*** We learn that an effort is now being made to provide a suitable fence for the burying ground. The committe to whom was entrusted the collection of funds, have succeeded in raising, by subscription, a sum nearly sufficient for their purpose. We hope every one will feel interested in this matter and endeavor to change its present ruinious condition, and make it appear as if some one had friends there. A small sum from each one will be sufficient to enclose it in a neat and durable manner; and we hope no one will refuse to grant this mark of respect for their memory.

*** Every one should go to work immediately and plant a garden, it will be found not only a means of enjoyment, of profitably spending your leisure time, but of great value in a pecuniary point of view. Now is the time to commence. We see quite a number of individuals around town, who have jobs of holding up posts and keeping boxes down at store doors, who would get better pay by going into this business. If it is true as alleged. that "vegetables grow most while we sleep," what immense crops some of them would

*** As the past winter has been a severe one, a great multitude of birds of all kinds have perished. The Hartford Courant has the following in which we fully concur:---"Shame on the man or boy who kills robins at this season of the year it is a dastardly ed to see all the old customers of the firm and as tning-unsportsmanlike. The youth who murders robins in the spring is the same young man who kills hired horses because they are hired, cheats his creditors and abuses his mother These qualities go in clusters, and where you find a boy or man mean enough to shoot a robin in April, you find a coward! l'ass the boy who kills robins in April on to Pettit's American Eye-Salve. nis moral pillory." No red savage from the Florina everglades to the Oregon shore, would Brant's Pulmonary Balsam, kill a robin in the spring of the year. This is a vice of the blackguards of civilization.

"" We profess to be a great admirer of music, some kinds of it. We remember with what pleasure (!) we have listened to the subime strains of "Old Bob Ridley," as it floated up through the floor below, or the "linked sweetness" braided into innumerable strands. ; that groaned its way from the writhing keys of Miss Scraphima Ann's piano. But this nothing compared to the pleasure with which we have heard of late the song, not or "ine spheres," but of the frags. These "sweet barbingers of spring" have been out in ful force of late, making night vocal with their harmony. What pleasant thoughts their notes inspire, their coming out is symbolical of the speedy coming out of May, moonstime and muslin; buds, birds and beauir grass, groves and green peas. What usefu lessons can we all tearn from them, from their humble position in the mud, they teach us the benefit of upon all occasions. ## FALL AND WINTER GOODS, AT THE EMPIRE STORE

THE SUBSCRIBER takes the earliest opportunity of informing the citizens of Tioga county, and the "rest of mankind," that he is now receiving his second stock of Goods for the Fall and Winter trade; and he deems it unnecessary and entirely out of order to go into an enumeration of the thou send and one articles, that he in common with other merchants keep and are so

Extremely anxious to dispose of. But there is one thing that he wishes distinctly understood, and that is, he does not buy goods to lay upon his shelves and counters and accumulate the dust of centuries, waiting for that good time, when people are so green, or (what is worse) hard up, as to be willing to accept the "Old Familiar faces" of these "Shop keepers," at the "tariff," first imposed. (No insinuations?)

His notto is "small profits, speedy sales, and quick returns." Thinking that by adopting and living up to the motto, he shall merit and receive a continuance of the patronage heretofore awarded him, he would say to all—call and see the New Wellsboro, Nov. 15, 1855.
