DENTAL NOTICE. GUTTAPERCHA! GUTTAPERCHA!

DR. R. C. GILLETTE, late of 333 and 551 Broadway New York, is fully prepared to insert artificial substitutes for the natural teeth, as very recently adopted by his professional brethren of the Dental Association of New York, which cnables him to furnish the temporaries for a mere tri- measure to order, at as low prices as the times will fle. For this purpose guttapercha far excels any other kind of plate. The gum for a long time after extracting is too sensitive for the old method, and it adheres with greater tenucity. Teeth can be extracted and the temporaries inserted the same day. All kinds of filling executed with neatness and in a durable manner. Wellsboro' May 8, 1856.
