It cannot be certainly known how this sad accident occurred : whether the log rolled down the bank and struck him while he was walking along below, or whether he was walking over the logs when they gave way. It is supposed, however, that he was instantly killed. Cyrus had entered upon his thirteenth year, and bid as tair for lite as any other, but alas! how true the saying "in the midst of life we are in death." He was naturally of an amiable, thoughtful disposition, respectful and obedient to his parents, a very agreeable associate to his young companions; and greatly beloved by all that knew him, as was manifested by the deep feeling exhibited by a very large concourse of people, on the occasion of his funeral obsequies. This is a sorrowful bereavement to his parents who had already followed ten beloved children to their graves But they have this consolation, that the parents and the surviving brothers and sisters be sustained by the grace of God while here below, and be fally prepared to meet their friends in heaven hereafter, when life with them shall have termina. tod

THE SUBSCRIBER takes the earliest opportu-A nity of informing the citizens of Tioga county, and the "rest of mankind," that he is now receiving his second stock of Goods for the Fall and Winter trade; and he deems it unnecessary and entirely out of order to go into an enumeration of the tho sund and one articles, that he in common with other merchants keep and are so

Extremely anxious to dispose of.

But there is one thing that he wishes distinctly understood, and that is, he does not buy goods to lay upon his sholves and counters and accumulate the dust of conturies, waiting for that good time when people are so green, or (what is worse) hard up, as to be willing to accept the "Old Familiar fices", of these "Shop keepers," at the "Old Familiar faces", of these "Shop keepers," at the "tariff," first infosed. (No insinuations?) His motio is "sinall profits, speedy sales, and quick returns." Thinking that by adopting and liging up to the motio, he shall merit and receive a content of the motion set buriet for the start of the start set of the motion set. continuance of the patronage heretofore awarded him, he would say to al-eall and see the New J.
