

SUMMER EVENING.

Young hills smile to the setting sun... The summer breeze... The golden light of the day...

ORATION.

DELIVERED IN MIDDLETOWN, JULY FOURTH, 1861.

BY J. L. CARROLL.

FELLOW CITIZENS: You have just listened to one of the most sacred documents that ever was written in any language... It is the Declaration of our Fathers as they were about to resist the invasions of a foreign king...

But though this Declaration was drawn up at the commencement of the American Revolution, yet the principles there set forth have a date anterior to that... They were placed by the Creator in the heart of man, and have had an existence ever since Adam's heart first began to throb...

The man whose heart is imbued with the principles of this declaration, becomes bold, courageous, unconquerable... "Thrice armed is he whose cause is just." King Pyrrhus saw in the faces of the Romans who had fallen upon the field of battle this manly courage...

THE AGITATOR.

Published for the Proprietors by J. L. CARROLL, at the office of the Agitator, No. 101 N. 2d St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WELLSBOROUGH, TIOGA COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1861. NO. 1.

History of Lobsters.

Lobsters are taken in a sort of baskets called lobster-pots. These are about three feet long and two feet wide, of semi-cylindrical form... The lobster is placed in the pot, and the pot is thrown into the water... The lobster is then taken out and prepared for the table...

Mysterious Providence.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman, tells something about "Mysterious Providence," which is worthy of a careful reading... "What a mysterious providence," say the farmer's wives, as they come together to look for the last time on one of their number...

The Great Wrought-Iron Gun.

This ponderous instrument of warfare has now been waiting for three weeks the arrival of some of government officials to test its power... So far, it appears to have surpassed the anticipations of even military officers...

Well, neighbor, Gen. Taylor's dead!

"When did he die?" "Six years ago." "Who's President now?" "A man from New Hampshire called Pierce."

It appears that 76 Kansas Emigrants from Chicago...

It appears that 76 Kansas Emigrants from Chicago, on passing up the Missouri, at Lexington, were robbed of their arms... Lexington is a famous place. It was here that Gov. Robinson was seized without any warrant, and sent back to Leecombe...

SUMMER EVENING.

Young hills smile to the setting sun... The summer breeze... The golden light of the day...

ORATION.

DELIVERED IN MIDDLETOWN, JULY FOURTH, 1861.

BY J. L. CARROLL.

FELLOW CITIZENS: You have just listened to one of the most sacred documents that ever was written in any language... It is the Declaration of our Fathers as they were about to resist the invasions of a foreign king...

But though this Declaration was drawn up at the commencement of the American Revolution, yet the principles there set forth have a date anterior to that... They were placed by the Creator in the heart of man, and have had an existence ever since Adam's heart first began to throb...

The man whose heart is imbued with the principles of this declaration, becomes bold, courageous, unconquerable... "Thrice armed is he whose cause is just." King Pyrrhus saw in the faces of the Romans who had fallen upon the field of battle this manly courage...