

Continued from first page. A Man of Bones. Here is a curious fact...

Nothing can more gladden the heart than the contemplation of a portion of territory consecrated to Freedom...

But if unhappily, we should be involved in war between the two parts of the Confederacy...

On some future occasion I hope to have an opportunity to discuss at length the constitutional power of Congress over the territories...

The President in his annual Message, after reviewing the slavery question, closes with this rather singular summary of the cause of the present excitement at the North:

The art of the lawyer and the politician is ever to associate names made odious in the public mind with what they want to destroy...

The men of the North are but resisting the attempt to subvert the spirit and genius of the institutions of the Republic...

Down went the pillow-case—off went his coat—and was full of fight.

A Man of Bones. Here is a curious fact for you. The skull of a living man once grew into bone...

A PIGGISH ILLUSTRATION.—A country girl, several of whose sisters had married badly, was about, herself, to take the noose...

"How to go it."—Go it strong in your praise of the absent. Some of it will be sure to get around...

An Irish post-boy, having driven a gentleman a long stage-ride during torrens of rain, the gentleman said to him: "Paddy, are you not very wet?"
