fate.

LONG PRAYERS .- Speak against long pray. ers, Elder Knapp says:-"Whan Peler was endeavoring to meet his master, and was about sinking, had his supplication been as long as the introduction to one of our modern paryers, before he would have got half through he would have been fifty feet under water."
