New York Tribune, 1855-6. THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fiftcenth year: Yoi XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the lat of Rep-tombor last. The American public need not now be made ac-quainted with its character or chains to consideration. With bott a subordinate regard for prindence, policy for popularity, it has almost to stand for Hightcounses, for Truth, for Human-ity, against fortified lunquity, Frand and Oppression. There is not a show-truder on this Contenent, though he may never read anything but has bills of sale and notes payable, who do a not know and hate the TRIRUNE; there is not an exten-ne fabricator of drugged and polsopous Lduors who does do s not know and hate the TRIBUNE; there is not an exten-sive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does all consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and worder why its publication is allowed in a connectroni, cotton-buring Cify like New York. The NEWARK MEBURY once f reliaby remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing, availations employer who was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminerity generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and planspoken in its denunciations of imputy and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it naw have done temporary injustice t, individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, are do it the crue of the wroured and enforting. In its t, individuals, but it has never been unautifin to irfinciple, nord-at to the cruse of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories con-templating the melloration of human wors, especially those of the vorceless and down-troiden, have ever found au-honce and hospitality, while it has aritently resisted, and will per-

of the vorteless and down-trustion, have ever found authence and hospitality, while it has ardently resisted, and will per-sistent's combat every attempt to proscribe and degrade any case because of diversation of Mativity, Creed or Color. In defause of calumnies the most attrocious, and of hostili-ties the most deadly and unitring, THE TRIBUNE has grown readily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in propor-tios. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous hody of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experime for the pasticular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the data amount of reading matter given, more than quadruples that of its earliest used, a staff of valued correspondents en-carcies the globs, transmitting gardy and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention, while Politics, Leg-istion. Literature, Art. History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone ex-concession-finds here the freest and mott searching discussion. Attached by globul conviction to the benifteent policy of hom-trial development a and laternal Intercommunication, whose most comparisons champion through the last Half-(caury we HESIRY CLAY—indused, morewer, with that spirit of forboarsmace toward our vester methods and tow-aid the nuch wronged Aburginess of this continent, and of peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE triffBUSE. THE CASH SYSTEM ADOPTED.

ON and after the first of January, 1856, the PENNSYLVANIA TELEGRAPH, published at Har-risburg, Pa., will be owned and conducted by the undersigned, who will give their best energies to make it worthy of its cause and of its friends.

It worthy of the cause and of the friends. It will commence the new year printed on entirely new type, and the Weekly greatly enlarged in form, while the price will be lower than that of any other puper of its class ever published at the Capital of the State, and payments will be required strictly in ad-vance. No paper will be sent until it is paid for, and all will be discontinued as the subscriptions expire, unless they are renewed. The Telegraph will be issued SEMI-WERKLY, on a sheet of twenty-four columns, during the see-stons of the Legislature, and WEEKLY on a double sheet of forty-eight columns the remainder of the year. It will present a comprehensive summary of the Legislative proceedings; all important general laws as they are passed, and aim to give the current political intelligence of the times in the fullest and most reliable manner. In short, the proprietors hope to make it a complete Family and Political Journal, and they confidently appeal to the people of Penn-sylvana to sustain their enterprise. The Telegraph will advocate a liberal political policy, and alm to unite all those who, though any mated by the same common purposes, and looking to the same beneficent results, seem distructed by the conflict of distinctive organizations. 'It will sustain the highest standard of American Nationality: and. while yielding a sucred obedience to the compromises of the Constitution, will determinedly resist the extension of Human Slavery. It will give a cordial, carne-t but independent support to the administra-tion of Gov. Pollock.

Terms-Strictly in Advance.

forms of discase which have a common origin in Malazia or Minuta. " This is a NATURAL ANTIDOTE which will entirely protect any resident or traveler with fin the most sickly or swampy localities, from any Ague or Billious discase whatever, or any injury from constantly inhaling Malazia or Miasma. Is will fastantly check the Ague in persons who have suf-fored for any length of time, from one day to twenty years, so that they need never to have another chill, by continuing in use according to firevictions. The pattern st once begins to re-cover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and raiked crue is effected. #Grout or two bottles will answer for ordinary cases; some spaniah, accompany each bottle. Price one dollar. Libersi discounts made to the trade. JAMESA. RHODES, Providence, R. I.
